

HIGH-GRADE FLOWERS

Your orders for the best
.....
Roses, Carnations,
Cyanthums,
Violets, Etc.
will receive careful attention at our hands

Telephone us
THE HAY FLORAL & SEED CO.
BROCKVILLE - ONTARIO

The Athens Reporter

—AND—

COUNTY OF LEEDS ADVERTISER.

A LARGE NUMBER of Reporter Subscriptions are now overdue. Will you kindly look at the date on your address label and remit overdue payments. The publisher tries to meet his debts like other honest men and expects those owing him will do their part by paying for their paper promptly. Don't pass this by until a more convenient season.

Vol. XVIII. No. 44

Athens, Leeds County, Ontario, Wednesday, October 29, 1902.

B. Loverin, Prop'r.

Underwear.

We believe that we can fit and please every man and boy with underwear. We can fit the purse, too, with a wide range and variety of prices, from 25c to $2.50 a garment.

We Carry No Seconds.

The best of winter underwear is here, it's the unshrinkable kind. Come here for your winter underwear and you won't go astray. All sizes in stock.

Sweaters.

If the people knew more of the comfort there is in wearing a sweater, we would sell more sweaters—that's all. Sweaters in new designs and in college colors for athletics and all kinds of sports.

We Guarantee Our Sweaters.

Will make to order any special combination of colors wanted. We have sweaters in stripes, plain black, blue, red and white, all colors and sizes.

Men's Fall Gloves.

The new fall Glove, are here, strong heavy gloves for the street and driving, lighter weight gloves for the afternoon and dainty affairs for the evening. The best leathers, best makes, best styles, the newest shades are here. Give us your hand and we'll please you.

GLOBE CLOTHING HOUSE

The Up-to-Date
Clothing and Gent's Furnishings.

Corner King and Buel Streets. BROCKVILLE

About Parlor Suites.

If you are looking for LARGE VALUES for LITTLE MONEY we have them and you take no chances on QUALITY when you deal with us. New fall lines are now constantly arriving. Call and see the latest styles in furniture whether you wish to buy or not. No trouble to show goods.

Below you will find some of our Special Bargains which we are offering for

Saturday, Nov. 1st :

Parlor Suite—Mahogany finished frame, neatly carved, 5 pieces, sofa, arm chair, arm rocker, 2 reception chairs, upholstered in heavy astry coverings, good spring seats, regular price, $25.00, Special on Saturday.....	Parlor Suite—Mahogany frame, neatly carved, five pieces, upholstered in silk tapestry and silk plush, regular price, $30.00, Saturday.....
Parlor Suite—Polished frames, 5 pieces, covered with velours assorted colors, regular price $28 00, Special on Saturday.....	Parlor Suite—stuffed over, spring seats, large and comfortable, double stuffed, upholstered in Green Velvet with fringe to match, considered cheap at $45, Saturday.....

We carry a first class, up-to-date stock of undertaking goods.

R. D. JUDSON & SON.

THE ATHENS CARRIAGE WORKS.

The subscriber is now prepared to offer to the public as fine a lot of CARRIAGES as is to be found in the county at the Very Lowest Prices, ALSO Repairing in all its branches done with dispatch Call and inspect my stock before purchasing elsewhere.

D. FISHER,
Athens, Apr 1902. VICTORIA St

FINAL CEREMONIES.

King Edward's Reign is Now Completely Inaugurated.

ROYAL PROCESSION IN LONDON

His Majesty, With Members of His Family, Attend Divine Service in St. Paul's Cathedral—Returns Thanks For His Recovery—Their Majesties Cordially Greeted by London Crowds.

London, Oct. 27.—The last ceremonies connected with the inauguration of the reign of King Edward VII. occurred yesterday, when the King, accompanied by Queen Alexandra, the Prince of Wales and almost all the members of the royal family drove to St. Paul's Cathedral and offered up thanks for the recovery of his health.

The weather was rainy, and small crowds marked the royal progress through the metropolis. At Temple Bar the Lord Mayor of London and the corporation met the King and escorted him to the cathedral, where in the nave were gathered the thousands of persons, including Premier Balfour, leading members of the nobility, almost all the members of the Cabinet and the Foreign Ambassadors to Great Britain.

The Honorable Artillery Company formed an imposing band before the service was over several of the artillerymen had fainted as a result of long standing.

The choir, the chapter and the Bishop of London, the Right Rev. Arthur Ingram, escorted the King and the Queen to the throne under Reredos.

There was a full choral service of Thanksgiving, followed by a sermon from the Bishop of London, who laid special stress upon the fact that this was the second time in His Majesty's life that he had entered St. Paul's to give thanks for his recovery from a dangerous illness. At the conclusion of the sermon the Te Deum was sung.

