ELCAR

The largest, sturdiest and most beautiful car in its price-class
THE ECONOMY CAR

Looks Good, Doesn't It?

And the Picture Doesn't Begin to Do It Justice—But Most of All, ECONOMICAL

It is graceful in design and beautiful in finish—smart and stylish in every detail. Nothing lacking for beauty, comfort, performance or endurance. Drive all day and you won't be cramped or tired. In fuel economy this car is almost without an equal—18 to 22 miles to the gallon of gasoline are the rule rather than the exception. The steering is the easiest; the control the simplest. Easy riding whether fully or partially loaded; remarkable in this respect. Abundant power for hard pulls—fine driving qualities at all speeds—and all the speed you want. Reliable quality is a certainty in the Elcar. Its builders learned to put in quality years ago when building cars selling up to and above $3000. It is a quality car at a popular price—good and large enough to fulfill any motor car requirement. Don't think of choosing until you have seen the Elcar.

Nineteenth Century Superstitions.

On Sunday, June 10, 1832, a singular case was tried before Mr. William Ballantine, a London barrister, who lived from 1812 till 1887, and was magistrate of the Thames Police Court from 1821 till 1848. A woman named Blucher, a tall, muscular native of Prussia, and said to be distantly related to the late Marshal Blucher, the Duke of Wellington's supporter in the Battle of Waterloo, was charged with assaulting a woman named White. Both lived in the same court at Ratcliffe, and Mrs. White, having lost several articles from the yard, suspected the defendant. She and her neighbors, after a consultation, agreed to have resort to the "key and Bible" to discover the thief. They placed the street door key on the fiftieth psalm, closed the sacred volume, and fastened it very tightly with the garter of a female. The Bible and key were then suspended to a nail, and the accused person's name was then repeated three times by one of the women, while another recited the words:

"If it turns to thee thou art the thief, And we all are free." This incantation being concluded, the key turned—or these women thought it did—and it was unanimously agreed upon in the neighbourhood that Blucher had stolen two pairs of trousers that belonged to Mrs. White's husband, and they therefore severely beat her; but she attacked Mrs. White in return, and therefore was prosecuted. The Vestry Clerk of St. John's, Wapping, later on discovered his servant trying in the same way the faithfulness of her sweetheart who was then at sea. This same magistrate, Mr. Ballantine, said that he should have the key turned on her without the Bible and ordered her to be locked up until some person would come forward and be responsible for her future good conduct.

RED-TAPIESM.

A young detective was enthusiastic but inexperienced. Rushing into his chief's office, in great excitement, he cried, "I've found the murdered! I've got him cornered so that he can't escape!" The chief regarded him with withering scorn. "Allow me," he said, "to draw your attention to the fact that at present we are looking, not for the murdered, but for clues!"

tion. He was subsequently taken in charge by Deputy Chief of Police Morham and conveyed to the Nova Scotia Hospital. The unfortunate young man is but 19 years of age and had been working in No. 12 for a year.

Its high food value, ease of assimilation and attractive flavour make "Ovaltine" invaluable during convalescence. It is largely used in hospitals for that condition, and in cases of Sleeplessness, Nervous Breakdown and Shell-shock, throughout the war "Ovaltine" has been included in the official standard parcel sent to invalid prisoners.

"Ovaltine" is a highly concentrated extract of the vitalizing and building up properties of Malt, Milk and Eggs, flavoured with Cocoa, and provides the most nourishing and sustaining food-drink possible.

During the whole process of manufacture "Ovaltine" is by hand.

German Listeners Heard Capt. White.

Because he attempted to divulge military secrets of the enemy, Capt. White, master of the S. S. "Somersby" now in port, was placed in solitary confinement in a German prison camp for a month and given no other food than the peelings from carrots and potatoes.

Capt. White's ship was torpedoed off the Irish Coast in March, 1918, and he was taken on board the famous "U-60" one of the enemy's most up-to-date undersea craft.

While on board, Capt. White learned from members of the crew that the British depth charges were ineffective at any depth greater than 50 metres.

Landing at Wilhelmshaven he found a number of British bluejackets there who were taken prisoners in the Jutland battle. They were on their way to Holland, being exchanged, and he told them of what he had learned on board the pirate craft.

A German in mufti, standing close by, heard the conversation and in a few minutes an escort arrived, and the captain was placed under close arrest.

During his nine months' stay in various prison camps he was never allowed to mingle or speak with men of his own race.

The news he had learned however found its way to the authorities who made use of it and our depth charges were soon made to do their work in greater depths of water.—Sydney Record.

Change of Name.

RESOLUTION BEFORE TORONTO SYNOD.

Toronto, June 3.—Many important subjects will occupy the time of the 67th annual meeting of the synod of the Anglican diocese of Toronto, which opened here to-day. Among them is a resolution calling for the alteration of the present name of the "Church of England in Canada" to the "Anglican Church of Canada." The old name is thought cumbersome and on a motion of Rev. Archdeacon Ingles, of Toronto, the synod will be asked to approve and recommend to the general synod the alteration of the name to "The Anglican Church of Canada."

Strong Assets for Jess Willard.

Here are five reasons suggested by Tex O'Rourke which give Willard an advantage over Jack Dempsey:—
First—While there are cases where little men have beaten big men, there has always been some reason. The big men in question have either lacked Willard's skill or his ability to resist punishment.

Second—Willard's great reach will make it impossible for Dempsey to hit him at anything but short range. Johnson got inside Willard's arms and Dempsey must do likewise.

Third—If Willard can keep the fighting at close range he can land with his left at a distance where Dempsey cannot land at all.

Fourth—At long range Willard can hit with either hand without moving his feet, whereas Dempsey must take a step in first.

Fifth—If Dempsey gets inside Willard's guard he must do all the damage he can with his first punch as Willard is so big and strong that he can smother following punches or push Jack away.
