Fermeuse Loyal to Bennett Party.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir—Kindly allow me space in your paper for a brief account of the hearty reception Messrs. Moore and Cashin received here at Admiral's Fermeuse, on the 11th inst. Long before they reached Admiral's, the flags were hoisted at every house, and when they arrived, the people received them with a welcome that could come only from loyal hearts. At night the old hall was packed; not only the people of Admiral's attended, but old and young from the nearby places. Mr. F. F. Moore was greeted as an old and tried friend, while Mr. Peter Cashin won the hearts and confidence of all present by his enthusiasm and candor of speech. He proved himself a true son of our noble patriot Sir M. P. Cashin who is not forgotten. At the beginning of the meeting the old hall rang with hearty cheers for our beloved ex-member, whom everybody knows has resigned our district, only to fight a harder battle for our cause and the betterment of our country. We are an intelligent people here, and know that the Bennett Party, when they take over the Government of our Island, cannot bring it back to the old time prosperity in a couple of years. For well we know to what condition the Coaker-Squires Party have reduced our Island home, and to what extremes they have drove the inhabitants. Not only have they sacrificed the fish, our principal support, in their desire for wealth and luxury, but the price of every product of our country has been lowered, until our families, no matter what their means of living are have been forced to see some, if not all of their sons, and daughters, emigrate to other countries to help support the little ones at home. And now as the last straw they think to sell the people work for a certain wage regarding the Humber Deal. They would sell the vitality of the country to foreigners. We warn the Government candidates for Ferryland District that we are not to be bought over by any false promises. We consider all such promises an insult to our intelligence. If we had no other proof to the sincerity of Messrs. Moore and Cashin, the absence from their speeches of promises that would be impossible for them to keep would be sufficient to give them our support. Messrs. Moore and Cashin went from here to Aquaforte where they received a welcome not less hearty, in spite of the fact that one gentleman? (Squires only Devotee) made himself very conspicuous (as a politician) by trying to prevent a meeting in the School Hall. The same young man is a father, so am I, and if I were guilty of such treachery towards my young children as to support their oppressors, I would be ashamed to meet their innocent eyes. But the meeting took place in the school hall and was attended by old and young in Aquaforte. Our proud boast here is that our votes are not bought; but prompted by intelligence and foresight. The reign of our oppressors is over (Deo gratias) as the reception given the Bennett parties in every district prove. In a letter received recently from Salmonier, we learn that Bona and colleagues were then there and getting no show. Did they really expect any?

Gratefully yours,
ADMIRAL'S COVE,

Bell Island Voters.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir—We are informed that the Coaker trio are around the streets of St. John's stating "they have Bell Island!" This, they assert is because Burke assures them so for the reason that all the people over here know him. It is not necessary, I am sure, to point out to any intelligent voter, that the fact of Burke knowing people around here is no logical reason why these people should vote for him. If Burke chooses to go and politically make of himself a puppet of Coaker, to exhibit himself as a Jack-in-the-box to be pulled by the strings of Coakerism, it surely is no reason why the people of Bell Island should indulge in these ridiculous stunts also. We know of course that there are too many sensible people in St. John's to believe this pompous young man Burke, while such influence over the people of Bell Island that all he has to do is to put ropes, so to speak, around their necks and they will willingly submit to be pulled around the streets of St. John's and be exhibited as Coaker's slaves. Permit me to remind this pompous young man that this is not an election to decide whether the people of Bell Island know Burke or do not know him; or to decide the question as to whether Burke is popular or not popular. We take it that the election is to decide whether we are to be inflicted with four years more of the rule of the political desperado who is a menace to every family in the land, or whether we shall fire him out for a better man in the person of J. R. Bennett, the leader of the policy of better times. If Burke is too dense to see the ruination Coaker has caused, then his density or stupidity does not entitle him to a vote from any intelligent voter whatever. If Burke is not dense, then he is evidently out to make a big grab for himself regardless of how Coakerism is hurting the people. In this case the intelligent voter bids good-bye to his political friendship with Burke, and the number of like voters who never knew him, nor don't want to know him as a Coakerite Jack-in-the-box, both comprising the total population of Bell Island, because every man here has at least common intelligence, then Burke's vote will be zero, and his Coakerite colleagues the same, whilst Higgins, Fox and Vincombe will naturally poll all the rest.

Yours truly,

Useful Reminders.

A pinch of soda placed on a hot stove will dispel the smell of cooking. An economical way to peel apples when they are needed for cooking is to pour boiling water on them, so that the skin will rub off quite easily. Weighing machines are not always at hand, but accuracy can be attained in this way: A breakfast-cup full of flour and other fine ingredients is equal to 1/2 lb.; a breakfast-cup of sugar is equal to 1/4 lb.; a breakfast-cup of treacle is equal to 1 lb.; one pitted tablespoon of flour is equal to 1 oz.; one level tablespoon of fat is equal to 1 oz.

Open Hall Notes.

Captain Jack Frost has now disappeared, and is seeking refuge in another climate. Indeed we have had a very cold winter and Captain Frost erected a bridge in his light during the first part of the winter, and it still remains. This is unusual as the ice hardly ever stays in here any longer than two or three weeks.

It was a great winter for the woodmen, and some men have two years election and are looking forward to a change in Government, as Coaker and his two colleagues will not poll 10 votes here. Politics is all the talk around here now, and Open Hall is waiting for Polling Day, to make the mistake she made in 1921 by firing for Bennett and Better times. Watch Monroe win with a big margin.
