SONG OF LABOR.

Work, work, work,
In meadow, and mill, and mart;
Work, work, work,
Till the dews of labor start:

Where the sailors launch their ships, And plow the waves apart, Work with a song on the lips, And work with a prayer in the heart. Let the dreamer lie at ease, And gaze at the bright blue sky,

Lulled by the murmuring bees,
As the summer winds go by.
Though the skies be cold and gray,

Be this thy heart's content, That thine is the sweeter day In useful labor spent. Better to delve all day With the blessing of peace at night

Than to fritter the time away With fingers idle and white.
For labor is God's good gift,
Though it be the curse of the fall;
And the hands that struggle and life Are the noblest hands of all.

NO CHANCE TO LEARN.

The family was planning at the breakfast table to attend, later in the day, the funeral of a deceased neighbor, but Isabel, aged 6, was very much to her distress, to be left at home.

"But I've never been to a funeral," the little girl pleaded. "I want to go to one just dreadfully."

"Never mind, Sis," said the little maid's brother consolingly. "perhaps maid's brother consolingly, "perhaps you can go to your own some day." "Well," flashed Isabel indignantly, "if I don't have a little practice I sha'n't know how to behave even at that one."-Lippincott's Magazine.

A REMARKABLE RECORD

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance, and may be given as confistance, and may be given as confifidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by All Druggists.

WHIPS THAT GROW ON TREES.

In the Island of Jamaica there grows a tree with the botanic name of Daphne Lagetto, from the branches of which native workmen make peor which have the handle and lash all in one piece. The handle consists of a part of the stem retaining the bark.

For the lash the stem is deprived of the bark and then split into strips, which are woven together in a flex-ible cord six or seven feet long. The proper taper is accorded by detaching more and more of the strips as the end of the lash is approached.

OWES HIS LIFE TO A NEIGHBOR'S KINDNESS

Mr. D. P. Daugherty, well known throughout Mercer and Sumner counties, W. Vv., most likely owes his life to the kindness of a neighbor. He was almost hopelessly afflicted with diarrhoea; was attended by two physicians who gave him little, if any, relief, when a neighbor learning of his serious condition, brought him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which cured him in less than twenty-four hours. Easy Stairs. The very some of ease is reached in tairs that have treads twelve to fifteen inches broad and risers five to sever inches high. The run or distance in most houses is too short to allow of this, but they should come as near it as the architect of the house will per mit. It is so easy to climb such stairs that one hardly is aware of any effort. Numbers of incurably broken down women owe their bad health to the steep stairs which they have been obliged to climb daily.

Stanstead Junction, P. Q., August

Gentelmen,-I fell from the bridge leading from a platform to a load d car while assisting my men in an-loading a load of grain. The bridge went down as well as the load on my back and I struck on the ends of the back and I struck on the ends of the sleepers, causing a serious injury to my leg. Only for its being very fleshy would have broken it. In an hour could not walk a step. Commenced using MINARD'S LINIMENT and the third day went to Montreal on business and got about well by the use of a cane. In ten days was nearly well. I can sincerely recommend it as the best Liniment that I know of in use.

Yours truly,
