Pump" for draining marshes, &c., and a most ingenious adaption it is. You have heard of the turbine—a small box water from the most grevious excesses. But to New ing a nozzle, the stream is driven to a dis Whatever Russia has gained has been by Loudon. tance of twenty feet. This, you will say, is ment to fix a similar wheel on the Haarlem Sea, now in process of being drained by forty pumps driven by steam. A Centrifugal would deliver, so the inventor asserts, 1,500,- ments of Europe left her the more free to s ryants. 000 gallons per minute. With such power pursue her own course, even against their at command, one would think we ought never aberations; so that we may venture to To Hon. W.M. MEREDITH, to hear of ships foundering at sea; and the affirm that no combination of circumstanemptying of the Zuyder Zee resolves itself in-

RELICS OF RASCALS .- We are too apt to sudden and irrational outbreak which he should not like to lose so much money." ment, conducting its affairs with skill and the United States.

Mr. Rush's blunderbuss, no doubt would secrecy, and disposing of great military

Very re command as good a price in the British mar- resources, and a fluctuating, irregular, ket, and inches of the rope by which he, or and irresponsible popular power, whose Mr. Thurtell, or Mr. Greenacre, became lost resources are dispersed, and whose diplo to society, would be quoted at no less extrawould probably fetch more than St. Catharine's own wheel, or one of the varitable arrows that shot St. Sebastien. We are remained entirely exempt from these in

THE RUSSIANS-THE POSI-TION OF RUSSIA.

[From the London Times, September 19] The Emperor of Russia has withdrawn his troops from Hungary with a promit tude and sincerity which are more calcu lated to increase his weight and influence in the affairs of Europe than any concession of territory wrung from an enfee selrode had sanctioned, and every imporwhich led him to enter upon this campaign and, to crown these exploits of our foreign was the extreme danger to which the poswas the extreme danger to which the pos-sible success of the Hangarian republic, Austria contributed to send her as a sup-Polish emigration, obviously exposed the most unsettled portion of his own dominions. Many thousand Poles fought in the ranks of the Magyars. Dembinski and Bem exercised a degree of control over position with pride and satisfaction, he the military plan of M. Kossuth's govern-tions which have weakened and convulsed ment, which might subserve their own the continential States of Europe, but he ulterior objects, but which was highly unpalatable to such men as Georgey, who Hungarians and the house of Austria irrepa rable, by encouraging the deposition of the Emperor and his race, because their only hope was in total revolution. No recog. nition of the national rights of Hungary could have satisfied them; but it was pleasure in publishing the annexed corres precisely the excess to which they had pondence, from which it appears that the contributed which brought down upon them freedom offered to our commerce by the the whole force of the North, and termi. repeal of the British Navigation Law, to burgh, extending its observation to the States, "under existing laws" We are rest of Europe, was well aware that the glad that the Hon. Secretary rests, the triumph or defeat of the Hungarian insurrection was not a question confined to the frontiers of that kingdom. Its consequences embraced the whole of Southern

The enactment to

The enactme Hungary had kindled the confligration in the following, being a section of chap. 31 Vienna, which rivalled the horrors of the of "An act concerning the navigation of Parisian days of June, when the Polish the U. States," ap roved March 1, 1817 : Bem and the Saxon Robert Blum conspir-to overthrow the monarchical institutions thirteenth day of September next, no goods, wares or merchandise shall be imof Germany, in the heart of her greatest goods, wares or merchandise shall be imme. I went to his shop, and inquired if of Some of the Magyars may have been their cause was identified elsewhere with the expulsion of those frantic doctrines the expulsion of the expulsion of those frantic doctrines the expulsion of those frantic doctrines the expulsion of the expulsion of the expulsion of those frantic doctrines the expulsion of t and acts of violence which had so recently or subjects of which the goods are the added that I had no objection to assist in London, within that Church, on Wednesday and acts of violence which had so recently growth, product or manufacture, or from keeping the peace, although I did not next, the tenth day of Oct. current, at the many of the fairest cities of Europe. At which such goods, wares, or merchandise one moment the policy of M. Kossuth had one moment the moment the policy of M. Kossuth had one moment the moment the moment th been daringly aggressive; had he become undisputed master of Hungary, it would that this regulation shall not extend to the forbid their erection; he had not been probably, or rather perforce, have become vessels of any foreign nation which has obeyed; and he was determined the arches oo again. The termination of the Hungarian war has interrupted a series of cal- similar regulation." garian war has interrupted a series of cal-ainities, to which it is not easy to assign tion and commerce to all nations who will that the blind enthusiasm of some of our contemporaries has not been gratified at so enormous a price as a prolonged Euro pear convulsion, we have never concealed our regret that no other means of any country from any port into the self and such men as he wanted to assist the not area. This feel in an official form, and has been received ordered the constable to select moderate with feelings of deep disappointment, if annex the account brought by the arrival to come, and I think I may safely assert that this document throws into the shade of any country from any port into the self and such men as he wanted to assist the not area. our regret that no other means of avert.

