CHURCHES UNITE FOR BIG OUTING

Three Sunday Schools of Lucan Spend Day at Springbank.

METHODISTS WIN

The largest picnic at Springbank Park Wednesday afternoon was that of the Sunday Schools of the Methodist, Anglican and Presbyterian Churches of Lucan, who made full use of Lucan's Civic Holiday to hold their fifth annual outing. There were more than 500 people present.

Besides the customary program of sports the outstanding feature of the day's program were softball tournaments for both girls and men. The Methodist girls were successful in winning the first prize of $5, defeating the Anglican girls 15 to 9, the latter having previously defeated the Presbyterian girls 11 to 7. The Methodist men's team trimmed both its rivals, taking the measure of the Anglican nine 14 to 8, and the Presbyterians 27 to 8.

The teams lined up as follows: Methodist Girls—A. Gibson, F. Chown, V. Hodgins, M. Sovereign, C. Spettigue, H. Gibson, L. McNamee, M. Crown, B. Powell. Anglican Girls—J. Dignam, G. Dore, E. Armistage, N. Seale, E. Stewardson, L. Stewardson, E. Seale, E. McFall, M. Martin. Presbyterian Girls—T. Langford, s.s.; H. Langford, r.f.; C. West, p.; P. Branton, 3b.; H. McNamee, c.f.; J. Langford, 1b.; H. Gibson, 2b.; R. Coulter, c.; A. McNamee, 1b. Anglican Men—M. Murdy, c.; F. Hardy, p.; H. Bowden, 1b.; L. Wall-pole, 2b.; J. Park, c.f.; Dr. Clark, 1b.; J. Skinner, 3b.; J. Thompson, r.f.; D. Clark, 2b.

EIGHT PICNICS HELD AT PARK

Over Two Thousand People Gather For Enjoyable Day At Springbank.

ONLY TWO LOCAL

Eight picnics, only two of them strictly London, were held at Springbank Park yesterday afternoon. In all over 2,000 people were on the grounds. The weather was ideal after a none too promising morning.

The picnics were: Salesmen of the Neal Baking Company, "A" Platoon of the London Fire Brigade, Odd-fellows of London District No. 14, Sunday Schools of the Methodist, Anglican and Presbyterian Churches of Lucan, Taylor Family Reunion, Pearson Family Reunion, Presbyterian congregations of Alisa Craig and Carlisle, and the Sunday School of First Baptist Church, Lobo.

PROF. J. C. FIELDS.
Professor of mathematics at University of Toronto, who has been elected president of the International Mathematical Congress.

Park yesterday afternoon brought together 125 descendants of John Taylor, who came out from Shetland, England, with his wife and family of six children in the year 1826, settling first west of Toronto near Mimico.

Twelve grandchildren of the original John Taylor were present at the picnic, including John W. Taylor, 77, Exeter, Miss A. Pearson of London, Mrs. S. Cook of Sandwich, Andrew Taylor of Yarmouth Center, Robert Taylor of Osborne Township, Eli Taylor of Petrolia, Robert Taylor of Watford, William Taylor of Appleton, Mrs. H. Heron of Scarborough, Mrs. A. Thom of Dunbarton, Mrs. W. A. Grin-ton of Los Angeles, Cal., and Miss A. E. Pickering. The fifth generation were present in large numbers and a few of the sixth.

Mrs. Hector Taylor was captain of the winning side in a game of softball against the nine captained by Mrs. John McPhee, the score being 15 to 9. Batteries—Winners, Myron Culbert and Alvin Alexander; losers, Frank Nichols and Charles Kestlake. The 1924 executive includes: John W. Taylor, Exeter, president; Dr. H. D. Taylor, London, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Gertrude Gloom, Yarmouth Centre; Albert Taylor, Sarnia; M. J. Macfie, Appleton; A. McLaughlin, Al-vington; Morley Voss, Granston; and Arthur Taylor, Dunbarton.

PEARSON REUNION.
The descendants of the late Edward W. Pearson held their first annual picnic at Springbank Park yesterday afternoon. There were about 80 people present from London and district.

Edward W. Pearson came to Canada in 1875 from Staffordshire, England, accompanied by his wife and family of eight children, three of whom were present at the picnic yesterday, viz.: Mrs. Elizabeth Merrick, aged 74, Metcalfe; Mrs. Annie Lowe, London, and Joseph Septimus Pearson, Strathroy. Two children, the only members of the sixth generation, were also present, Madeline Ferguson, aged 6, and Jean Ferguson, aged 2, both daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ferguson of Carleton Place.

Miss Marian Pearson, London, read an address to the three members of the original Pearson family, and bouquets were presented to them by Madeline Ferguson and Lillian and Marjorie Vandusen.

The results of the races were as follows: Boys under 10—C. Bryant, J. Bryant, H. Grosvenor. Young men's race—W. Pearson, J. Grosvenor. Little girls' race—M. Ferguson, M. Vandusen. Married men's—E. Grosvenor, F. Merrick. Young ladies' race—G. McPhail, E. Pearson, G. Reid, C. Grosvenor, E. Grosvenor.

