No wins for volley ballers

"Nothing seemed to go well that day," said coach Wally Dyba of his volleyball Yeomen's performance last weekend at Ryerson Polytechnical Institute.

The team was winless in the tournament, which marked the opening of Ontario University Athletic Association (OUAA) league play.

Their first match against Laurentian, the defending OUAA champion, saw the Yeomen go down to defeat winning one game in a best of five match. York lost the first game 9-15, came back to win the second 16-14 then proceeded to lose the next two 9-15, 6-15.

"There was a scheduling mix up so our match started almost an hour and a half late," said Dyba. "We just couldn't get untracked. Our attacking, receiving and serving stats bare this out. They're the worst we've had all year."

John Varco proved to be the most proficient attacker Saturday scoring 12 kills in 25.

The Yeomen's substandard play carried over to Sunday as the Yeomen lost to Queen's 6-15, 17-19, 13-15.

"We came close to winning two games but again we played poorly," said Dyba. "Our weakest area seems to be our attacks as we were only able to score on 30 per cent of them. We came out flat again and it could be due to our intensive schedule. Also we'll start working on combination attacks to bolster our offense. However, to make it effective our passing must improve."

Leading the attack Sunday was Vares, scoring 11 kills, and Showkat Hussein with 9.

Next league games are scheduled for Saturday when York plays Ryerson and U. of T. at U. of T.

Injuries cloud wrestling scene

By Jeff Rayman

Last weekend's Invitational Wrestling Match held at the University of Waterloo proved to be a disappointing affair as the Yeomen wrestling team came away with several losses and a severe injury to their most promising player.

Carlos Moniz, who has won his last six matches, all with pins, tore a number of ligaments in his leg during his third match of the competition. He did go on to win the match which was his third victory of the day, but will be out of action for the next six weeks.

One of the better moments for the team came when Gar Lok took the second place position for the 109 lb. division.

Coach John Pickard, who was elected as last year's "Coach of the year" for all varsity wrestling teams was not pleased with the weekend's results. "As a whole the team wrestled poorly. We certainly did not wrestle up to par".

Notable performances were given by Michael Pomer-140 lb., Dave Fujimagari-126 lb., Tom Mastantantuo-177 lb., and Kirby Whiteduck, who holds a second degree black belt.