Of any country from any port into the self and such men as he wanted to assist tal, not even excepting the denunciations accidental death of Professional, or Mercan-put under arrest for having torn down, or six John Franklin. we concur with some of our habitual antawe concur with some of our habitual antanew career of honorable competition be.

Tican vessels; and vice versa. Here opens fered in opinion from his worship; and he poet Burns, for delinquencies of a differfesto affixed to the walls. The amnesty,

Captain Chapel, of the bark MeLellan. gonists, in viewing with dissatisfaction the a new career of honorable competition be replied that he was the judge of what was ent character, and as a fine sample of orincrease which has thereby accrued to the tween the two nations, which we have no power and influence of Russia. That the doubt will redound to the benefit of them fact is so, is generally acknowledged, and both, and especially to the U. States. no less generally deplored, because we

Pump.—A Mr. Appoid has invented a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes. &c., and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes. &c., and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes. &c., and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes. &c., and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes. &c., and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes. &c., and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes. &c., and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes. &c., and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes. &c., and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes. &c., and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes. &c., and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes. &c., and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes. &c., and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes. &c., and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes. &c., and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes and a remarkable machine called the "Centrifugal Pump" for draining marshes and a remarkable machine cal wheel, possessing extraordinary capabilities what cause are we to attribute this aug. Sir: - We must ask the favor of your arches, would you do it? I replied that I rious charges to be brought against mefor work. Well. Mr. Appeld's model con- mentation of the European ascendancy of reply to this letter at your earliest con- believed he had put the question to others I suppose for lack of proof. for work. Well. Mr. Appoild's model contains such a wheel made of tin. a little thick

Thus ended this farce in a bottle of those ages, even though the death of the Asover to his side, and thus shuts his eyes to the model conthose ages, even though the death of the Asover to his side, and thus shuts his eyes to overflows in a continuous stream at the top, dinary position of British diplomacy on ed by us from houses in England, and we and left me without opportunity for reply, disgraced the darkest ages. overflows in a continuous stream at the top, dinary position of British diplomacy on the volume of its stream is such as to dethe continent, which some of them have have already chartered the ship Ambassaand in a seeming rage.

WM. McBRIDE. liver eight gallons per minute; and on apply- the intrepidity or the ignorance to defend. dor of this port to load at Calcutta for the weakness of others, rather than By the act of Parliament we believe it a narrelious effect from so apparently insig-instruction by the weakness of others, rather than By the act of Parliament we believe it by her own strength —by opportunities required that the President will grant inches in diameter, exhibited at the same ties of influence which offered them the same privilege to ships under the Brittime, will deliver 1800 gallons per minute; it selves to her more readily than if she ish flag that England grants to us. Will requires to be worked by an engine of four had sought them-by calamities which a British ship be allowed to enter here horse power. Mr. Appold has lately pro- threw others prostrate, whilst she remained with a cargo of foreign produce (not of posed to the engineer of the Dutch Govern- erect, and which left her mistress of her Great Britain) after the 1st of January policy and resources, whilst all the other next on the same conditions as ships under continental States were without force and the flags of the United States? We trust Thomas C. Dixon, Eq., Mayor of this pump of forty feet in diameter would do more without will. In other words the revolu- you will pardon our thus trespassing on ces could have been so tavorable to the

> BARCLAY & LIVINGSTON. Secretary of the Treasury, &c.

