

STRIKES A HIGH PATRIOTIC NOTE

Sir Wilfrid Urges Ottawa to Give Hearty Welcome to Connaught.

Ottawa, July 16.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier received a warm welcome when he arrived from Montreal this evening accompanied by several of his ministers and members of parliament. The demonstration arrangements in his honor were organized by Hon. Chas. Murphy secretary of state...

In the address read by Hal McGowan, in behalf of the Liberals of Ottawa, Sir Wilfrid's course at the Imperial Conference was approved. It was stated that the only sane and ready-made policy regarding such a policy will permit the self-governing colonies to work out their own problems...

Rising to reply Sir Wilfrid said that he was glad to be back in Ottawa. He remarked that he did not propose to talk politics. There would soon be plenty of opportunity for that. He said he was glad to know that the course he had pursued abroad met with the approval of his fellow citizens at the capital...

He said he was glad to be back in Ottawa. He remarked that he did not propose to talk politics. There would soon be plenty of opportunity for that. He said he was glad to know that the course he had pursued abroad met with the approval of his fellow citizens at the capital...

He said he was glad to be back in Ottawa. He remarked that he did not propose to talk politics. There would soon be plenty of opportunity for that. He said he was glad to know that the course he had pursued abroad met with the approval of his fellow citizens at the capital...

TRAM CAPTURE A FREIGHT TRAIN

Seventy-Five Seize a Northern Pacific Freight and Refuse to Pay Their Fare or Leave the Train. Jamstown, N.D., July 12.—Seventy-five strikers captured a Northern Pacific freight train at Oatberg yesterday and refused either to pay their fare or leave the train. The crew was unable to put the men off and the train came into Jamestown late yesterday carrying about 100 men...

THE GOLDEN RULE TO GOVERN BUSINESS

Delegates to International Association Hold First Meeting in Brussels. Judge Gary Explains Views of Cooperation.

Brussels, July 11.—The steel interests of America, Canada, England, France, Germany, Belgium, Italy, Austria and Spain were represented by 150 delegates who met in conference today, preliminary to the formation of an international association, broadly similar to the American Steel Institute...

In the first session of two hours and a half there was a free discussion, all who took part approved in principle the organization of an international body.

Judge Gary, who was elected chairman of the conference, explained somewhat fully his views regarding a high minded cooperation in business.

"Suppose," he said, "a company of men in capital, power and influence, should by their conduct, unjust or oppressive, acquire universal esteem and respect on the part of the public. In a brief space of time these men would be driven out of business."

"Suppose a producer of any commodity for sale should in any way within his power ill-treat all of his customers, although he knows that the producer would be in bankruptcy."

Suppose an employer of labor mistreated his employees and treated them as slaves, in time, as a result of the action of those interested, a public sentiment, a remedy would be found and this after a great interruption of business and a loss of money.

Let us assume that during a given year the demand for a product equals less than one-half of the capacity to produce, and yet each producer is greedy and anxious to sell more than his fair proportion and acts accordingly, and this attitude is maintained until destructive results are reached. These results are almost certain to be realized.

The deal in business. The chairman continued, to bring about an ideal in business, yet a right disposition, courage, patience and the application of the Golden Rule are almost certain to be realized.

Let us assume that during a given year the demand for a product equals less than one-half of the capacity to produce, and yet each producer is greedy and anxious to sell more than his fair proportion and acts accordingly, and this attitude is maintained until destructive results are reached.

Let us assume that during a given year the demand for a product equals less than one-half of the capacity to produce, and yet each producer is greedy and anxious to sell more than his fair proportion and acts accordingly, and this attitude is maintained until destructive results are reached.

Let us assume that during a given year the demand for a product equals less than one-half of the capacity to produce, and yet each producer is greedy and anxious to sell more than his fair proportion and acts accordingly, and this attitude is maintained until destructive results are reached.

Let us assume that during a given year the demand for a product equals less than one-half of the capacity to produce, and yet each producer is greedy and anxious to sell more than his fair proportion and acts accordingly, and this attitude is maintained until destructive results are reached.

Let us assume that during a given year the demand for a product equals less than one-half of the capacity to produce, and yet each producer is greedy and anxious to sell more than his fair proportion and acts accordingly, and this attitude is maintained until destructive results are reached.

TERRIBLE STORY OF FOREST FIRES

Three Towns in Northern Ontario Are Completely Wiped Out.

Toronto, July 12.—As the result of the forest fire that are sweeping across the northern Ontario, at least fifty lives are lost, many have been injured, hundreds are missing and it is feared scores of these will be included in the fatalities.

