It was placed right on a curre in the line, so that the train would be thrown off. A boy named John O'Malloy, son of Mr. Austin O'Malloy, while playing on the railway track at London, on Satur-day was struck on the head by the pilot of a locomotive and rendered inscussible for several hours. He recovered con-aciousness, but his injuries are so severe that a fatal result is feared.

A serious socident is reported at the Canada Silver Mining Co's mine, Thunder Bay, through an unexpected explosion of a missed hole. One man was severely injured. Leaf allver is now being taken out of the mine.

The Europe and the United States. The European market seemed to have been entirely drained, and this fact assures us that the rise is a healthy one, although in the Western States the price fluctuates with great uncertainty, although still remaining at a good figure. On our own market $1.12 was paid for fall wheat on Thursday, which is the top figure. On Friday and Saturday $1.10 was the culling figure, at which about 600 bushels were bought by Ogilvies & Hutchison. Farmers have been so busy at their haying that they could not spare their time to attend the market with grain which they have been holding back for better prices. It is pretty certain that the price will remain about $1.10 for a time, as business in this line has grown much brisker within the last week, and seems to go on steadily. In has grown much brisker within the last week, and seems to go on steadily. In Chicago the price has fallen 6 cents, but TENDERS WANTED.
