After three days of heroic strug-gles, sustained by the arony of Marshal MacMahon against 300,000 of the enemy, I 40,000 men hare been made prisoners. General Wimpfen, who took command en-of the army inplaceof Marshal MacMahon, H who was badly wounded, has signed a cap-gitulation. This cruel reverse will not shake or our courage. Paria is to day in a complete state of defense, The military forces of the country will be organized in a few of Paria, and another army is forming on ( the bank of the Loire. Your patriotism ; your union ; your energy, will save France. The Emperor has been made a prisoner in the struggle. The Government, in accord with public powers, will take all measures (Signed.) It comely arcay was sud-denly changed into a shapeless and help-less crowd of flying man. The moment the cuirassier turned back, the brave Prussiana solually dashed forward in hot pursuits the double quick, the infantry plainly pursuing the flying cavalry. When the French infantry saw their cavalry thus flesing before the foot sol-diers, they in their turn came forward and attacked the Prussians. The Prus-sians waited quietly, patiently enduring a rapid and telling fue from the Chasepots, until their enemy had drawn within 100 yards from them. Then they returned with the needle gun the rapid fire from the chasepots, and the French infantry found no more endure the Prussian fire than the cavalry to whose rescue they had come. The infantry field in its turn and followed the cavalry to the place from which they came. The great object of the prussians was gained, since they were not dryps from the Prussians persuaded them-selves that it was possible to establish ar-tillery on the hill.