Three towns were reported to be completely wiped out. The towns of Pottsville, Port Hope and Port Hope were reported to be completely wiped out.

Three towns have been wiped out of the map and hundreds of refugees are facing starvation. A train containing 600 women and children was rushed out of Cochrane this morning for the south as the result of the flames advancing towards the village. The town of 2500 inhabitants was soon a mass of fire and is entirely destroyed.

Golden City was surrounded by flames for hours and is still in danger, although the flames have been wiped out, the fire only being controlled by dynamiting a dozen houses in the middle of the town.

Two special trains have been sent to bring in the 4,000 persons who are facing starvation by fire in the Tisdale district. Communication with the stricken district is exceedingly difficult because of the flames sweeping down on South Porcupine and Pottsville almost without warning.

The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating. The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating.

The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating. The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating.

The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating. The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating.

The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating. The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating.

The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating. The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating.

The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating. The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating.

The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating. The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating.

The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating. The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating.

The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating. The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating.

The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating. The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating.

The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating. The older boys ran toward the Jackson's house and under younger boys, who had been playing with Keating.

WIDOW'S SON SHOT BY UNKNOWN BOY

Joseph Keating, Young Bronx Lad, Shot Down as He Begs Intruder to Put Away His Revolver.

New York, July 11.—While playing in a vacant lot near his home, No. 573 Robbins avenue, the Bronx last night, Joseph Keating, 11 years old, the only child of a widow whose husband died three weeks ago, was shot and killed by a boy about 15 years old, whose identity is not known to the police and who escaped after the shooting.

Shot through the left lung as he was begging the intruder to put his revolver away, Keating staggered to the door of his home, where he fell dead at his mother's feet.

A dozen boys who had been playing with Keating told the police the shooting was an intentional one. They said they were playing with Keating near some rocks in the lot when the intruder came and shot at these boys, they said, shot Keating a few minutes later. The other boys were unharmed.

As soon as the two boys entered the lot the older drew a revolver and shot at the younger boy, who caught them. The latter dropped to the ground when he was shot, but gaining his feet with an effort, he staggered toward the house, where his mother was. She, alarmed by the shots, had come to the door, reaching the threshold just as her son fell dead on her feet.

Mrs. Keating is in destitute circumstances. Her husband, Jeremiah Keating, was a well-to-do man who had been working as a scrub woman. Her boy, Joseph, was a source of pride to her. He had been attending a public school, where he stood well in his classes and where he had passed his last examination to a higher grade. His mother was overcome with grief last night.

His mother, Mrs. Keating, was a well-to-do woman who had been working as a scrub woman. Her boy, Joseph, was a source of pride to her. He had been attending a public school, where he stood well in his classes and where he had passed his last examination to a higher grade.

His mother, Mrs. Keating, was a well-to-do woman who had been working as a scrub woman. Her boy, Joseph, was a source of pride to her. He had been attending a public school, where he stood well in his classes and where he had passed his last examination to a higher grade.

His mother, Mrs. Keating, was a well-to-do woman who had been working as a scrub woman. Her boy, Joseph, was a source of pride to her. He had been attending a public school, where he stood well in his classes and where he had passed his last examination to a higher grade.

His mother, Mrs. Keating, was a well-to-do woman who had been working as a scrub woman. Her boy, Joseph, was a source of pride to her. He had been attending a public school, where he stood well in his classes and where he had passed his last examination to a higher grade.

His mother, Mrs. Keating, was a well-to-do woman who had been working as a scrub woman. Her boy, Joseph, was a source of pride to her. He had been attending a public school, where he stood well in his classes and where he had passed his last examination to a higher grade.

His mother, Mrs. Keating, was a well-to-do woman who had been working as a scrub woman. Her boy, Joseph, was a source of pride to her. He had been attending a public school, where he stood well in his classes and where he had passed his last examination to a higher grade.

His mother, Mrs. Keating, was a well-to-do woman who had been working as a scrub woman. Her boy, Joseph, was a source of pride to her. He had been attending a public school, where he stood well in his classes and where he had passed his last examination to a higher grade.

His mother, Mrs. Keating, was a well-to-do woman who had been working as a scrub woman. Her boy, Joseph, was a source of pride to her. He had been attending a public school, where he stood well in his classes and where he had passed his last examination to a higher grade.

His mother, Mrs. Keating, was a well-to-do woman who had been working as a scrub woman. Her boy, Joseph, was a source of pride to her. He had been attending a public school, where he stood well in his classes and where he had passed his last examination to a higher grade.