It, therefore, the Emperor of Russia

From the N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

From the National Intelligencer.

her foreign relations.

termination.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, extension of the power of Russia, as that October 12, 1849. GENTLEMEN: In reply to the inquiry he severe upon the vulgar of certain foreign swept away the habitual checks to her made in your letter of the 2d instant, I nesses. refice of saints and martyrs. Instances of a policy. The emperor Nicholas made use have to state that, in consequence of the ln reference to the conversation which peculiar kind of relic-worship are abundant of his position with great forbearance and recent alterations in the British navigation took place between His Worship the Mayenough in this country. For example, we moderation; but, had his ambition been of laws. British vessels from British or other or and myself on the morning of the 3rd read in the Old Bailay News of last week, a more active kind, he would have found to be fo that at the conclusion of a case, subsequent that his most effectual auxiliaries abroad be allowed, after the 1st of January next, the facts. to the conviction of the fool Hamilton, "A were precisely those liberals who profess- to enter into our ports with cargoes of the On my coming down Dundas Street, to certain person named O'Keefe, who, it ap- ed the keenest hostility to his policy, but produce of any part of the world. I have the office of Mr. Scatcherd, I was met by peared, was the owner of the pistol that had who had destroyed the system by which further to state, that such vessels and the High Bailiff, Mr. Peter McCann, who been discharged by Hamilton at her Majesty applied to have the weapon restored to him, as he said he had been offered £40 for it, and between a regular and absolute govern that such vessels and the High Bailiff, Mr. Peter McCann, who had destroyed the system by which that such vessels and the High Bailiff, Mr. Peter McCann, who had destroyed the system by which their cargoes will be admitted on the same told me that the Mayor wished to see me terms as to duties and imposts as vessels of with the Town Books. I almost imme-

Very respectfully, Your obedient servant. W. M. MEREDITH, Secretary of the Treasury.

One country, indeed, besides Russia. schooner called the Adventure, foundered who were the Coumittee: I told him it His Excellency, and, should be be pleased to can be entertained of the result. Should tants. arrows that shot St. Sebastien. We are no bigots, but we unequivocally condemn firmities of revolution; the measures of crime and the British Formula Office were never down three persons who were on board of these devoted men, a European war is saints of the Newgate Calendar; and though taken with greater freedom from external The Adventure and the S. B. Ruggles therein ordering the putting up of arches. visit London, averse to persecution, we should be really glad to see a statute, somewhat milder than that de haratico comberendo, enacted against have failed, it has been not from necessity both were standing on the same time, and both were to make preparations for the receptors. a traffic in the memorials of guilt, which, in but from choice. Nevertheless, even were standing on the same tack. Fifteen tion of His Excellency, and I considered effect, puts a premium on all manner of at- when an effort has been made by this minutes after this the Adventure was no those arches as par of such preparations. country to oppose or counteract a tenden. where to be seen, and, it is leared that she He then said he was mayor of the town, foundered. Her load, stone in the hold cy waich she disapproved, it has so hap-EVACUATION OF HUNGARY BY pened that she not only succombed, but and four large ones on deck, makes this he would have the sches taken down. has actually contributed to promote the sad surmise probable. - American Paper. said, I beg of your vorship not to do it. - result least acceptable to British policy. The LATE GALE ON LAKE MICHIGAN. He said he would have them taken down, We have seen it asserted that in the The Milwaukie Sentinel, of the 5th inst., as their being up with the peace. I then said, for God's sake Rusian cabinet in the Baltic. A more the disasters and loss of life by the late erroneous statement was never made, for gale on Lake Michigan: - The schooner the settlement which was ultimately adopted was precisely that which Count Nesclandestine enmity of other powers. But a compound ratio with all the governments we had estranged from ourselves; were interred here. Mr. Simpson came from Delaware county, N. Y. His wife

LONDON TIMES.

