DOMESTIC READING.

The temper is the atmosphere of family life.

Who ever did anything well which he had not feared to do?

No life, however long, will suffice to take us into the deepest depths of the Gospels.

However wise a man may be, he should always seek counsel and direction from the ministers of God.

Let us always keep on; however slow our progress wer are getting over a great deal of the road.

The voice of selfishness—"send the multitude away;" the voice of compassion—"give ye them to eat."

Unusual crosses follow unusual quiet; the greater the peace now the greater the cross presently.

The past is no longer yours, the future is not yet in your power; you have only the present wherein to do good.

Be patient in tribulation, watchful in prayer, strenuous in labors, modest in speech, grave in manner, and grateful for benefits.

Let us thank God for having called us to his holy faith; it is a great gift and the number of those who thank God for it is small.

THE CURE OF ARS.

Progress Made in the Cause of His Beatifleation.

The cause of the beatification of the Cure of Ars is making good progress, and everything leads us to hope that it will not be long before we shall see raised to the honors of the altars leads us to hope that it will not be long before we shall see raised to the honors of the altars that grand figure which God holds in reserve to elevate in these days of implety, the prestige of the priesthood, and the ill-understood beauties of the supernatural order. The congregation of Rites is, in fact, very favorable to the beatification of the Venerable Jean Baptiste Vianney, and has classed it among those it is expedient to push forward more. At the time of the Bishop of Belley's last visit ad limita, the Severeign Pontification of the Cure of Ars; but," he added, smiling, "here we go slowly; Rome is the Eternal City." Two months ago Leo XIII. used the same language to the propostulator: "We have great hopes," and His Holiness, "of beatifying M. Vianney." As to the sympathy of the Sacred College for the illustrious French priest, it is no mystery to anyone. The Cardinal-Vicar, whose devotion towards the friends of God is so ardent, asked Mgr. Lucon "as a favor" to take the place of Card. Zigilara, ponente of the cause. The Cardinal Prefect of the Congregation of Rites expressed a similar wish almost in the same words.

The present state of the proceedings is of a nature to confirm these hopes. All the procedures have been declared valid and the writings approved. Perhaps this year the smiteleplace. Two Congregations will follow the first, and will be very likely held next year. The miracles will be afterwards submitted to a smillar examination. Now the labors of the activates are mearly ended, and the work concerning the miracles will be afterwards submitted to a smillar examination. Now the labors of the samilar examination. Now the labors of the desirable to present in the Jublie year. The cause of the beatifications it was considered desirable to present in the Jublie year. The cause of the saints irradiating that grand figure. Crowds still throng round the tomb. The most striking graces reward the pilgrime faith, and the day when a public cultus shall be decreed to the saints irradiating that grand f

Sorel, 11th February, 1892.—I, the undersigned, have used Dr. Laviolette's Syrup of Turpentine for bronchitis, from which I was suffering for over one year. This syrup not only cured me of bronchitis but also of gravel and calculus in my kidneys, which had caused me intense sufferings for over 5 years and from which I was very near dying 2 years ago. I am now in perfect health, all symptoms of those diseases having completely disappeared for over three months. J. B. ROUILLARD, Inspector-General of Mines for the Province of Quebec.

Montreal, 18th February, 1892.—I, the undersigned, certify to my little boy, seven years old, having been cured by Dr. Laviolette's Syrup of Turpentine. Had caught "la grippe" last winter, took several remedies unavailingly. Cough most violent and very painful for us to hear. Towards mouth of July last, when cough was at its worst, made use of this marvelous syrup and was completely cured by two bottles. Never coughed since, and consider his lungs much strengthened by that wonderful remedy. J. A. DESROSIERS, No. 111 St. Christophe Street, [Agent of Estate-Skelly], 1598 Notre Dame Street.

Montreal, 19th January, 1891,—J. G. Laviolette, Esq., M.D., My dear Sir,—It is my duty to testify to the excellence of your Syrup of Turpentine. I have used it for the treatment of an acute laryngitis from which I was suffering since over nine years. One large bottle completely cured me. Many thanks. Your devoted C.A.M. Paradis, Priest, O.M.I.
