

being the only power to make them good citizens, obedient to the laws and respectful to the ideals embodied in the constitution of this country.

No other agency will take this responsibility. The school will not, the press will not, the legislature will not. Only as the church, which is the body of Christ, does it, will it be done. If the church fails Him, He has no other designated body. Furthermore, the Bolsheviks will introduce to them that which is destructive of all that is so dear to our hearts—the family, the social order, the state and the church.