The royal party then returned to Buckingham Palace, being greeted wherever the crowds were large enough to raise a cheer. In spite of the rain, King Edward ordered that the carriages be kept open, and Queen Alexandra bowed and smiled from behind a small umbrella. King Edward was dressed in the uniform of a field marshal, and wore the decoration of the Order of the Garter.

The event was marked by two untoward incidents on Saturday.

A fanatic clergyman was arrested for having a quantity of gunpowder in his possession, with which he intended to make a demonstration against the erection of spectators' stands around St. George's Church, Southwark.

The second incident was the breaking out of a fire in the dome of the Guildhall just after the royal party left the building, which, several firemen declare had been smouldering while the King was at lunch.

An interesting feature of the royal progress on Saturday was the King's reply to the address of the London County Council in Trafalgar square. The Boer generals occupied prominent seats in the centre of the County Council stand, immediately facing the King. His Majesty's reply was clearly audible to all in the vicinity. He said:

It gives much pleasure both to myself and the Queen to receive in person the loyal and dutiful address of the centre of municipal authority on the occasion of our progress through the capital of the Empire, and to receive the greetings of our people on our coronation. Your confidence that my favor will be extended to every measure calculated to ameliorate the conditions of my subjects is well founded and of the numerous important questions which come under your consideration none appeal more strongly to my interest and sympathy than those directly touching on the welfare of the poorer classes of this and other great cities. I think you for your good wishes for myself and my house. I cordially share your aspiration that it may be granted me by the same divine providence which preserved my life from imminent danger to reign over my firmly established and peaceful Empire, and in the loyal hearts of my contented and prosperous people.

The King's reply to the address in the Guildhall was much on the same lines as his speech at Trafalgar square.

After luncheon the common crier called for a toast to His Majesty the King, and Mrs. Albini, stationed in one of the galleries, sang the national anthem, in which the whole company joined.

London, Oct. 27.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Constantinople says it is reported that M. Zontcheff, the Macedonian leader, was killed during a fight between insurgents and Turkish troops. The insurgents had 23 men killed in the engagement.

PRESIDENT MITCHELL WORRIED.

9,000 Miners Refuse to Go Back to Work—More May Follow.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 27.—The situation in the Hazleton, Panther Creek and Mahoney City districts of the anthracite field is so critical that another large strike is not improbable unless the operators recede from their position. In the Hazleton district nine thousand men refuse to return to work. Near Mahoney City eight hundred went on strike Saturday and nine hundred threaten to strike on Monday, while in the Panther Creek Valley the locals are yet to determine whether they shall ask the Executive Board to order a strike of the six thousand men of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company.

President Mitchell is endeavoring to smooth things over, and the district officers to have the operators recede from the position they have taken, but the breach only grows wider, and the ill-feeling increases. An effort to have the Cranberry local pass upon the question of going to work resulted in a unanimous vote to stay on strike.

President Mitchell is worried about the situation through the region, and considers it so serious that he will not talk about it, which is one of his traits. It would be a big feather in his cap if, when he appears before the commission at Washington on Monday, he could say that all the strikers were back at work and that there was no friction. The fact that men would not agree to treat non-union men properly is not readily understood by the public. Their objection is not to the non-union men and their treatment of them, but to signing an agreement with the operators. They want no such agreement until they know what the commission grants. They also assert that the operators, against whose actions they protest, are the men who did not sign the arbitration proposition, and that it is not known where they stand.

Yesterday afternoon President Mitchell was presented with a gold badge and gold watch from the Polish, Lithuanian and Slavish members of the United Mine Workers. The presentation took place at President Mitchell's headquarters, and a large crowd listened to the speeches of presentation and acceptance.

Shamokin, Pa., Oct. 27.—One hundred deputies, who were on guard at the collieries in this region during the strike, were sent home Saturday night, under orders to be ready to return at any time when notified, as it is feared there will be local strikes if all non-union men do not resign their positions.

Wright Another Arbitrator.

Washington, Oct. 27.—President Roosevelt announced Saturday that he had designated Commissioner of Labor Wright as an additional member of the coal arbitration commission. Col. Wright will continue to sit as recorder of the commission.

Hard Coal $8.50.

New York, Oct. 27.—The first of the freshly mined coal reached New York Saturday and was sold to the public at $6.50 a ton. It came over the Ontario and Western from their mines in Lackawanna County, Pa. It consisted of two trainloads, with a total of 1,700 tons. It was split up into 100-ton lots and immediately distributed among the trade.

