last season at the fine reception and conditions they had at Bay Ridge that their support is all likely to be thrown in this direction, and this may turn the scale in favor of the Crescent Athletic Club. The Dobertys declared Although nothing is officially known yet of the visiting team, it is generally understood that the Dohertys will be the nucleus of the British delegation, and if the U.S. N. L. T. A. executive committee next week acts favorably on the changes asked for by the English association in the international regulations, there may not be any third player sent over. For the defense, Whitman, Larned, Collins, Ward and probably Davis, will all be available, and it would not be surprising to see the opposing teams next summer in the international matches made up of almost exactly the same men opposed to each other as fought out the contest last year.
