"Premiums to Every Subscriber!"

Has recently been announced as a new feature for

"HOOSIER NATURALIST."

We also notice several "new features," among which is a Geological Department, for 1887, conducted by W. R. Lightner, and judging from the January H. N. his papers will be of unusual interest to all geologically inclined.

The publishers have prepared an "Illustrated Premium List," which they propose to mail free to all applicants. A single number of Hoosier Naturalist can be obtained for seven cent stamps, by addressing the publishers, Messrs.

R. B. TROUSLOT & CO.,
39 COLLEGE AVENUE,
VALPARAISO, INDIANA.

(If we would advise everyone to send for the "Illustrated Premium List" at once.—Envor.)
