

Dear Willie:

BOULDERFEL
BARRIE

We were very glad to get your letter today and the children as well as Mary & myself are delighted to think you will be here on Monday. Mary is trying to make arrangements for us to get to Markham on Saturday if possible, we will take the children off down for the day. I am sorry you will not be here for Sunday but Sir William will be able to have influential people to meet you. We were down at School Kirkpatrick's garden party which she had on June 21st - the 25th wedding anniversary. We got a splendid swap of Sir William & have one for him if Mary has not already sent him one. We are certainly very fond of you & I hope in the repeated story we always discuss the whole
