

The Poet's Corner.

Zion's Bank.
I have a never-failing Bank,
My more than golden store,
No earthly bank is half so rich,
How then can I be poor?

When my stock is spent and gone,
And I not worth a groat,
I'm glad to hasten to my Bank,
And beg a little note.

Sometimes my Banker, smiling, says,
"Why don't you offend some?"
And when you draw a little bill,
Why not a larger sum?

Why live so snugly and so poor,
My Bank containing plenty,
Why come and take a one pound note,
When you may have a twenty?

Nay, twenty thousand ten times told Is but a trifling sum,
To what my Bank contains for me,
Secure in God the Son.

Since then my Banker is so rich,
I have no need to borrow,
But live upon my notes to-day,
And draw again to-morrow.

I've been so snugly and so poor,
And never was rejected;
These notes can never be refused,
They are by grace accepted.

Thousands of rascals sinners fear
They have no note at all,
Because they feel their misery,
And ruin by the fall.

Though thousands notes lay scattered round
All signed and sealed and free, Yet many a doubting soul will say Ah! they are not for me.

Base unbelief will lead the soul
To say what is not true;
I tell the poor self-empty soul,
Those notes belong to you.

Should all the banks in Europe break,
The bank of England smash;
Bring all your notes to Zion's Bank, You're sure to get your cash.

Nay, if you have but one small note, Fear not to bring it in;
Come boldly to this Bank of Grace,
The Banker is within.

I'll go again, I need not fear
My notes will be rejected;
Sometimes my Banker gives me more Than asked for or expected.

Sometimes I felt a little proud, I've managed things so clever;
Perhaps before the day was gone
I felt as poor as ever.

Sometimes with blues in my face Just at the door I stand, Fearing almost to venture in And take the proffered hand.

But ah! my Bank can never break,
My Bank can never fail;
The firm—three Persons in One God—
Is one that lasts forever.

Should all the bankers close their doors,
My Bank stands open wide,
To all who will enter in—
For whom the Saviour died.

We read of one young man Whose riches did abound;
But in the Banker's Book of Life
His name was never found.

The leper had a little note,
"Lord if Thou wilt Thou canst";
The Banker paid that little note
And healed the dying man.

Behold and see the dying thief Hang by his Banker's side;
He cried, "Dear Lord, remember me";
He got his cash and died.

His blessed Banker took him home
To everlasting glory;
There to shout his Banker's grace,
And tell his endless story.

With millions more—Jehovah's choice—
Redeemed by precious blood, Oh may our souls with Him be found,
Among the sons of God.

Then will we praise our Banker's grace,
And sound His name abroad;
Make heaven to echo with our songs,
Before the Throne of God.

Timely Aid.
A little daughter of the captain of the steamer Empress of India, was suddenly attacked with Croup while at a friend's house in Toronto. No medical aid being handy, recourse was had to Harper's Yellow Oil; this popular household remedy afforded prompt relief and the little girl was as lively as ever in a few hours.

George Moffat, of Turnberry, county of Huron, formerly of Seneca township, county of Haldimand, has received several letters from friends in the old country intimating that his legacy of £330,000 sterling, by heirship, awaits him. He is taking the necessary steps to establish his claim.

Sep. 14th, 1880.
Hop Bitters Co., Toronto.
I have been sick for the past six years, suffering from dyspepsia and general weakness. I have used three bottles of Hop Bitters, and they have done wonders for me. I am well and able to work, and eat and sleep well. I cannot say too much for Hop Bitters.

Pimples and Blotches.
Call at Geo. Rhynas' drug store and get a package of McGregor & Park's Carbolic Acid and Cerate, and has never failed to remove Pimples, Blotches, Ulcerated Sores, Rough Skin. It cures when all others fail. Try it.

An Editor's Tribute.
Theron P. Keator, editor of the Wayne Ind., Gazette, writes: "For the past five years I have always used Dr. King's New Discovery for coughs of most severe character, as well as for those of a milder type. It never fails to effect a speedy cure. My friends to whom I have recommended it speak of it in the same high terms. Having been cured by it of every cough I have had for five years, I consider it the only reliable and sure cure for coughs, colds, etc." Call at Wilson's Drug Store and get a Free Trial Bottle.

Facts for the Curious.

Latest yarn from the States. "The bicycle sled has been perfected in Canada. The rider sits on a wheel which is cogged to catch the ice, and there is a frame sled with four blades of steel like ordinary skate runners upon which the machine glides along. Still it is said not to be so popular as skates. There is nobody's hand to hold."

The least destructible portion of the human body is the hair. In Egypt it has been known to survive 4,000 years, and the Egyptian women were not so careful of their hair, either as are the women of the present day. They never took it off at night and hung it over the back of a chair to prevent it from getting worn out.

J. D. Garrison is a living skeleton worth $50,000, who is now on show at Philadelphia. Bertha E. Clear is a rosy plump girl of 17. Bertha didn't mind the bones as long as she secured the dollars. The skeleton didn't mind the dollars so long as he could claim the rosy cheeks. The result was they made a contract and were married on Tuesday last.

The origin of the speakership of the house of commons, now about to be vacant, is lost in the dim historic mists in the reign of Henry III., when Simon de Montfort acted as spokesman in parliament. But his claim as first speaker of the house yields probably to that of Sir Thomas Hungerford, who seems to have first borne the title and discharged the duties in the time of Edward III.

