SAME INSURANCE RATES FOR NEXT CONTINGENT

Mr. J. C. Stanton, Jr., Manager of the City Agency of the Sun Life Assurance Company, Says He Believes Same Methods Will Be Followed as Before.

That the life insurance companies of Canada will accept risks on men going with the second Canadian Contingent at the same rates as they did the first contingent, is the opinion of Mr. J. C. Stanton, Jr., manager of the Montreal Agency of the Sun Life.

In an interview with a representative of The Journal of Commerce this morning, Mr. Stanton said that he did not believe any arrangements had yet been made as to what would be done regarding insuring the next contingent, although his company had done considerable business with those going with the first contingent. He stated that an extra premium of fifty dollars was charged and a very rigid medical examination was conducted. Another precaution the company took was not to grant more than five thousand dollars of insurance to any one volunteer.

Mr. Stanton stated that when these men returned from the war they could keep their insurance but would have to undergo another examination as they would be exposed to exceptional conditions and it would be necessary to ascertain their state of health before continuing their policies indefinitely.

Business is improving.
Mr. Stanton stated that business in the city was picking up rapidly and the past week had been a very creditable one with his agency, and although not as much business as might have been desired was written, yet $75,000 more new business had been placed on the books which was not bad considering present business conditions.

Mr. Stanton said he considered that much depended on the way people went about getting business these days, as to what results would follow, a cheerful smile helped a good deal.

Bank Clearings.
All leading Canadian cities with the exception of Halifax, show a decrease in bank clearings for the week just ended.

Monday, October 12th, being Thanksgiving Day the business week only comprised five days, as compared with six last year.

The clearings for the week together with the change from the same week last year follows:

	1914.	Decrease.
Montreal	$42,360,992	$17,425,992
Toronto	$30,954,255	$14,522,876
Winnipeg	$2,978,978	$7,721,809</
