

Obituary

ERIC KEEGAN

Eric Keegan, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keegan, corner of Church and Wharf Street, is dead.

KATHLEEN HUGHES

Kathleen Hughes, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hughes, Murney Street, died last night of diphtheria.

FRANCIS H. JONES

On Friday, March 12th, the death occurred at Toronto General Hospital of Mr. Francis H. Jones, a highly respected resident of the Township of Hillier. Mr. Jones, who had been in poor health for some time, went up to Toronto where he was operated on for removal of an internal growth, but passed away suddenly the day following the operation.

The deceased was a son of the late James Jones, of Melville, who was one of Hillier's pioneer settlers and owned the farm now in possession of Mr. Fred Morton. This is the old homestead where the late Frank Jones, with a large family of brothers and sisters, passed his early life.

When a young man, after seeing some of the world by travel in the United States, he learned the blacksmith trade with the late Robert Fry, of Hillier. After his marriage to Miss Kate Arthur, he removed to Melville, where for many years he carried on most successfully the business of blacksmith. A few years ago, he disposed of his business at Melville and removed to his late residence near the village of Wellington, where he conducted a splendid dairy.

While residing in Melville, Mr. Jones was sadly bereaved, losing by the hand of Death his elder daughter, Nannie (Mrs. Charles Morton), his only son, Prof. F. A. Jones and his beloved wife. Surviving are his younger daughter, Myrtle (Mrs. Garfield French) of Calgary and a grandson, Arlie Jones, of Chicago, besides his second wife who before her marriage was a Mrs. Mason, of England. Of a large family of brothers and sisters only two survive, namely, Mrs. Harriet Bates, of Toronto, and Mrs. Elizabeth White, of Brighton.

Mr. Jones was a man of industrious habits, an upright citizen and a kind husband and father. His death will be deplored by a large circle of friends, who hold in kindly remembrance one who was a favorite of young and old because of his fine sense of droll humor.

The remains, accompanied by his nephew, Mr. Sam. Thorne, were brought from Toronto on Monday. The funeral service was conducted from his late residence on Wednesday afternoon, March 17th, Rev. V. O. Boyle, Wellington, officiating. The remains were interred in the cemetery of Christ Church, Hillier.

The good wishes of the community go with the happy couple.

THE LORD, MY GUIDE

The Lord shall guide thee continually, Isa. 58-11.

O precious Guide who ever keeps
A careful watch o'er me,
O faithful Guide who never sleeps
But guards me constantly.

My loving Father is my guide
He's with me everywhere,
I could not wander if I tried
Beyond His love and care.

How carefully He guides my feet,
Along life's rugged way
And thus He hold communion sweet
He will not let me stray.

But should I ever wayward prove,
And draw my hand from His,
He gently draws me with His love,
Was ever love like this?

It is not for a little while,
My Lord will guide me so
He promises that, optimally,
He'll lead me on, you know.

And me He never will forsake,
My Guide and loving friend,
Continual in His leadership
He'll keep me to the end.

Mrs. Geo. W. Fox, Allisonville, March 12, 1920.

A Pill that Proves its Value—Those of weak stomach will find strength in Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, because they serve to maintain the healthful condition of the stomach and the liver, irregularities in which are most distressing. Dyspepsia are well acquainted with them and value them at their proper worth. They have afforded relief when other preparations have failed, and have effected cures in ailments of long standing where other medicines were found unavailing.

The Syrian Christians are joining in the cry for independence, fearing the great influx of Jews from Russia. They are in alarm for their farms, which they think they may lose.

Nights of Agony come in the train of asthma. The victim cannot lie down and sleep is driven from his brain. What grateful relief is the immediate effect of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy. It banishes the frightful conditions, clears the passages and enables the afflicted one to again sleep as soundly and restfully as a child. Insist on the genuine at your nearby drugist.

A Cure for Rheumatism.—A painful and persistent form of rheumatism is caused by impurities in the blood, the result of defective action of the liver and kidneys. The blood becomes tainted by the introduction of uric acid, which causes much pain in the tissues and in the joints. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are known to have effected many remarkable cures, and their use is strongly recommended. A trial of them will convince anyone of their value.

Program by Star Course Artists Comprised Old English Ballads, and Operatic Numbers

The Y.M.C.A. Star Course for the season closed last night with a magnificent presentation by the Metropolitan Opera Quartette of operatic and ballad numbers. The program was varied and gave excellent satisfaction.

The program follows: "Praise the Lord"—Maunder, Quartette.

Trio from "Faust"—Gounod, soprano, tenor, baritone.

"Habenera" from "Carmen"—Bisset—contralto solo.

"Lift Thine Eyes" ballad by Rogers—contralto solo.

"Rigoletto" quartette—Verdi.

"Sister Miss You"—Clay Smith—quartette.

Soprano solo—"When Celia Sings"—Frank Moll.

Soprano solo, "Jenny"—Pepper.

"Home to our Mountains" duet from "Trovatore"—Verdi, contralto and tenor.

"The Two Gardeners" Schumann, baritone.

"Long Ago in Alcala", baritone.

Nursery Rhymes, Walford Davies (a) "The Fly and the Humble Bee" (b) "An Old Cradle Song", (c) "O My Little Sixpence"—quartette.

Quartette, "Im Seventeen come Sunday"—Percy Grainger.

Quartette, (unaccompanied)—"Didn't My Lord Deliver Daniel"—Burleigh.

Piano solo—"Etude in D Flat"—List, Miss Mary Glen.

Piano encores, "The Music Box" and three short Scottish Dances by Chopin.

Soprano and Contralto duet, "Gypsy Song"—Brahms.

Tenor solo, "I'll Sing Thee Songs of Araby"—Clay.

Tenor solo "To a Hilltop"—Quartette (a) Day-break—Eaton Fanning; (b) Roses of Picardy"—Wood.

Soprano and baritone duet—Passage Bird's Farewell—Hildach.

Quartette (a) "Love's Old Sweet Song", Malloy; (b) "Spring Song", Pinnitt; (c) "Goodnight Quartette"—Martha-Flores.

The company was composed of the following artists: Miss Isabel Day, soprano; Miss Madge Miller, contralto; Mr. John Lehnhar, tenor; Mr. Leonard Aldrich, baritone; Miss Mary Glen, pianist and accompanist.

Miss Glen in an excellent artist on the piano, her playing being marked by warmth of tone and fine shading. Miss Miller's contralto voice is rich, full of volume, flexible and capable of the finest solo and concert work. Miss Day possesses a very fine soprano voice. Mr. Lehnhar's tenor is of very sweet quality and high in pitch. Mr. Aldrich is the possessor of a unique baritone voice, in which combine volume, flexibility and richness.

The duet, trios and quartettes were all marked by perfect harmony and balance. These concert numbers as well as the solos were deeply appreciated.

The company was all in all one of the finest that has ever appeared in Belleville on a Star Course or any other engagement.