His mother, Mrs. Keating, was a well-to-do woman who had been working as a scrub woman. Her boy, Joseph, was a source of pride to her. He had been attending a public school, where he stood well in his classes and where he had passed his last examination to a higher grade.

His mother, Mrs. Keating, was a well-to-do woman who had been working as a scrub woman. Her boy, Joseph, was a source of pride to her. He had been attending a public school, where he stood well in his classes and where he had passed his last examination to a higher grade.

KING AND QUEEN PLEASED WITH THE IRISH RECEPTION

Kingston, Ireland, July 12.—King George and Queen Mary concluded their visit to Ireland today and with the Prince of Wales and Princess Mary sailed on the royal yacht Victoria and Albert for Holyhead, Wales. The investiture of the Prince of Wales will take place in Carnarvon Castle tomorrow.

Dublin gave their Majesties a memorable send-off. As they passed through the streets there were frequent cries from the crowd of "Come back soon."

The King in a message to the people says: "I cannot leave Ireland without at once giving expression to the feelings of joy and affection inspired by the wonderful reception, which the people of Dublin have given the Queen and King."

The King declares that the spontaneous and universal loyalty has greatly touched their hearts and will never be forgotten. He promises to pay another visit at no distant date and will then visit other parts of the country.

His Majesty concludes: "Our best wishes will ever be for the increased prosperity for your ancient capital, and the contentment and happiness for our Irish people."

CANADIAN SHOTS DO WELL IN SCHUMACHER

Figure in the Money Prices—All Members Representative Wins Money For the First Time.

Canadian Associated Press. Bley Camp, July 14.—The Canadian rifle team again today for the money prizes. In the Hopeton Cup aggregate, in which the men have been shooting in various competitions for the past two or three days, Captain Mortimer, Quebec, took fourth prize, earning three pounds. Staff-Sergeant Richardson, Ontario, was unplaced, shot into sixth place in the McQueen. Private Bibby was twelfth. Captain Wolfenden, of British Columbia, was twenty-second. Each won one pound.

In the Schumacher, a service rifle competition at 800 and 1000 yards, Staff-Sergeant Freeborn won one pound; Private Clifford, sixteen shillings; Lieut. F. Morris, Winnipeg, one pound four shillings; Corporal Roberts, fourteen shillings; Lieut. Keble, one pound; Sergeant Carmichael, Calgary, twenty-eight shillings; Sergeant-Instructor Bailey, 25 shillings; Private Bibby, thirty shillings; Major Patterson, 26 shillings; Lieut. Spittal, 26 shillings; Staff-Sergeant Hall, 21 shillings; Major McLeary, one pound; Sergeant Russell, thirty-three shillings; Lance-Corporal Trauer, 28 shillings; Major Campbell, 24 shillings; Sergeant Richardson, 28 shillings; Sergeant White, 23 shillings; Corporal Keble, 24 shillings; Sergeant F. O. Morris, Winnipeg, 25 shillings; Captain Milne, Vancouver, 23 shillings; Lieut. Keble, 24 shillings; Sergeant Holson, Calgary, 23 shillings; Captain Mortimer, 22 shillings; Captain Keble, 24 shillings; Captain Wolfenden, British Columbia, 22 shillings; Private Warden, Vancouver, 24 shillings; Sergeant Armstrong, 28 shillings and Sergeant A. M. Blackburn, Winnipeg, 31 shillings. All this money was won at the first or the second shot by the Schumacher.

BRITISH NAVAL PLANS DOUBLED. United States Naval Authorities Are Puzzled Over Latest Report. Washington, July 13.—Cable reports from London that next year's building program in the British navy will be a long list of battleships, some of smaller displacement, than the present Dreadnoughts, were received with sceptical smiles by the United States naval authorities.

The type of ship which Sir Philip Watts, admiralty director of naval construction, is credited with advocating, was a 10,000-ton vessel, with a displacement of 10,000 tons, and a speed of 21 to 22 knots, which leads naval officers here to believe that the author of the report is a man of high rank in the admiralty. The vessel is a 10,000-ton vessel, with a displacement of 10,000 tons, and a speed of 21 to 22 knots, which leads naval officers here to believe that the author of the report is a man of high rank in the admiralty.

CHINESE DECLINE TO ISSUE GUARANTEE OF NO COOPERATION. Shanghai, July 13.—The deadlock in the green tea business, caused by the United States prohibition of the importation of colored teas continues, and threatens to deprive the American market of this year's supply. The tea is unquestionably more purer than ever before, and the Chinese have made great efforts to meet the wishes of American buyers, who decline to purchase unless the Chinese guarantee that the tea is uncolored.

