

The Hantsport Acadian

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF HANTSPORT AND VICINITY

HANTSPORT HAPPENINGS

Mr. Kenneth McKenzie, of Acadia University, was the week end guest of Mrs. J. W. Churchill and Mrs. Laura Rice, "The Cedars".

Miss Laura Lane, of Morden, Kings county, is visiting her grandfather, Mr. J. W. Lawrence.

Mrs. Ervin Pattison and child left recently for Detroit Michigan, where she will join her husband who preceded her for several weeks.

Messrs. A. R. Holmes, of Toronto; G. A. Holmes, of Philadelphia; and Mrs. W. W. Clark, Kentville, were in town on Wednesday of last week attending the funeral services of their father, the late Capt. G. L. Holmes.

Mrs. B. Davison, who spent two months in Boston at the home of her son, Mr. E. C. Davison, returned home on Tuesday.

Mrs. Chas. Dunbar returned to Hantsport last week from Halifax, where she spent the winter months.

Mrs. McSweeney and daughter, of U.S.A., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Smith. Mrs. McSweeney was formerly Miss Edith Wheaton, of Hantsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Duncanson, of Grand Pre, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Duncanson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Duncanson, Cottage Hill.

The funeral service of the late Capt. George L. Holmes, who passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. W. Clark, Kentville, on Thursday, April 16th, after several weeks' illness, was held on Wednesday afternoon, April 22nd, from the Baptist church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Z. L. Fash, assisted by Rev. R. Ross, pastor of the Baptist church, Kentville. The choir rendered the hymn, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere", "Asleep in Jesus". The male quartette gave two selections "I shall find my Saviour There" and "We are Going Down the Valley". The pall bearers were Messrs. W. Wellwood, L. V. Marsters, A. Newcombe, N. E. Coldwell. The floral offerings were profuse and beautiful. Interment was in River Bank cemetery.

Mrs. H. L. Smith was hostess to the XII's at her home last evening.

News has been received by his sister, Mrs. G. P. Churchill, of the transfer from the Grace Line of Steamships to that of the Pacific Mail line, of Captain Max Welton Cochrane, of Hantsport, who sailed in command of the passenger steamer, "President Taft", from San Francisco to Hong Kong, China, on Saturday 18th. Since his retirement from the Grace Line Captain Cochrane has occupied the position of assistant portmaster of San Francisco, and has the honor of being the youngest of all the sea captains who claim Hantsport as their place of nativity to have obtained a captain's certificate.

Mrs. (Capt.) Asa Davison left Monday morning for Boston, where she will be joined by Captain Davison, and they will proceed to Washington. Mrs. Davison will be absent about ten days.

The ordinance of baptism was administered to eleven candidates Sunday evening in the Baptist church. The altar was decorated with cut flowers, potted plants and ferns and the ceremony was witnessed by a large number of church members. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Fash, preached a very forceful and appropriate sermon. Special music was furnished by a large choir assisted by the male quartette, with Miss Claire McDonald at the organ.

Edwards Lodge, I.O.O.F. held their annual church service Sunday evening. The members of the order marched from their lodge rooms to the Anglican church where they were joined by Helping Hand Rebekah Lodge and proceeded into the church which was decorated with lilies and ferns. Rev. Mr. Cribb, of Paimouth, was the speaker. A large audience listened with intense interest to his remarks. Special music was furnished by a large choir, with Mrs. F. C. Coffin at the organ.

The snow-storm last week afforded an opportunity to haul in to the mill of the Hantsport Fruit Basket Co. a quantity of logs that were held up by the unusual early opening of spring. Teams were in action at a very early hour on Tuesday morning and a large supply of material was landed in the mill yard before the snow made its departure. The mill was in starting this season but since March 10th it has been running full time and will be prepared to supply all demands that are made upon it for the finished product.

The announcement that The Harry Murray Players, of Stellarton, who last November toured the section and presented "The Rosary" so successfully to good houses, is to broadcast the play from Moncton on May 5th, will be of special interest to readers of the Hantsport Acadian, because of the fact that a member of the company, Mrs. Millage Oulton, was formerly Miss Grace Burgess, of this town. Mrs. Oulton, who is a graduate of Acadia Seminary in the class of '06 and is a vocalist of much merit, will sing on that occasion, as well as Mr. Stewart, and Mr. Murray will render a number of comedy selections. Local radio fans should not fail to listen in.