The Christmas card began in the year 1862, the first attempt being the size of the ordinary gentleman's address card, on which simply put "A Merry Christmas" and "A Happy New Year." After that came holly branches, embossed figures and landscapes. "Little Red Riding Hoods," a hermit and his cell, and subjects in which snow and the robin played a part. They were first printed in Germany, but they are now principally manufactured by Marcus Ward of Belfast and De la Rue, Spottiswoode, and others of London.

Somebody has been collecting figures giving the distances to which sound is conveyed under favorable atmospheric conditions. J. J. Stranahan states that the whistle and the noise of the train on the trestle at Erie were formerly heard at a distance of nineteen miles. W. J.
McC. of San Pablo, Cal., writes that on a calm, clear day, especially in the fall, they hear the rumble of the cars on a trestle located eighteen miles distant.

J. H. S. says that he frequently heard the railroad shop whistle at Grand Island while living at Orville, a distance of twenty-eight miles. C. V. Swarthout, Cape Vincent, New York, frequently hears the whistle at Kingston, Ont., twenty miles.

Prof. Bell Pettigrew of the university of St. Andrews, the institution which lately conferred its lord rectorship upon Minister Lowell, said in a recent lecture that "for every fresh increment of brain substance there is an increment of brain power and intelligence, and increased brain substance is brought about by exercise." Whereupon some of the medical journals propound such conundums as "How do you explain the fact that Lord Byron was a smaller man than Mr. Tupper? Why is it that the head of Jonathan Wild was much larger than Mr. Tyndall's?"

When Charles McCarran, the trainer, entered a cage of lions in Chicago on Sunday last, the largest beast sprang through the door and landed among the spectators—a party that had been invited to a private view. Dr. Kelly and all the other visitors escaped into a loft above; but Mons. Joseph did not. He hurled a large iron bar at the crouching king of the forest, but it missed its aim.
The lion's attention was, however, diverted by the trick, and at its throat he sprang. It was hastily decided to chloroform the beast. A hole was therefore cut in the floor, and two large sponges saturated with chloroform were let down under his nose. Five minutes later they found him with ropes and dragged him into his cage. He had killed the pony.

The potato, originally South American plant, was introduced into Virginia by Sir John Harvey in 1629, though it was unknown in some countries of Europe a hundred and fifty years later. In Pennsylvania potatoes are mentioned very soon after the advent of the Quakers; they were not named New York products in 1695, but in 1775 we are told of 11,000 bushels grown on one sixteen-acre patch in Providence. Potatoes were served, perhaps as an exotic rarity, at a Harvard installation dinner in 1707; but the plant was only brought into culture in New England at the arrival of the Presbyterian emigrants from Ireland in 1718. Five bushels were accounted a large crop of potatoes for a Connecticut farmer; for it held that if a man ate them, ever day, he could not live beyond seven years.

Almost every pill contains calomel and other mineral compounds. Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters is purely vegetable and takes the place of all other purgatives.
In large bottles at 50 cents.

Headache, Toothache, etc. It does not blister or discolor the skin, require but one application to banish all pain magically without using any greasy liniment or carrying your head in a poultice for weeks. Try a 25 cent bottle from Geo.
Rhynas, druggist.

Why suffer from nervous prostrations when you can buy a guaranteed cure at Wilson's drug store.

From the Liver and Kidneys arise fully half the sickness. Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters stimulates both Liver and Kidneys and insures one against disease; it is not an alcoholic stimulant. In large bottles at 50 cents.

Numbers of Canadians are returning from the Michigan lumber woods owing to scarcity of work up there. The lumber stock on hand is heavy and lumber men are not cutting logs this winter to any extent. It is said that there are hundreds of men in the wood who can not earn money enough to take them home.

If you are a frequent or resident of a malarious district, barricade system against the scourge of all new countries ague, bilious and intermittent fever, by the use of Hop Bitters.

Ludington, Mich. Feb. 2, 1880.
I have sold Hop Bitters for four years and there is no medicine that surpasses them for bilious attacks, kidney complaints and many diseases incident to this malarial climate.

Harper's Weekly.
ILLUSTRATED.

Harper's Weekly stands at the head of American illustrated periodicals. By its unpartial position in politics, its admirable illustrations, its carefully chosen serials, short stories, sketches, and other features, it has become the favorite of the day, and the foremost artist and author of the day.
It carries instruction and entertainment to thousands.
It will always be the aim of the publishers to make Harper's Weekly the most popular and attractive family newspaper in the world, and in the pursuit of this design, to present a constant improvement in all those features which have gained for it the confidence, sympathy and support of its large army of readers.

Nine Physicians Outdone.
Mrs. Helen Pharis, No. 331 Dayton St., Chicago, Ill., is now in her sixty-eighth year, and states that she has suffered from Consumption for about ten years, was treated by nine physicians, all of them pronouncing her case hopeless.
She had given up all hope of ever recovering. Seven bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption completely cured her. Doubting ones, please drop her a postal and satisfy yourselves. Call at J. Wilson's drug store and get a free

A Startling Discovery.
Physicians are often startled by remarkable discoveries. The fact that Dr.
King's New Discovery for Consumption and all Throat and Lung diseases is daily curing patients that they have given up to die, is startling them to realize their sense of duty, and to examine into the merits of this wonderful discovery, re-

In the base of so many lives there is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose.
They are strictly vegetable and do not grip or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vials at 25 cents; five for $1. Sold by druggists everywhere, or sent by mail.