Former Japanese Consul-General Dead. Ottawa, July 15.—Word was received at Ottawa of the death of the Hon. J. N. Noss, formerly consul-general for Japan. Since Mr. Noss returned to Ottawa, he had been acting as governor of the Province of Saskatchewan in Korea, with a million dollars in his pocket, which was lost in a fire. He was a man of high rank in the admiralty.

Wrong Corpse Was Sent to Funeral. Trinidad, Col., July 13.—After every arrangement had been completed for the funeral of Thomas Carr, Jr., who died in Chicago, July 1, the remains of another man, sent here from Chicago, reached the residence of Mrs. Carr, as, yesterday. Not until a few hours before the time set for the funeral was it discovered that the body was not that of Carr and from information obtainable here the body has not been identified.

Whinnip's Power Plant. Whinnip, July 12.—The municipal power plant will open August 15 and should allow any remaining power that may exist that the peaking industry will not continue to enjoy reasonable profits under the proposed reciprocity agreement.

Whinnip's Power Plant. Whinnip, July 12.—The municipal power plant will open August 15 and should allow any remaining power that may exist that the peaking industry will not continue to enjoy reasonable profits under the proposed reciprocity agreement.

Whinnip's Power Plant. Whinnip, July 12.—The municipal power plant will open August 15 and should allow any remaining power that may exist that the peaking industry will not continue to enjoy reasonable profits under the proposed reciprocity agreement.

Whinnip's Power Plant. Whinnip, July 12.—The municipal power plant will open August 15 and should allow any remaining power that may exist that the peaking industry will not continue to enjoy reasonable profits under the proposed reciprocity agreement.

WHAT WILL THE OPPOSITION DO?

Will they Continue to Obstruct Reciprocity and Force Election?

Ottawa, July 12.—With the return to the capital last week of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who represented Canada at the Imperial Conference in London, preparations will be made for the resumption of the Parliamentary session on the 19th instant. So far as the Government is concerned, practically everything is ready. Every effort is being made to secure that the session opens at the earliest possible moment, in order that the redistribution may come on without delay, and the great west may not be tricked out of the representation to which it is entitled by further obstructive tactics.

It was announced by Hon. Mr. Fielding when the House adjourned for the recess, that the reciprocity debate would be resumed when the Parliament meets in July. It will be interesting to note what position the Opposition will assume on this matter, in view of the summer's developments.

Ons on Opposition. Before adjournment, hours of Parliament's time and columns of Hansard, the official chronicle of the House of Commons, has been filled with the discussion of the tariff agreement. Everything has been said and resaid, and the debate had settled down into a tedious repetition of what has been said before. The Liberal members, seeing that the whole purpose of the Opposition was to serve the anti-reciprocity interest by this method of obstruction, decided to wind up the debate as far as they were concerned, and leave the House for waiting further time to the obstruction of public business to a certain extent.

Alderman Sams explained that he did not object to exemption on plant and machinery and buildings, but he did object strenuously to the restriction of the amount of taxation upon land. He recognized that a mistake had been made in the restricting of taxation on land to $3,000 an acre for five years and $5,000 an acre for ten years on East Calgary industries, and he took exception to it when the restrictions were made in 1907.

At this age, however, they should not continue such mistakes. It was Alderman Jones who opened the question of single tax involved, and declared that he seemed to be clear that the vote was one either for or against the problem of single tax. He described the proposal of Alderman Sams as imposing a hardship upon the new industries, and Mayor Mitchell observed that he was inclined to agree with Alderman Jones.

Alderman Ross took decided objection to the move made by Alderman Sams, pointing out that the progressive city of Medicine Hat gave exemption from taxation and all sorts of inducements to manufacturers who wanted to go there, offering it even to the very manufacturers who wanted to come to Calgary. Alderman Sams retorted that Calgary did not need to bonus industries, even if Medicine Hat did. The motion was put, Alderman Sams and Brown, the movers, being the only ones observed to vote in its favor.

SHORTAGE IN CHINESE TEAS. Chinese Decline to Issue Guarantee of No Cooperation. Shanghai, July 13.—The deadlock in the green tea business, caused by the United States prohibition of the importation of colored teas continues, and threatens to deprive the American market of this year's supply. The tea is unquestionably more purer than ever before, and the Chinese have made great efforts to meet the wishes of American buyers, who decline to purchase unless the Chinese guarantee that the tea is uncolored.

