

I would also state that ^{it} is regretted that notwithstanding the repeated instructions regarding the necessity for careful and deep plowing to ensure good crops, the plowing under the supervision of some Instructors has not been what it should be and it should be remembered that without proper preparation of the ground it is useless to attempt to farm.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your obed^t servant

Hasty Reed
Asst^t Comm^r