Thrilling Walking Race.

A walking race between a team of ex-army officers and a team of young business athletes took place yesterday, the course being from the Cross Roads to John Gehan's Hotel Topail, and return, and was won by the Army. It had long been a debatable point as to whether or not the ex-army officers had their physical powers impaired since demobilization and this match was arranged as a consequence. The start was made at 9.50 a.m. and the winner returned at 5.15 p.m. This time, considering the condition of the roads compares very favourably with records previously made. One of the competitors was disqualified on the assumption that a conveyance was used on the course. It is understood a protest will be filed. At any rate, the army men have fully proven the fact that they are still able to hold their own on shank's mare.

CORNS

Lift Off with Fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers. Truly!

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

THE AWAKENING OF CHINA.—Arthur Mews, Esq., C.M.G., will on Monday night next in the basement of Wesley Church, deliver an illustrated lecture to the Wesley Church Epworth League. The subject is to be "The Awakening of China." A collection for missions will be taken up at the close. The hour set for the opening is 8 o'clock.

Beached on Miquelon.

LOSS OF S.S. STADIUM.

We learn the following particulars of the loss of the tug Stadium from one of the members of the ship's company. The Stadium, which was purchased by F. H. Ellis & Co., at St. John, N.B., left Louisbourg at midnight March 14th, for this port and on the 18th ran into a heavy S.E. gale, which threatened the little steamer, and it was decided to run into the ice for shelter. The next day the wind veered to N.W., which opened the ice and about 8 a.m. the Stadium got into open water, and at 2.30 p.m. reached Ramona where she remained until the storm abated. At 6 a.m. on the 18th she left for St. Pierre taking her course from Cape LaHune. As soon as Miquelon Head was sighted, a S.E. storm came on almost suddenly. An attempt was made to reach St. Pierre, but the weather became so thick and the sea so high that Captain Pike, after steaming some time towards St. Pierre, decided to retreat and anchor at Miquelon. At 2.30 p.m. two anchors were put out and with the engine going at full speed, the Stadium rode out the storm until midnight when the starboard chain parted and shortly afterwards the port chain snapped. Captain Pike then decided to beach the steamer, though he was not sure of his position, and succeeded in wedging her into a small cove near Cape Blanc, but neither the Cape nor light was visible. The crew were unable to leave her and held the decks for seven hours. While the tide was high the vessel was beached, the crew making a landing at low tide by means of planks. After a tramp of two hours along the beach they reached Miquelon settlement where they were accorded excellent treatment, and on Sunday they were taken on the S.S. Pierre from Miquelon to St. Pierre. Later they transferred to the schooner Harry and Verna, owned by Hollett Bros., and were taken to Burn where they joined the Fortis for here.

DESCRIBES HIS DAUGHTER'S CURE FROM ECZEMA.
I am more than grateful since using your wonderful D.D.D. for Eczema. My little girl was troubled with Weeping Eczema. I used everything but to no use and I thought D.D.D. would be of no use either. My girl's head became so bad I had to clip her hair off and keep her from school. She got sores all over her body. I used 6 bottles and I am proud to say she is cured. Not a pimple or rash and her skin is clear and white and all the itching gone. I will recommend D.D.D. to anyone I know who is troubled with Eczema. I am ever so happy and thankful for your wonderful cure.

Obituary.

JOHN P. CURTIN.

Early this morning, in the quiet of his home, Hayward Avenue, and surrounded in his last moments by his loving but mourning family, there passed away to its eternal reward, fortified by the Sacraments of Holy Church, the soul of John P. Curtin, Esq., druggist, a well-known and respected citizen of St. John's. For forty years the deceased gentleman was connected with the firm of "McMurdo & Co." Ably and conscientiously did he discharge his duties; his employers always found him "the faithful steward"; to those with whom he had business relations he was always courteous and obliging, ready to serve and to help to the utmost of his ability. After the sad death of T. McNeil, Esq., three years ago, much responsibility fell on Mr. Curtin; he bore it successfully and well until the business passed into other hands and he was obliged, by failing health to resign his position twelve months ago. It was hoped that rest and medical treatment would bring back health and strength, but in November the disease assumed a gravity which refused to yield to the best medical skill. Last Sunday it was evident that the end was near: with perfect resignation and childlike trust and faith the invalid received all the rites of Holy Church and placed himself with entire confidence in the hands of his maker. This morning quietly and peacefully his soul passed out to his God, from whom we feel confident he received the loving welcome—"Well done, good and faithful servant." Hundreds knew John Curtin and respected him for his sterling qualities of mind and heart; he had many friends and no enemies and today many will mourn his early death. But it was only his family who knew him thoroughly and so could appreciate his greatness of character. Always a loving, devoted husband, brother and father, there are at 47 Hayward Avenue today hearts crushed with grief because he is gone, but which at the same time are peaceful and resigned, because they feel that he is happy, they believe that he will spend his Easter in heaven; then his funeral anthem should be a glad evangel, mingling not unseemly with the "Alleluia" of the Resurrection. The deceased was one of the oldest members of the Benevolent Irish Society, also a Charter Member of the Elks; his name was identified with all charitable and religious undertakings. Left to mourn him are his wife, (formerly Miss Redmond of this city) one sister, Miss Mary A. Curtin, four daughters, Sister M. Patricia of the presentation Convent, Cathedral Square, Mrs. Michael P. Tobin, Barnes Rd., and Misses Mary (Nurse) and Helen, and one son, Mr. Jack Curtin, at home. To all of them our sincere sympathy goes out on this day of sorrow for them. The funeral will take place from the family residence, No. 47 Hayward Avenue, on Monday afternoon at 2.30 p.m. Interment will take place at Belvidere. R.I.P.

Correspondents are requested to accompany their real names, not necessarily for publication but as a guarantee of good faith. In future no correspondence will be considered unless this rule is adhered to. It is also requested that all letters "For Publication" be so marked.

SUFFERING OF YOUNG WOMEN

This Letter Tells How It May be Overcome—All Mothers Interested.

Toronto, Ont.—"I have suffered since I was a school girl with pain in my left side and with cramps growing worse each year until I was all run down. I am a children's nurse, and I was so bad at times that I was unfit for work. I tried several doctors and patient medicines, but was only relieved for a short time. Some of the doctors wanted to perform an operation, but my father refused to let me. I learned through my mother of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and how thankful I am that I tried it. I am relieved from pain and cramps, and feel as if it has saved my life. You may use my letter to help other women, as I am only too glad to commend the medicine."—JEAN KENT, 42 Blanford Ave., Toronto, Ont.

Girls who are troubled as Miss Kent was should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Those who need special advice may write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. These letters will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

HERE TO STAY.

Why waste your money on an inferior piano and player-piano repairing and tuning service? You will eventually have to come where your work can be done in first-class style and perhaps done over again. So save yourself the initial expense and have your work done right the first time. Also, send in your orders early as the demand for this service is greater than ever. If address below is not convenient for you, leave your orders where you buy your Columbia Records—The U. S. Picture and Portrait Co., phone 498.