This the Chinese decline to do, on the ground that the samples of new tea sent to the American authorities in June should be accepted as evidence. The stopping of adulterated tea, content, causing manufacturers to abstain from the century-old custom of coloring will require time. Meantime, they hold, the United States should modify the enforcement of the act for this season, on the promise of the guarantee furnished for next year's tea.

Unless this is done there is little hope that the fifteen million pounds of green tea ordinarily sent to America will be shipped. Former Japanese Consul-General Dead. Ottawa, July 15.—Word was received at Ottawa of the death of the Hon. J. N. Noss, formerly consul-general for Japan. Since Mr. Noss returned to Ottawa, he had been acting as governor of the Province of Saskatchewan in Korea, with a million dollars in his pocket, which was lost in a fire. He was a man of high rank in the admiralty.

Wrong Corpse Was Sent to Funeral. Trinidad, Col., July 13.—After every arrangement had been completed for the funeral of Thomas Carr, Jr., who died in Chicago, July 1, the remains of another man, sent here from Chicago, reached the residence of Mrs. Carr, as, yesterday. Not until a few hours before the time set for the funeral was it discovered that the body was not that of Carr and from information obtainable here the body has not been identified.

Whinnip's Power Plant. Whinnip, July 12.—The municipal power plant will open August 15 and should allow any remaining power that may exist that the peaking industry will not continue to enjoy reasonable profits under the proposed reciprocity agreement.

Whinnip's Power Plant. Whinnip, July 12.—The municipal power plant will open August 15 and should allow any remaining power that may exist that the peaking industry will not continue to enjoy reasonable profits under the proposed reciprocity agreement.

Whinnip's Power Plant. Whinnip, July 12.—The municipal power plant will open August 15 and should allow any remaining power that may exist that the peaking industry will not continue to enjoy reasonable profits under the proposed reciprocity agreement.

Whinnip's Power Plant. Whinnip, July 12.—The municipal power plant will open August 15 and should allow any remaining power that may exist that the peaking industry will not continue to enjoy reasonable profits under the proposed reciprocity agreement.

THE CONCILIATION BOARD'S FINDINGS

Report of Majority Led by Dr. Gordon Colin Macleod

Ottawa, July 15.—The Conciliation Board, which has been reporting on the dispute between the operators and the miners, has today issued its findings. The report is headed by Dr. Gordon Colin Macleod, who is the majority leader.

The report states that the operators are not to be held responsible for the strike. It also states that the miners are not to be held responsible for the strike. The report is a long and detailed one, and it is expected that it will be read with interest by all those who are concerned with the coal industry.

The report also states that the operators are not to be held responsible for the strike. It also states that the miners are not to be held responsible for the strike. The report is a long and detailed one, and it is expected that it will be read with interest by all those who are concerned with the coal industry.

The report also states that the operators are not to be held responsible for the strike. It also states that the miners are not to be held responsible for the strike. The report is a long and detailed one, and it is expected that it will be read with interest by all those who are concerned with the coal industry.

The report also states that the operators are not to be held responsible for the strike. It also states that the miners are not to be held responsible for the strike. The report is a long and detailed one, and it is expected that it will be read with interest by all those who are concerned with the coal industry.

The report also states that the operators are not to be held responsible for the strike. It also states that the miners are not to be held responsible for the strike. The report is a long and detailed one, and it is expected that it will be read with interest by all those who are concerned with the coal industry.

The report also states that the operators are not to be held responsible for the strike. It also states that the miners are not to be held responsible for the strike. The report is a long and detailed one, and it is expected that it will be read with interest by all those who are concerned with the coal industry.

The report also states that the operators are not to be held responsible for the strike. It also states that the miners are not to be held responsible for the strike. The report is a long and detailed one, and it is expected that it will be read with interest by all those who are concerned with the coal industry.

The report also states that the operators are not to be held responsible for the strike. It also states that the miners are not to be held responsible for the strike. The report is a long and detailed one, and it is expected that it will be read with interest by all those who are concerned with the coal industry.

The report also states that the operators are not to be held responsible for the strike. It also states that the miners are not to be held responsible for the strike. The report is a long and detailed one, and it is expected that it will be read with interest by all those who are concerned with the coal industry.

The report also states that the operators are not to be held responsible for the strike. It also states that the miners are not to be held responsible for the strike. The report is a long and detailed one, and it is expected that it will be read with interest by all those who are concerned with the coal industry.

The report also states that the operators are not to be held responsible for the strike. It also states that the miners are not to be held responsible for the strike. The report is a long and detailed one, and it is expected that it will be read with interest by all those who are concerned with the coal industry.