Friday, October 26, 1849.

To the Editor of the London Times. Sir: -In some remarks of T. C. Dixon, that English Minister who based his policy Esq., on a correspondence published in trees that encumbered the ground were much for the "relief of paupers," and charitry had so long adhered to and enjoyed in of the circumstance, and as such I leave see the first fall, and I declare to you that Port of FREE NAVIGATION. We have great made oath,) and thus give your readers rention, as the event shewdd, of cutting blessings that an ever kind Providence ha

WM. McBRIDE.

London, 24th October, 1849. "Be it enacted, &c. That, after the 3rd, Mr. Peter McCann, High Bailiff, called following citation to answer the grave In exempt. On the morning of Wednesday, October dread any breach of it. He said he thought hour of three o'clock, afternoon, to answer former are aware of the utility of Life Assulable reception for General Lamoricere as lasted two hours. tion of arches would lead to it; that he had feeting your standing as a communicant forbid their erection; he had not be been standing as a communicant forbid their erection; he had not been standing as a communicant member of that Church. although he knew I was not of his party, yet he believed me to possess discretionnot to be easily excited—and that I would is a true copy of my citation, and I publish ties to assure, whose lives are not exposed to Sworn before me, at London, in the London District, this 24th day of October, 1849.

ALEX. ANDERSON. (Copy.) London, 25th October, 1849.

To the Editor of the London Times.

Sir :- In the last number of your paper there is a correspondence published by town, in which he says in reply to one of pump of forty feet in diameter would do more without will. In other words the revolu- you will paradon our thus trespassing of town, in which paralyzed the other govern- your time; and remain, sir, your obedient with the letter written by the Mayor himself, almost wholly lost sight of The most of the unity of the letter written by the Mayor himself, almost wholly lost sight of The most of the letter written by the Mayor himself, almost wholly lost sight of The most of the unity of the letter written by the Mayor himself, almost wholly lost sight of The most of the letter written by the Mayor himself, almost wholly lost sight of the letter written by the Mayor himself, almost wholly lost sight of the letter written by the Mayor himself, almost wholly lost sight of the letter written by the Mayor himself, almost wholly lost sight of the letter written by the Mayor himself, almost wholly lost sight of the letter written by the Mayor himself, almost wholly lost sight of the letter written by the Mayor himself, almost wholly lost sight of the letter written by the Mayor himself, almost wholly lost sight of the letter written by the Mayor himself, almost wholly lost sight of the letter written by the Mayor himself, almost wholly lost sight of the letter written by the Mayor himself, almost wholly lost sight of the letter written by the Mayor himself, almost wholly lost sight of the letter written by the Mayor himself, almost wholly lost sight of the letter written by the Mayor himself, almost wholly lost sight of the letter written by the Mayor himself, almost wholly lost sight of the letter written by the Mayor himself, almost wholly lost sight of the letter written by t On this subject, as either his worship or fact, and which the mayor characterized that the Emperor of Russia has made a Count Edmund Zichy, whose brother was On this subject, as either his worship or fact, and which the mayor characterized myself are not worthy of public credit, I as a malicious fabrication. And I refer to the Ports for the correspondence of Kossuth would most respectfully request you to you, Sir, as to the original being genuine. the Porte, for the surrender of Kossuth, give insertion to the following statement: all of which I can prove by credible wit-diately went with the book in which the proceedings of the Mayor and Town Coun. signed by him :requested to see the book and the entries for His Excellency's consideration, the enclorelating to the subject of the Governor sed resolution, expressing a wish by the Town vagant figures. A bit of Courviosier's drop macy is in the street, can have but one To Messrs. Barclay & Livingston, N Y, General's visit, which I immediately show Council of the Town of London, that he should England and France, Cabinet Council of the Town of London, that he should be quoted at no less extra-It is supposed that a small Canadian last meeting of the Council. He asked me Hoping that you will lay the same before circumstances. Not the slightest doubt net. He said he could not see any thing time when it would suit His Excellency to thought to be inevitable. tear them down, you are the party that the circumstances of FARMERS, MECHAwishes to commit the breach of the peace— NICS, and OTHERS, who EARN THEIR DAILY behats.