The man who got the first consignment was Henry Berghorn, a Harlem dealer. He was selected by Dickson & Eddy, sales agent of the Ontario and Western, because they considered him a man who would not overcharge. He respected their confidence by making the retail price of $6.50 a ton.

Ottawa Frozen Up.

Ottawa, Oct. 27.—Yesterday was the worst day of the season since the coal strike, and the scarcity of fuel was felt. His Majesty's reply was clearly audible to all in the vicinity. He said:

It gives much pleasure both to myself and the Queen to receive in person the loyal and dutiful address of the centre of municipal authority on the occasion of our progress through the capital of the Empire, and to receive the greetings of our people on our coronation. Your confidence that my favor will be extended to every measure calculated to ameliorate the conditions of my subjects is well founded and of the numerous important questions which come under your consideration none appeal more strongly to my interest and sympathy than those directly touching on the welfare of the poorer classes of this and other great cities. I think you for your good wishes for myself and my house. I cordially share your aspiration that it may be granted me by the same divine providence which preserved my life from imminent danger to reign over my firmly established and peaceful Empire, and in the loyal hearts of my contented and prosperous people.

The King's reply to the address in the Guildhall was much on the same lines as his speech at Trafalgar square.

After luncheon the common crier called for a toast to His Majesty the King, and Mrs. Albini, stationed in one of the galleries, sang the national anthem, in which the whole company joined.

London, Oct. 27.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Brussels, the correspondent of The Standard says it is declared positively that General Betha and Delavay have abandoned their proposed tour of the United States, and will shortly return to South Africa.

YOUNG MEN WANTED

To Learn the—Art of Garment CUTTING

We teach the best, simplest and most modern systems, in the shortest possible time and guarantee perfect satisfaction.

We have taught many, and can fit YOU to earn from $1500.00 to $2500.00 per year, in a very short time.

Write for a Catalogue, free, to

The Brockville Cutting School,
M. J. KEHOE, Proprietor

SWAYNE NOT PURSUED

The British Force Were Not Molested by the Mad Mullah.

NOW RETREATING TO BERBERA.

London, Oct. 27.—A despatch to The Daily Mail from Simla, India, reports that Col. Swayne and his forces are continuing their march from B. Lotte to Berbera, Somaliland, East Africa, and that they are not pursued.

Details of the Severe Fight in Which Heavy Losses Were Incurred—The Officers Displayed Great Courage—Col. Swayne Led a Splendid Charge and Checked the Mullah's Hordes.

Aden, Arabia, Oct. 26.—Details of the fighting in Somaliland, Oct. 6, between the British expeditionary force and the followers of the Mad Mullah, show that a more serious disaster was only averted by the splendid example of the few white officers. As it was, the British force lost a Maxim gun and 70 men killed, while 62 of their enemies' dead were counted close to the firing line.

Shortly after the British expedition left their zereba (fortified camp), for Mudug, Oct. 6, the Mullah's forces were reported about a mile ahead, and within half an hour, while the British were advancing in single file through a dense jungle, the enemy charged the British right flank. But the Mullah's troops were met with such a severe fire that they swung round towards the British centre and left. In the meanwhile the transport, which was thrown into confusion, and a Maxim was rushed and captured, as were many camels. Major Phillips was shot while gallantly attempting to rally his men, and Lieut. Everett was wounded while attending Major Phillips.

The disorder spread to the gun teams, which were driven back. Capt. Angus was killed while serving a gun. Col. Cobbe, with a single Somali sergeant, continuing serving a Maxim, and then Col. Swayne, the British commissioner in Somaliland, and commander of the expedition, led a splendid charge, checked the Mullah's hordes, and re-captured some of the transport. But he was unable to recover the Maxim. The British then formed a zereba, and sent out parties to collect the scattered transport.

The enemy later tried to get away with the captured camels, but Col. Swayne took out three companies of troops, and, after a sharp fight, recovered the majority of them and picked up 70 rifles.

DETAILS OF THE FIGHT.

How the Enemy Was Turned by Brave British Officers.

Aden, Arabia, Oct. 26.—Details of the fighting in Somaliland, Oct. 6, between the British expeditionary force and the followers of the Mad Mullah, show that a more serious disaster was only averted by the splendid example of the few white officers. As it was, the British force lost a Maxim gun and 70 men killed, while 62 of their enemies' dead were counted close to the firing line.

Shortly after the British expedition left their zereba (fortified camp), for Mudug, Oct. 6, the Mullah's forces were reported about a mile ahead, and within half an hour, while the British were advancing in single file through a dense jungle, the enemy charged the British right flank. But the Mullah's troops were met with such a severe fire that they swung round towards the British centre and left. In the meanwhile the transport, which was thrown into confusion, and a Maxim was rushed and captured, as were many camels. Major Phillips was shot while gallantly attempting to rally his men, and Lieut. Everett was wounded while attending Major Phillips.

The disorder spread to the gun teams, which were driven back. Capt. Angus was killed while serving a gun. Col. Cobbe, with a single Somali sergeant, continuing serving a Maxim, and then Col. Swayne, the British commissioner in Somaliland, and commander of the expedition, led a splendid charge, checked the Mullah's hordes, and re-captured some of the transport. But he was unable to recover the Maxim. The British then formed a zereba, and sent out parties to collect the scattered transport.

The enemy later tried to get away with the captured camels, but Col. Swayne took out three companies of troops, and, after a sharp fight, recovered the majority of them and picked up 70 rifles.

PEASANTS ON ROOFS OF HOUSES FIRING PISTOLS IN DISTRESS.

Catania, Sicily, Oct. 27.—There have been heavy rains and floods between Catania and Syracuse. The railroad was partly destroyed near Bicoa, and great damage has been done to property. In many places the water has attained a depth of 15 feet; the peasants have taken refuge on the roofs of their houses and are firing pistols as signals of distress.

Several Lives Lost.

Rome, Oct. 26.—There have been floods in the Province of Calabria, in which several persons were drowned. There have also been renewed earthquake shocks at Rieti, Umbria.

Big Combine of Shoe Men.

Montreal, Oct. 27.—The consolidation of most of the boot and shoe manufacturers and jobbers of Canada seems to be nearing completion. The new trust will include from forty to fifty of the leading Quebec, Montreal and Toronto manufacturers. It is stated here that the capital of the new concern has been underwritten to the extent of $2,000,000. The consolidation is being brought about owing to the fact that under present conditions they cannot compete with the United States for the trade of England and the other British colonies, which they were particularly anxious to secure.

Whisper Caused a Riot.

Dublin, Oct. 27.—An extraordinary scene occurred in Dublin church during the service yesterday. The preacher had made a severe remark on proselytism, when a woman leaned over the back of the pew in front of her and whispered audibly in the ear of another woman: "There's a tip for you." The woman spoken to turned and struck the speaker across the face. The congregation was instantly in an uproar, and in the panic several persons were knocked down and trodden on.

Two Schooners Reported Lost.

St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 27.—Two more schooners were reported yesterday to have been lost on the north coast. The crews of these vessels, however, are said to have been saved.

The Labrador mail boat, which is here, reports much distress among the fisher folk on the Labrador coast as the result of a recent gale and the destruction of fishery outfits.

Homes Breakers Sentenced.

London, Oct. 27.—Wesley Perry, James Langley and Manville Newans, who pleaded guilty to breaking into the residence of Mr. T. L. Belcher and stealing several valuable, were sentenced Saturday morning. Langley and Perry were each sentenced to two years in Kingston Penitentiary, and Newans was given six months in the Central Prison.

Scrum For Whooping Cough.

London, Oct. 27.—A young Bruce sels physician named Leveaux says he has discovered the serum of whooping cough, which is injected under the skin in the abdominal region. From the experiments which he has conducted hitherto the injection appears to be quite harmless.

Wireless on Trains.

Rome, Oct. 27.—It has been decided to establish wireless telegraphy apparatus at all stations and on all passenger trains on Italian railroads. King Victor Emmanuel of his own initiative has appointed William Marconi a chevalier of the Order of Industrial Merit.

Car to See the Pope.

London, Oct. 27.—According to the Copenhagen correspondent of The Daily Telegraph, the Czar of Russia, after visiting Italy, will proceed to Montecarlo, Athens, and probably to Constantinople. While in Italy the Czar will have an interview with the Pope.

Twenty-Five Indictments Brought in.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 27.—The grand jury late Saturday afternoon returned twenty-five indictments in the local grave robbery scandal. Fifteen doctors have been indicted. All the ghouls now under arrest are indicted.

Soldiers Still on Guard at Dunkirk.

Dunkirk, France, Oct. 27.—Soldiers are still camped in the streets here, although work has been resumed at the docks.

A Good Talker.

Clara—Is Mrs. Flitter a good conversationalist?
Dorothy—Yes, indeed. She makes you think of lots of good things to say, but talks so much that you don't get a chance to say them.

Compromise.

"Why should religion and science quarrel?"
"Why, indeed?"
"Why not say that man is descended from the monkey Eve made of Adam and let it go at that?"

THIS ORIGINAL DOCUMENT IS VERIFIED POOR CONDITION