SNIDER—STEVENS

Mr William J. Snider and Miss Evelyn Stevens, both of Boston, were united in the bonds of holy matrimony on Wednesday, June 10, 1908, at the Rev W. W. Bustard, of the Dudley Street Baptist church, Boston, Mass. At present they are visiting Mr Snider's mother, Mrs S. A. Snider, at Addison, and will visit friends at Athens, Smith's Falls, Ottawa and Montreal on their honeymoon, returning to Rochester, Mass, in August, where they intend making their future home.

DEATH OF MRS P. S. TRICKEY

Mrs Philander S. Trickey departed this life at her home in Athens on Sunday morning last, aged 55 years. Mrs Trickey had been in poor health for several weeks and her death was not unexpected. Deceased was a daughter of the late William McLean, and the whole of her useful life had been spent in this neighborhood, where she had many warm friends, who sincerely regret her demise and who deeply sympathize with the bereaved family in the great loss they have sustained. Mr Trickey predeceased her about two years ago. Four sons and four daughters mourn the loss of a loving mother, viz.: Cyrus of Watertown, Arden of Winnipeg, Melvin of Seely's, Fred at home; Mrs Joseph Kirkland of Fort Hope; Mary of Watertown, Blanche of Providence, R.I., and Martha at home. The funeral service will be conducted in the Methodist church by the Rev S. J. Hughes at 10.30 a.m. tomorrow (Thursday).

Public School board

A special meeting of Athens public school board was held on Monday evening for the purpose of engaging teachers for the ensuing school year. On motion of G. W. Beach, seconded by H. R. Knowlton, Miss Maud Wiltse was engaged to teach the third form, vice Miss Morris resigned. On motion of G. F. Donnelly, seconded by G. W. Beach, Mr. J. E. Bureholl was re-engaged as principal. On motion, the secretary and Mr. Beach were appointed a committee to arrange for further re-arrangements.

A CLEVER WIFE

That a stupid man needs a clever wife needs no discussion, says William T. Seed, in the July DELINEATOR. The stupid man is, the cleverer ought his wife to be, to make up for the stupidity of the male partner in the ménage. A clever man can better afford to face the struggle for existence with a stupid wife than can a stupid man. That is quite obvious. For if cleverness may be regarded as the intellectual stock in trade with which the married couple start out to do business in the world, the less capital that either partner has, the more important is that the other should be well provided with the indispensable element necessary for success in life. There is, therefore, some reason for recommending that stupid men should marry clever women and stupid women should marry clever men, in order to make things meet all around. On the other hand the precept, "Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers," may be held to lay down a general principle capable of being applied to the question now under discussion. It is obviously desirable that two people who are to live together all their lives should be sufficiently near together in intellectual attainment to have interests in common, and able to entertain when they are left together in the endless monotony of matrimony.

RUN-DOWN PEOPLE OF ATHENS NEED VINOL

The Modern Strength Creator and Body-BUILDER
Many people right here in this vicinity are all run down and hardly able to drag about—don't know what ails them. In ninety nine cases out of a hundred this is caused by overwork, too close confinement or continued strain and worry. A member of the firm of J. P. Lamb & Son, Our local druggists, says: "Such people need Vinol, our cod liver preparation without oil, which contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal and strength-creating elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cod's livers, but from which the useless oil has been eliminated and tonic iron added." Vinol cures conditions like this because in a natural manner it increases the appetite, tones up the digestive organs, makes rich, red, blood, and strengthens every organ in the body. We ask every man, woman and child in this vicinity who is run down tired and debilitated to try Vinol on our offer to return money if it fails J. P.