They are only there to welcome the Re- Bread by the sweat of their brows, and Debats.

nalevolence and attempt at political tyranny under the broad mantle of religion, will he had incurred in the prosecution of his buopen the eyes of your readers to the extent to which the lip-loyalists wish to carry their which the lip-loyalists wish to carry which the lip-loyalists wish to carry will ow thus suddenly sunk from comfort and absorbing question.

Metheranean formwith, to be ready for any emergency, pending the issue of this absorbing question.

established, and as such have been known hunger! and recognized.

I am your obed't serv't. JOHN MICHIE, Session Clerk. Per HENRY MICHIE."

The above document (spelling and all) him, he would call out the military. I dif- of the Scottish Elders upon the immortal tile Gentlemen, but "melancholy accidents" otherwise defaced, the copies of the manibest to be done. I refused to be sworn.

On the afternoon of Friday, 12th inst., the Mayor called on me, and wished to forward it to the British Massaum.

In particular, was made the object of popular odium. The attitude of the French induce one to adopt the plan recommended, I military authorities is quite expectant; it furnishes information which will at least the sample of or
All these matters are worthy of deep consideration, and if this short address will only induce one to adopt the plan recommended, I military authorities is quite expectant; it the Mayor called on me, and wished to forward it to the British Museum.

know what he had said to me on the 3rd Rut to return Lea for acquired in the United States awaits orders from Paris, but disapproves be read with interest in the United States awaits orders from Paris, but disapproves be read with interest in the United States. know what he had said to me on the 3rd But, to return, I so far acquiesced in as well rewarded.

nied it. Said he only put the question- and long after the hour, not a soul came to NEW YORK, October 2, 1849.

Suppose I ordered you to pull down the enquire into the very grave and mystethan two pence a day at the age of forty, will being promised for the following promised for the foll er, but no larger than a halfpenny. This is call revolutions liberty, observe and depre we have to charter American vessels me to assist in taking them down, and if smoke: and I am sure you will think I sured were to take place immediately after the most obvious consequences. The defitted at the bottom of a square tube dipping ciate as we do ourselves? Evidently to to proceed to the English possessions in he could not get such men as he wanted to have trespassed already too long upon the receipt of his Policy. the occurrence of those very convulsions the East Indies and load cargoes for Lon assist him, he would call out the military. your columns, but I have been promted may represent a lake, S.c. The wheel being may represent a lake, S.c. The wheel being which their puerile enthusiam was so eager with great relegity throws up advantage.

The which their puerile enthusiam was so eager with great relegity throws up advantage.

The which their puerile enthusiam was so eager with great relegity throws up advantage.

The which their puerile enthusiam was so eager with great relegity throws up advantage.

The which their puerile enthusiam was so eager with great relegity throws up advantage. water rapidly into a tube above itself, until it to applaud; and, secondly to the extraor-

> My Lord deliver me from those That are mine enemies, And do thou me defend from those That up against me arise. Do thou deliver me from them That work iniquity, And give me safety fron the men

> > Of bloody cruelty. I am, Sir, Yours, &c., JAMES COOTE.

London, 26th October, 1849. of Mr. Farley's statement, as you have re- with a copy of the resolution it enclosed; corded it, it is untrue, and a fabrication." and it is the invitation which I stated as a

I am your, &c.,

JNO. WILSON. Copy of Resolution of the Town Council. ov Mr. William Barker,—That an invitation with a manliness which cannot be too General of British North America, requesting into a compromise of its independence. him to extend his tour to the Town of London. and Prince Radzivil, after baving ineffec-

Certified a true copy.
(Signed,) JAMES FARLEY, Town Clerk.

