

XXIX. Where any person to whom any real estate shall be devised for an estate-tail, or an estate in quasi entail, shall die in the lifetime of the testator leaving issue who would be inheritable under such entail, and any such issue shall be living at the time of the death of the testator, such devise shall not lapse, but shall take effect as if the death of such person had happened immediately after the death of the testator, unless a contrary intention shall appear by the Will.

Devise of estate tail, not to lapse, if there be inheritable issue living at death of testator.

XXX. Where any person being a child or other issue of the testator, to whom any real or personal estate shall be devised or bequeathed for any estate or interest not determinable at or before the death of such person, shall die in the lifetime of the testator, leaving issue, and any such issue of such person shall be living at the time of the death of the testator, such devise or bequest shall not lapse, but shall take effect as if the death of such person had happened immediately after the death of the testator, unless a contrary intention shall appear by the Will.

Gifts to testator's child, &c., for life or greater estate, not to lapse, if the child leave issue living at death of testator.

XXXI. This Act shall not extend to any Will made before the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven; and every Will re-executed or re-published, or revived by any Codicil, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to have been made at the time at which the same shall be so re-executed, re-published or revived; and this Act shall not extend to any estate pur autre vie of any person who shall die before the said first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

Act not to apply to Wills made before 1st July, 1857.

As to Wills re-executed, &c.

XXXII. That this Act shall extend and apply only to Upper Canada.

Act limited to U. C.
