NOTICE.

The attention of Shippers and Shipowners and the trading community generally is drawn to the fact that in time of war the practice of shipping goods with Bills of Lading made out "to order" (made illegal by section 4 of the Customs (War Powers) Act, 1915, in the case of goods shipped from the United Kingdom under license) is very undesirable in respect of any goods exported from any part of the British Empire. Shippers of goods not requiring licenses are there fore advised not to make out Bills of Lading "to order", but only— (a) to a named consignee, or

(b) to a bank or financial house o high standing, with the remark in the margin of the Bill of Lad-ing "Notify A.B."; "A.B." being the name of the person or firm for whom the goods are ultimately destined.

Goods shipped to Holland should be consigned to the Netherlands Oversea in the case of all goods, whether ship-ped under license or not, British ships should have on board throughout the voyage a full manifest of cargo and all the Bills of Lading, or certified copies of the Bills of Lading. Unless these requirements are complied with, there will be a risk that the ships will be stopped and diverted by H. M. Ships or the War Vessels