I have the honour to be, In behalf of the Council. Your obedient servant. (Signed) THOS. C. DIXON, Mayor. Military Secretary. dec., dec., dec.

would be such as to make the Austrian ministers feel how little such acts of friendship are to be coveted or accepted. The ship are to be coveted or accepted. The Emperor Nicholas took up arms against the Hungarian insurrection, partly, from a desire to extricate the house of Austria from the formidable difficulties which had been agravated by the open and by the seen agravated by the open agravated by the open and by the seen agravated by the open agravated by the open and by the seen agravated by the open and to have for the Russian cabinet simply took no notice of our remonstrances of deprivation and misery as we them, but in the meanwhile Mrs. Simpson of the peace. Upon which I immediately such that the meanwhile Mrs. Simpson of the peace. Upon which I immediately such them, but in the meanwhile Mrs. Simpson of the peace of the man defin of his outstanding debts, which of necessity > their revenge for an imaginary insult to imagendence to abject poverty and distress. IMPORTANT FROM FRANCE. their noble leader.

>
> I have from early youth, both in Ireland vide for and shelter her children, for she and this country, been an unworthy mem- knows not where to find shelter at night, or ber of the Scotch Church, as by law a mouthful of bread to stay the gnawings of having no foundation in truth." Will you, or were intended to be taken down. established for these of our surple a means of provision for those of our surple a means of provision for those of our surple. Mr. Editor, do me the justice to publish or were intended to be taken down.

1 then, before I came up, saw the party vivors in whose happiness we have an integrated to be taken down. the following statement, (to which I have proceed down Dundas street with the inin the choice of my associates than he could possibly have done by assigning me could possibly have done by assigning me however, to shew disrespect to his Lord-however, the however has the however had to h any connection with himself or those who ship, but simply because I wished to see Did any other method offer itself for effecting.

the proceedings, nor was I assisting, aid- cellent as that Institution is, it is more effecting, or abetting the party, and I challenge live in its results-the same charitable feelproof to the contrary.

But now for the joke: on the night impelled its origin, but a claim on the one is impelled its origin, but a claim on the one is of the 9th instant, I was served with the received as a charity, on the other demanded out having the opportunity of speaking > rance Office, we find that by far the greater bring back of his mission, is the recollectalso announces the appointment of M. La-Clergymen, Clerks in offices, and such like: at the Imperial head-quarters. Consider- The Turkish Ambassador in Paris had of it to accomplish that most sacred of pur-refugees.] poses, provision for their surviving families. But it it is the acknowledged duty of par-

Tables, I find that something less than five tims marked out by their inquisitorial defarthings a day at the age of twenty five, less crees, walk about freely. The Pope, rely. wives and families of parties Assuring at to imagine that public opinion will come secure one hundred pounds for the surviving What think you of giving up that daily

Hamilton, 21st January, 1849. T.M.S.

Arrival of the Niagara, From Liverpool, 6th Oct.

THE STATE OF EUROPE. By far the most important political even probable rupture of Russia and avoided. In the southern provinces, the Austria with Turkey. It forms the chief excesses of the successful soldiery have topic of discussion in the English and caused martial law to be proclaimed. No French journals as well as among all classes single effectual step has been taken, so far and in its paramount importance, the Ro- as Austria is concerned, towards the settle. Sig:—I beg to enclose you a copy of man difficulty, as well as all other matters ment of the question relative to the unity almost wholly lost sight of. The most on the 30th ultimo, that Ceorgey, the exrecent accounts from Constantinople say dictator of Hungary, had been shot by Bem, and other patriots who played a prominent part in the late Hungarian struggle, who have sought refuge at Wid-Moved by Mr. James Daniel, and seconded the Sultan. The Turkish Government din, on the Danube, in the territories of tually endeavored to bully the Sultan into people of Schleswig-Holstein from open a compliance with his demands, has taken resistance. an abrupt departure from Constantinople Copy of the letter enclosing the above- and Count Titoff, the Russian Minister. all in the hand-writing of the mayor, and has closed all diplomatic relations with the Porte. England and France, through London, 28th September, 1849. their respective representative, have precil are recorded, to the Mayor's shop. He | Six:-I have the honour to transmit to you, vailed with the Sultan in keeping him sent.

