

DO NOT SAY IT—WRITE IT
C206906

FROM THE OFFICE OF RICHARD R. SANDFORD, ASST. MANAGER

Mail:

Leaves Hotel about 10 A.M. and around 4 P.M. This dispatch ties in with post office at Virginia Bch.
for their departures of mail.

March 31, 1947

This includes Air Mail and air mail must be in post office on Sundays by noon.
Last departure on Sunday from Bch.
As: Personnel as requested

Mr. Banks, President Cavalier Corp.
Mr. Derrington, Mr. (now in Florida)
Mrs. Mortimer, Head Housekeeper
Edith Smith-Maitland for your room
Wilton Johnson-Captain at dining room station
William - waiter for your table
Shaw - (I think is your service waiter)
If any meals are served upstairs
Mr. Pleasant, Supt. of Service (handles baggage on arrival at station)
And by the way, if you want the station wagon for your use let him or me know.
And if you would like to arrange for your lunch on any day at the Country Club, believe you would enjoy it as a change and pleasant outing. Advise on this if care to have it, and I shall make arrangements.
Mr. Spivey, Night, Mr. of the Club operation.
Mrs. Hatcher, Chief Telephone operator
Charles, Head Bookman at front entrance
Gene Gualico, Head Chef
Miss Miller or Mr. Morrissey - Front Office Cashier
Miss Alice Powell, Western Union and Transportation
Pete Marasco, News Stand
R.S.