

topple so easily from within?

When I left Britain it was distressing to take the temperature of officials of Canadian Pacific, with whom I had formerly been employed. The morale is bound to be lowered by what has been happening as well as by intermittent bombing of civilians.

So far as Canada's war efforts are concerned, the public want action but do not know how to get it. They why not write in a Home Front Association as outlined by me and have a Belgian Information, if the Government do not give a proper minute for that purpose.

Mrs. Bradner as "was Service Prunelle" would be considered a "joke" in Britain. He represents a part of Canada more alien than British, and Mrs. King has tied himself to the same section.

He has promised 350,000 Abramians consideration of a "separate state". It was in such demands the neutrals fell.

If you know one patriotic Canadian who is awake to dangers and can account me to find some Canadian and also people of 4 unless I will visit his office to get to know him. In Britain in a Home Front Association with a plan your faithfully

11
8
9
5

MEIGHEN PAPERS, Series 5 (M.G. 26, I, Volume 201)

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA