INTERNATIONAL LESSON VI.—MAY 19, 1907.

Joseph Forgives His Brothers.—Gen. xiv. 1-20, I. 15-21.

Commentary.—I. Joseph makes himself known to his brothers (vs. 1-15).

Joseph is now thirty-nine years old; he had been in Egypt twenty-two years, and had been governor of Egypt nine years. He could not refrain from weeping very much, and signifies to force one's self, to do something against nature. Joseph could no longer restrain himself. The severity of the inflexible magistrate gives way to the natural feelings of the man and the brother. To go out—That is, all of the Egyptians. This was, in order that he might give free and full scope to his feelings. 2. It was the part of prudence to prevent the sins of his brethren from becoming known to the man and the brother. To go out—That is, all of the Egyptians. This was, in order that he might give free and full scope to his feelings. 2. It was the part of prudence to prevent the sins of his brethren from becoming known to the man and the brother.

2. Wept aloud.—From the fullness of highly excited emotions. "This is the usual way in which Orientals express excited feelings."—Pulpit Com. Heard.—This may mean the servants who may have been within the sound of his voice, or the words may only signify that the report was brought to Pharaoh's house (v. 16). 3. I am Joseph.—The natural voice, the native tongue, the long remembered features, would all at once strike the apprehension of the brothers, and tender charity.—Pulpit Com. 4. Being not grieved.—He spoke of their having sold him—not to wound their feelings, but to convince them of his identity; and then to reassure their minds, he traced the agencies of an overruling providence in his evil and present honor. Did send me.—God used their evil to accomplish his purpose. He did not need their evil; he has a thousand ways of accomplishing his ends. To preserve life.—Not only your lives, but the Egyptians and the people of the neighborhood, by Joseph are. 1. "That while sinners are encouraged to hope in God's mercy, they are left without excuse for their sin." 2. That God is able to make use of the wicked actions of wicked men for the advancement of his work.

6. Neither be caring.—"Shall be neither sowing nor harvesting."—R. V. "Ear" is an old English word meaning to plow. 7. Great deliverance.—That is, that you, who are now but a handful, escaping this danger, might grow into a vast multitude.—Benson. 8. His principal counselor of state, and to have the authority, respect and power of a father with him. 9. Go up to my father.—He assures that his father might be made glad with the tidings of his life and end. 10. Land of Goshen.—Probably this district had been allotted to Joseph by the king of Egypt, else we can scarcely think he could have promised it so positively, without first obtaining Pharaoh's consent.—Clarke. 11. Well-watered of Egypt, east of Goshen was a part of the Nile, and fit for cattle, and therefore, most proper for the Israelites, not only for present use, but also that in God's time they might with the least disadvantage return to Canaan. 12. Very fertile, for it was watered by the Nile, well-watered of Egypt, east of Goshen.—It is the duty of children, if the necessity of their parents does at any time require it, to support and supply them to the utmost of their ability. 13. My mouth.—He rejoices that not out of pride, but from love to his aged father, knowing what pleasure it would give him.—Benson. Ye shall haste.—It had been twenty-two years since Joseph had seen his father, and it was only natural for him to ask them to hasten their journey. 14. His brother.—Benjamin was the only one who was full brother to Joseph.

15. Kissed all his brethren.—As a token of love and forgiveness. Talked with him.—They were now at rest, the past forgiven, the great fut. of hope and they could now tell the thousand things Joseph wished to know about them, and learn his history from him—as to repeat the narrative to their father. 16. Intervene.—Joseph's father sent for his father (chap. 45, 17-28). Great prayers were made. At first Jacob's heart faints, but when he saw the "wagons" and the "good things of Egypt" his spirit revived and he believed what his sons said. So Christ makes ample provisions for us in the gospel. 2. The journey to Egypt (16, 1-27). The whole family with their flocks and movable property made the journey (about 250 miles) to Egypt. 3. The meeting of Jacob and Joseph (16, 28-34). 4. The meeting of Jacob and Pharaoh (17, 1-10). 5. Joseph shows his malice of character by not being ashamed of his aged father. 6.