The Paris Journal Des Debats o Thusday says-We are glad to learn that united in their determination to support INTELLIGENCE OF SIR POHN PRANKLINtheir ambassadors in the advice given by them to the Porte, respecting the extradia note has been drawn up by these two powers, of a most energetic character, Admiralty, under date Oct. 4, states that, which, it is thought, will have considerable hopes are entertained that the news brought as their being up would create a breach of A WORD ABOUT LIFE ASSURANCE. weight with the Emperors of Russia and by Captain Parker, of the True Love, ar-Austri. The firm language of the Lon- rived at Hull, from Davis's Straits, of Sir Danish mediation. Lord Palmerston succeeded in defeating the intentions of the late of the deserver and loss of the late of the deserver and loss of the late best by bodies of the persons lost by the caps zing of the scheener Research and the presentative of Her Majesty, and you who are in almost every instance ignorant of the Russian special envoy to the Porte without foundation. From the same ought not to tear them down, and I think the advantages which it holds out, that I am Prince Radzival, who by the way, is a source reports have been received that Sir you dare not; and I also think you wont anxions to say a few words to them about it. Pole, has returned to St. Petersburg, to John Ross's ships are in the south of Prince the other States which surround the frontiers of his empire. We are not surprised at the haughty and self applauding language of the proclamations in which the Russian autocrat has thanked his armies and celebrated their troumph. Nor do we Lagres hold be such as to make the Austrian ministers feel how hittle such as to make the fine and the ward words to then about it. The such the such as the such as the fine the notice it now in the ties and family to Chicago, with a load of lumber, and the was determined, not by English suggestions are safe to the latt whould be such as to make the Austrian ministers feel how little such acts of friend-spirit of the Porte, the Russian cabinet of the Russ Archipelago, is ordered to hold itself in last, are stated at upwards of 13,000. n his life time had hoped that it might be embodied. There is no reason to doubt counts of most sanguinary conflicts be-

> MEETING OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY. sittings on the 1st inst., M. Dupin in the There are charitable societies, and excel- The proceedings were simply of a formal proceeding with fresh impulse. It is be-Upon the occasion of the ever memorable visit of his Lordship to London, and relief, often embitters that relief when it is of 140,000 (probably 1,400,000) francs, during the very moment the barren fig- given. The parish authorities, too, pay so besides the sums already voted for the Roprobably entertains the wonted aversion of the Magyars to their Sarmatian neighbor.

There foreign anythrese had conman intervention, until the 31st December | fact that political agitation appears to be tributed to make the breach between the try had so long adhered to and solve and so long adhered to and solve and so drawn, but he assured the Assembly that him with his associates; but yet utterly this was the first intimation I had, either deny the conclusion he has assumed as But all this misery is to be prevented, and the results already obtained justified the port of the unfavorable appearance of the deny the conclusion he has assumed, as this was the first intimation. I had, either societies for the assurance of hie have been that the triumphal arches had been erected established for that purpose. Being so simnated.

France and America caused much sensa. in the potatoes of the late planting. The precisely the excess to which they had contributed which brought down upon them be whole force of the North, and terminated the campaign.

Moreover, the cabinet of St. Peters.

Moreover, the cabinet the should down the arch at the Robinson Hall Hotel.

Moreover the conclusion I as the event shewdd, of cutting feed on the sum that the public generally an opportunity to down the arch at the Robinson Hall Hotel.

Mown the event shewdd, of cutting feed on the sum that the providence has ported that T. Marrast (?) or M. Theirs, we cannot reconcile the reported extent of will be sent to Washington, in the place of the mischief with the still prevailing low > his credentials to the Czar, as the Ambas- LATEST FROM LONDON TO sador of the French Republic. General Lamoricere therefore returns to France with-In exomining the Register of a Life Assu- matters; and the only memorial he will disayow the conduct of M. Poussin. number of those Assured are people in the tion of sundry reviews and the splendid compte at Turin, Minister to the United higher walks of life," Merchants, Barris- suit of Circassian armour presented to him States. He is to be replaced by M. L. ters, Gentlemen holding public situations, by Nicholas, immediately after his arrival Marat. and finding that it is based upon the safest hand with England in resisting so prepos-

INTERESTING FROM ROME. in particular, was made the object of popu- of this port, from Davis's Straits, whose de facto the measures ordered by the Papal and indeed in every part of the world.