TOWN COUNCIL MEETING

The regular business meeting of the Town Council was held on Tuesday evening, April 27th, those present being Mayor Wall, Councillors Currie, Beazley, Lawrence, Harvie and Churchill. The following accounts were passed for payment:

HANTSPORT BASKETERS WIN THREE GAMES

On Wednesday evening of last week a team from Hantsport played a game of basketball at Kentville with the Young People's League of the United church. Both teams played well and some real thrills were handed out to the spectators. Hantsport won with a score 35-29. Ralph Walsh refereed satisfactorily. The line-up was as follows:

Hantsport—R. Bishop, C. Hyson, H. Folker, F. Beazley, K. Beckwith, L. Flemming, C. McDonald.

Kentville—G. Weaver, Ellery Van Blarcom, W. Weaver, G. Leitch, D. Blair, H. Leitch.

An exciting game of basketball took place on Thursday evening at the Scout building, when the "Inhoylas" junior girls, piled up a score of 15 to 9 against the "Eagles", junior boys. For a while it seemed as though the Eagles were sure of victory, but eventually the Inhoylas had a bit of good luck which turned the tide in their favour.

The game was well refereed by Misses V. Alley and E. Perry. Line-up was as follows:

Inhoylas—Forwards—Annie Smith, Leonore Bishop; guard, Annie Beazley; centre, Brenda Patten; side, Kathleen Coffin; sub, Margaret Kewley.

Eagles—Forwards, Chas. Shaw, Dick Beazley; centres, Wm. Pope, Alex Stevens; forwards, Geo. Wilds, Russel Lester; subs, Lort Phillips, Victor Kewley.

On Saturday morning at the Hantsport gymnasium, a fast basketball game was staged between Wolfville and Hantsport High School girls in which the visiting team won by a score of 23-14. During the first two periods the score almost tied, but Wolfville turned the tide by making several good shots during the final period. Miss Colbath, of Wolfville, efficiently refereed the game.

The line-up:

Wolfville—Forwards, Gertrude Phinney, Helen Ingraham; guards, Edna Doyle, Marion Eaton; centres, W. Stackhouse, V. McLean.

Hantsport—Forwards, Violet Alley, Annie Smith; guards, Grace Whitman, Laura Newcombe; centres, Elsie Perry, Brenda Patten.

DIARY OF SIMEON MICHENER

June 12th, 1850. Turned out this a.m. and found the steamboat making slow way up the lake against a strong breeze from the West; run close along shore most of the day, and in some places there is quite beautiful scenery. Stopped at 6 o'clock p.m. at Grant River a short time.

13th. This morning entered the Detroit River which presents a very beautiful appearance, with its villages, orchards, green fields and dense forests. At 11 a.m. stopped at Detroit. This is a large well built city. We soon left there and entered Lake St. Clair. This is a very shoal lake and the boat ran ground in crossing, but soon backed off and about 3 p.m. we entered St. Clair River. The land on each side is low and flat, and for the most part covered with a thick forest, with here and there a little town or village just springing up.

14th. All this day running up Lake Huron with thick fog. The water in the lake is clear and blue like the ocean. Towards evening the fog cleared off and about 7 p.m. we arrived at Mackinaw where there is an U. S. Arsenal. The passengers went up to the fort, which is situated on a high bluff at the back of the village. This is the most picturesque place I have seen yet on the lakes. The principal business carried on here is fishing.

15th. This day again thick fog. We ran into Sheboygan, Wisconsin, about six o'clock, which place we were enabled to find by the people ringing a bell ashore. The next place we stopped at was Milwaukee; went to bed about 8 o'clock but was awakened in the night by the boat running ashore, which cost them several hours work to get off again.

16th. Landed this day at Racine and went to a public house where we stopped till Tuesday. This is a flourishing place; it is scarcely twelve years since it was first settled. It will soon rise to consequence among the cities of the West. On Monday evening I took a stroll along the lake shore out of town. It was a beautiful evening. Young women on fine horses accompanied by young men rode gaily along the streets; the clear lakeside distance with not a breeze to disturb it, and the fine oak woods presented a beautiful picture.

June 19th. Chicago, Ill. On Tuesday we took the steamboat, "Sam Ward", and after a pleasant run up along the shore we arrived here in the evening and immediately shipped aboard the "Robert Emmet".

July 8th. We are now ashore at a boarding house in Chicago. We had quite a pleasant trip up to the Manitou's, only Curry got sick and had to go to a boarding house; when we returned I having sprained my ankle, was obliged to lay by a few days also. (Concluded in next issue)

Can't Keep House Without Minard's

Minard's Liniment

Mr. E. Wright of Foxboro, Mass., writes as follows:

"Will you please advise me how I can get your liniment. I can't keep house without Minard's. We were never without it in our home in Nova Scotia. Minard's is splendid for sprains, bruises, rheumatism, colds, etc."
