School, instils discipline with drill and the improvement over last year is very noticable. Col. Gartshore has made a different regiment out of the First in the short time he has been in charge. Thoroughly qualified himself, he believes in making all his officers be likewise, and the result is a corps that is the pride of the whole camp.

The officers are loud in their protests against the poor stable accommodation. They claim that from newspaper reports they were led to believe that they would be covered but not shingled. The uprights are pine instead of cedar, and will be almost rotten by next camp.

There have been several desertions of late among the men of No. 1 Company, and from their general talk the men are far from satisfied with their life. They claim that they are burdened with the claim that they are burdened with said the commandant will not recommend than at any other time. SANTA ANA, Cal., June 22.—The First National Bank and the Commercial Bank of Santa Ana didn't open their doors this morning. The People's Bank at Pomona has suspended.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Henry Sheldon & Co., dealers in tea and coffee, have failed.

London, thus giving London two treops,
"A" and "B," and the band. The band is not in camp, but it is expected to take part in the regimental church parade on Sunday next.

The staff is composed of Col. Gartshore, Adjt. Van Tuyl, Paymaster Hobbs, Quartermaster Higgins, Surgeon Piper and Veterinary Surgeon Wilson.

The troop officers are: "A" troop, Capt. Weld, Lieut. Savage; "B" troop, Capt. Stothers, Lieut. McComb; "C" troop, Major Stewart, Lieut. Stewart and Lieut. Morrison; "D" troops, Capt. King, Lieut. Bennat.

"C" and "D" troops belong to Courtright and Kingaville respectively. They make an excellent showing, but the praise of all the efficers goes cut to "A" troop which was only organized two weeks before camp. Troop Segt. Major Dinnen is apparently a hustler.

There is more work and less play about the regiment this year than ever before. The men perform their drills more like veterans than raw recruits. Sergt. Major Baxter, formerly sergeant-major of Quebec