EXTRAORDINARY INVENTION—CENTRIFU- agents of Russia are to be regarded as letters relate to a subject which excites He said I was mistaken; that he never had person in London had power to grant, as show how very small a sum may secure a dare not walk the streets of Rome, for fear being promised funds from Russia, seems bates on the subject in the French Chambers are anxiously looked for, and should Papal States, there are strong reasons to be apprehended that a fresh revolution would immediately break forth.

AFFAIRS IN AUSTRIA. Austrian politics are of subordinate interest. It is positively asserted, with every probability of the truth of the report, that the fortress of Comorn has surrendered. By far the most important possible and and thereby an effusion of blood has been PRUSSIA.

In Prussia everything seems quiet, and he Chambers are transacting business with decorum and regularity.

SCHLESWIG-HOLSTEIN.

In the Duchies the excitement is as nothing but the existing armistice, backed by a predominant military force, keeps the PIEDMONT. In Pied nont, the Chamber of Deputies only consented to the treaty with Austria in consequence of the hard and inexora. ble necessities which crush them at pre-

VENICE. There is nothing new from Venice, except that there is increased gloom and respondency on the part of the inhabi-We have only reports from Spain of fresh ministerial crisis; but not one word seems to be said of the serious attempts which have been meditated against Cobs THE DECLINE OF THE CHOLERA-

TERRIBLE ACCOUNTS FROM IDELAND.

is noticed with great satisfaction by the the natives, as late as March last, beset by the ice in Prince Regent's Inlet, is not turned away, not waiting a reply.

JAMES FARLEY.

Who has not witnessed valuable property readiness, and the local troops are being the local troops are local troop the support of his family when they could not have his arm to rely on; and all for what? the English and the French cabinets, and, the possession of the land; and the long it is said, that a powerful French and Eng. cherished feeling of hatred between the lish squadron will be ordered into the occupier of the soil and the owner, has Mediteranean forthwith, to be ready for now broken out with a degree of violence > the Kilrush Union, a sentence of eviction from their homes and their holdings, has The Legislative Assembly resumed its passed against no less than 1800 souls.— In such an unpromising state of things, it chair, and 485 members in attendance. is not to be wondered at that emigration is lieved that the winter emigration from the South will be greater than the last. The most discouraging circumstance that is to be found in the news from Ireland, is the

> THE POTATOE CROP. The European Times contains this rea very rapid decay, similar to that which The suspension of intercourse between occurred in previous years, has taken place prices and undoubted abundance. M Pousin.
>
> General Lamoriciere's mission to Rus.
>
> Adarm has been sounded in all the Irish adarm has been sounded in all the Irish sia has proved a complete failure. He journals; and as far as our own experihas left St. Petersburg, on his return to ence extends, the potatoes seemed more

LIVERPOOL.

BY TELEGRAPH, 6th Oct., 1849. The Paris Moniteur of the 5th instant, one word to the Emperor on political states that the French Government entirely ing that the President of the Republic went an interview with the French Minister for have their names enrolled there. ing that the President of the Republic went an interview with the French Minister for the so far in his endeavors to procure a favor. Foreign Affairs, on the 4th instant, which

AND HIS EXPEDITION. The highly interesting intelligence recolculations that it offers a certainty of return, terous a demand-[meaning probably that ceived by the Niagara from England of when all else may have failed, have made use made on Turkey to give us the Hungarian the probable safety of the long lost navigator, Sir John Franklin, and his expedition, is confirmed by an arrival at New But, whilst we express our satisfaction length accepted the overture, and course.

But, whilst we express our satisfaction length accepted the overture, and course.

Into to be easily excited—and that I would is a true copy of my citation, and I publish ties to assure, whose lives are not exposed to in an official form, and has been received joy to all parts of the civilized world. We have yet to learn that the armies and Navigation Laws. - As the following inst. I repeated part of the conversation. What I knew to be a summon which no However, before concluding, in order to government; and whilst the cardinals, About the first of August, while the