

They read him your introduction to the life of Harper & he was delighted with it. I have not taken them your newspaper.
Have been reading Quaker into this last again how very fine it is one of his most impressive utterances I think I have not had much reading lately for I have had a cold & got run down had to waste a good deal of time in resting I have seen a great many delightful friends & one of his ideas & thoughts from which come into them. I was sure we must do. Did you get my Amas can. It is a beautiful one for bringing hearts together.
Remember me very cordially to your father & your very sincerely

7 Jays Inn Periodicals ⁵⁵⁶⁴ E-C
Dec. 27. Condon.

My dear Mr King Hearty good wishes to you for the New Year & may your work prosper as much as has done in the past.
Thank you much for the new paper. I was much interested in reading of how you stopped the strike here.
In this letter cold might have done terrible sufferings.
These journeys & the mental & moral strain necessitated by having to deal with the Master, the men, must exhaust you nervously & I do hope you try to