NO. 305

[London,] October 9, 1945

SECRET

Sir,

With reference to your despatch No. 13 from San Sebastian dated the 20th August[†] regarding the case of Señor Kobbe, I have to inform you that the Canadian authorities agree that no good is likely to come from arguing the matter further with the Spanish authorities. I shall be glad, however, if you will inform the Spanish Ministry of Foreign Affairs that the authorities in both Canada and the United Kingdom take note of the Ministry's decision not to pursue the matter further, that they maintain the views which they have already expressed to the Ministry and that they draw their own conclusions regarding this further example of Spanish reluctance to take proper action against an official who has obviously worked in the interests of our enemies.

Ottawa, February 8, 1945

Sir,

Acting upon instructions received from my Government I have the honour to inform you that I have been authorised to enter into negotiations for an arrangement between Canada and Sweden regarding reciprocal rights for passage and landing in connection with civilian air traffic.

An agreement has recently been reached between Sweden and the United States for civilian air traffic between the two countries. The Swedish Airlines desire to direct this traffic over Canadian territory and would be happy to make such arrangements in this respect as would meet the wishes of the Canadian Government.
