The Protestant
AND EVANGELICAL WITNESS,
PUBLISHED WEEKLY, ON SATURDAY MORNING,
BY
DAVID LAZER, Editor and Proprietor.

REVIVAL NOTES.
While what should be the work of the Holy Spirit, in the hearts of the people, is a matter of great importance, it is not less so to know the signs and tokens of His presence, and to be enabled to recognize them in the hearts of others. The following are some of the most common and reliable ones, and should be carefully observed and noted in every revival.

REMARKS.
It is to be observed, that the work of the Holy Spirit, is not confined to the hearts of the people, but extends to the hearts of the rulers and leaders of the church. It is to be observed, that the work of the Holy Spirit, is not confined to the hearts of the people, but extends to the hearts of the rulers and leaders of the church. It is to be observed, that the work of the Holy Spirit, is not confined to the hearts of the people, but extends to the hearts of the rulers and leaders of the church.

QUESTIONS.
What are the signs and tokens of the Holy Spirit's presence?
How can we be enabled to recognize them in the hearts of others?
What should be the work of the Holy Spirit in the hearts of the rulers and leaders of the church?

ANSWERS.
The signs and tokens of the Holy Spirit's presence are, a broken heart, a contrite spirit, a lowly opinion of ourselves, a love of God and of our fellow-men, a hatred of sin, and a desire to obey the will of God. These are the fruits of the Holy Spirit's work, and should be carefully observed and noted in every revival.

CONCLUSION.
It is to be observed, that the work of the Holy Spirit, is not confined to the hearts of the people, but extends to the hearts of the rulers and leaders of the church. NOTICES.
Notices of meetings, lectures, and other religious events.

State & Prospects of the Vandalic Church.
The last day of my journey in the Vandalic territory was the 15th of October, and I was accompanied by the Rev. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was the pastor of the church at that time. We were accompanied by a large number of converts, and the prospects of the church are very bright.

Irish Emigration in New York.
Notwithstanding the very unpropitious weather, a large number of Irish emigrants have arrived in New York, and are settling in the various parts of the city. They are generally well educated, and possess many valuable talents.

Religious Results of the Indian Mission.
The Rev. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was the pastor of the church at that time, has been successful in converting a large number of the Indians to the Christian faith. They are now settled in the various parts of the country, and are leading a more virtuous and happy life.

Foreign Revival.
The London Convention of the Philadelphia Convention, which was held in London, has been successful in promoting a revival in the various parts of the world. Many converts have been made, and the church is growing rapidly.
