

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N.S., JULY 8, 1904.

Cleanings by Acadian News Gatherers.

The 'Bluenose' train began its regular trips on Monday last. The trains are well equipped with everything which tends to pleasant and comfortable travel.

Seven-room dwelling with bath, &c. In good location. Apply to J. F. Herbin.

Miss Muriel Iredale, of Lewen, England, has been chosen to fill the place in the department of pianoforte in Acadia Seminary, made vacant by the resignation of Miss Churchill.

The Wm. Gray & Sons Carriages sold by J. W. Selbridge. For strength, durability, improved mechanism and good workmanship they are unequalled. Only the very best material used.

The announcement and tide table at 'Evangeline Beach' appears in another column. As usual the beach will be a favorite resort this summer, and already there have been a goodly number of visitors.

Wool in exchange for goods. Lowest cash prices on all goods. J. D. CHAMBERS.

Lost.—On Wed., 29th ult., somewhere between Mud Bridge and Long Island, a list of members of Baptist congregation, Wolfville, printed with type-writer. Finder will oblige by leaving same at this office or at Baptist Parsonage.

The newest way to catch flies—Vampire Fly Catcher. Hang up out of the way. 5c. at Parker's Pharmacy.

Mr O. D. Harris has a pear-tree in his orchard well laden with fruit, which, during the past week has put out another crop of blossoms. These are on new wood of this season's growth, and certainly indicate a very industrious tree.

House to let.—One lately vacated by Mrs. Mitchell. Nine rooms and bath, set range. Apply to L. W. Sleep.

In our item last week concerning Rev. Isaiah Wallace a typographical error made us say that he was nearly 90 years of age. For this we wish to apologize. Mr. Wallace is really nearing his 80th year, and is certainly remarkably active both in mind and body for such an age.

The members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of this town intend holding a Strawberry and Ice-Cream Social, Tuesday evening, July 12th, from 6 to 9 o'clock, on the grounds of Mr. L. W. Sleep. Proceeds to be used in the interests of Temperance work at Aldershot.

PRIVATE SALE of general household goods at Mr. J. Foster's, on Main St., next door to Chambers' store. Beginning July 4.

Mr. R. L. Fuller, of Grand Pre, has just had published for him a very neatly gotten-up booklet as a souvenir of Grand Pre. The first page contains a picture representing 'Evangeline' and her heifer, and the folio contains five well-executed illustrations of points in and around Grand Pre. The price of the booklet is 50 cents per copy.

A good time is promised at Port Williams on Tuesday evening of next week, when the members of the C. E. Society of the Baptist church are to hold a strawberry and ice-cream social on the grounds of Mr. Vernon Griffin. The Cannan band will be in attendance, and as the grounds are particularly well adapted for entertainments of the kind a treat is assured.

The old dilapidated plank-bridge for driveways, etc., ought to have become a thing of the past. Now is the time to have them replaced by a terra cotta bridge. C. M. Gormley, of this town, has on hand a supply of hard-glazed crock pipe, guaranteed against frost, which is excellently adapted for the purpose and cheaper in the end.

The officers of Wolfville Division S. of T., for the current quarter were installed last Monday evening as follows:

- W. P.—Capt. J. B. Tingley
W. A.—Mrs. E. W. Fox
R. S.—J. W. Vanghu
A. R. S.—Miss Elizabeth Walton
F. S.—Miss Ethel Thorpe
Treas.—Howard Moore
Chaplain—Rev. M. P. Freeman
Conductor—Miss Beattie Freeman
A. C.—Miss Annie Walton
I. S.—Joseph Rogers
O. S.—Ira Wallace
P. W. P.—Henry Peck.

The tourist season has again arrived and summer visitors are becoming very much in evidence. Kent Lodge is as usual well equipped for catering to the needs of guests and Miss Moore is expecting a large patronage. Mr. Rockwell has taken charge of Acadia Seminary for the summer and is prepared with ample accommodation for visitors. In addition to these there are a number of private homes thrown open as usual, and all those who come to Wolfville may feel sure of being well looked after. The beautiful drives in and around Wolfville, its close proximity to the historic Grand Pre and other points of interest make our town an ideal summer resort, as the increasing number of tourists who visit us fully proves their appreciation of these advantages.

June Roses. Roses of June—roses of June. Ye come when Nature is well in tune! Like the ruby's heart your petals shine On the crimson deliciae of rare old wine.

The militia has been called out to suppress the Sydney strikers. Seven hundred emigrants perished with the sinking of the steamer Norge in the North Atlantic last Monday, on the voyage from Copenhagen to New York.

The passengers who arrived in New York the other day on the French steamer, La Lorraine, report having seen a gigantic sea-serpent on the voyage from Havre.

The latest inhabited building in the world is the Park row building in New York, which is thirty stories high.

One of the St. John papers says that the police cells of St. John city can surpass the 'black hole' of Calcutta for horrors.

The date of Lord Dunderd's departure from Canada is not yet decided on. In a recent interview he stated that he might give a public address, reviewing the circumstances of dispute, before leaving the country.

The Tibetans are getting tired of fighting and have asked permission to negotiate with Col. Younghusband. Many of their warriors were killed in the engagement last week. The English lost an officer and five men.

A bequest amounting to $3,200 has been going begging in Canada since 1884. The money was left by a Quaker woman, Esther Moore, fifty years ago, for the education of slave children fugitives in this country. The interest has never been claimed since 1884 and the whole sum will now probably go to an orphan's home in Philadelphia.
