

I asked her to place her finger upon the two words "are many," and tell me if she could look up into the face of the blessed Jesus, who uttered those two words, and honestly say that they were true of her sins?

Placing her finger upon the two words "are many," she said they were too true of her sins. I then asked her if she believed her sins were many because she felt they were many, or because Jesus said that they were many. She replied that she knew that they were many; that she felt that they were many; but that she believed that they were many because Jesus said so. I then asked her to move her finger to the next two words, "are forgiven," and to tell me that if she believed the first two words, "are many," spoken by Jesus, were true about her sins, why should she not believe the second two words, "are forgiven," spoken by the same precious lips about her forgiveness, were equally true and worthy of being believed? She moved her finger on to the second two words, "are forgiven," and looking up by faith into the face of Jesus, told Him she believed Him, and thanked Him for the good news.

It is some years since the blessed Saviour-God gave this dear woman the knowledge of the forgiveness of all her sins, since which time she has gone on her way rejoicing, having taken her place at the Lord's table as a forgiven, saved, happy, and worshipping child of God, and member of Christ's body. And if you met her to-day, and were to ask her how she knew that her sins were forgiven, she would reply, "I knew