Girls under 10—L. Vandusen, A. Charlton, M. Bennett, J. G. McPhail. Walking race, ladies—Mrs. G. McPhail. Siamese twins race—L. and E. Pearson, W. and E. Pearson.

CONGREGATIONS UNITE.
The Presbyterian congregations of Alisa Craig and Carlisle held their first annual joint picnic at Springbank Park yesterday afternoon. There were about 250 people present, including Rev. A. W. Gardiner, pastor of the two congregations.

The teams were in two straight pulls in an exciting tug-of-war contest with a team from the Alisa Craig congregation. W. H. Westcott was umpire.

The teams were: Carlisle, Roy Siddall (anchor man), G. L. Shipley, Donald Stewart, Ed. Phillips, C. Phillips, Archie Shipley, J. McKichan, Tom Shipley, Alisa Craig, H. W. Dair (anchor man), McCampbell, J. D. Drummond, J. S. Smith, C. Grant, Chas. C. Watcher, L. C. Vincent, Rev. A. W. Gardiner.

A team chosen from Alisa Craig and Carlisle won from a team from Fernhill in a softball mix, 11 to 7. The teams: Alisa Craig—Carlisle, Edna Vee, Helen Phillips, F. Thompson, P. Reid, P. Grant, K. Thompson, F. Vincent, Fernhill—L. Chapman, A. Bice, H. Currie, E. Chapman, G. Chapman and E. Levie.

Minister Freed As Court Hears Wife Complain

Special to The Advertiser.

Chatham, Aug. 13.—Magistrate Arnold did not know who to believe, the Rev. T. C. J. Greene, colored, or his wife, after hearing their stories in city police court this morning, during the former's trial on a charge of assault. The woman showed injuries which she said were caused by Greene's violence. Greene alleged that he merely slapped his wife when she struck his cheek with a broom. Neither had witnesses. Dismissing the charge against the Rev. Greene, the court ordered the wife to leave the east end church, the court essayed an interpretation of a well known quotation: "If she smites you on one cheek, turn the other."

NEAL BAKING COMPANY.
The salesmen of the Neal Baking Company and their families to the number of about 75 held their fifth annual picnic.

The picnic committee included W. Telfer, general chairman; G. Plavner, E. Hourd, F. Cromarty, Roy Hill, Ivan Plumridge, Vern Stinchcombe and A. Connolly.

The results of the races were as follows: Boys under 6—Jack Hill, Ken Plavner, Neal Connolly. Girls under 6—Jean Shannon, Irma Telfer, June Cromarty. Boys over 10—Paul Hill, Emerson Bristol. Girls over 10—A. Walsh, Jean Shannon. Ladies' race—Miss Tomlinson, Mrs. Telfer, Miss Brown.

FIRE BRIGADE.
"A" Platoon of the London fire brigade had such a splendid time at their picnic yesterday afternoon that the decision to make it an annual affair was carried unanimously.

Chief John Aiken and 3 of his assistants, together with their families and friends, to the number of 250, had a ripping time.

The Central fire hall men proved their superiority at both softball and in the tug of war. Captained by Fred Hodges, and with Noll Mason as anchorman they won from the team picked from the other halls in two straight pulls. The outside team was captained by Frank Taylor, and had Tom Mason as anchor man. Chief Aiken was referee.

The Central hall softball nine was successful 8 to 6 against the outside halls. Batteries: Central, R. J. McDonald and J. Pickering; Outside, D. Tindal and Charles Wray. Chief Aiken was umpire.

In the drawing contest Fred Siltson drew a pair of automobile shock absorbers, and T. Viles an automobile tire.

The picnic committee included D. Tindal, Charles Wray, J. Williams, R. McDonald, Tom Mason and F. Sutton.

"A" Platoon stayed in town and kept the home fires from burning. The results of the races were as follows: Boys under 3—A. Moulton, J. Ruddy, G. Viles. Boys under 5—J. Pickering, T. Reid, A. Sweet. LOCAL CHAPTER FETES VISITORS

Members of True Kindred Chapter, Mispah Conclave, Hold Outing.

Special to The Advertiser.

Port Stanley, Aug. 13.—The members of True Kindred Chapter, Mispah Conclave, of London, staged a most enjoyable outing at the lake, and in the afternoon, in honor of a number of visiting lodge members from Chicago and Detroit.

The party, numbering about 200, gathered on Inverness beach shortly after 2 p.m. to run off a long line of sports, which were heartily enjoyed by all. Keen interest was shown in all these events, especially in the prize drawing contest, which was won by Mrs. J. Matthews of Chicago. During the afternoon Mrs. A. Mercer was presented with an engraved compact by her fellow lodge members in appreciation of the long and faithful services rendered in the past.

A delightful lunch, served on the heights at 6 p.m., brought the affair to a most fitting close. Tomorrow afternoon the American guests will be the recipients of a tour through the Forest City and a trip to Springbank.

The results of the sports were: Boys, 6 and under—J. Dann, F. Prouse. Girls under 6—V. Wilkes, J. Weir. Boys, 7 to 10—J. Bennett, F. Simons. Girls, 7 to 10—D. Heard, A. Cook. Boys over 10—H. Prouse, L. Mercer. Girls, over 10—J. Horner, A. Mercer. Candle race—Mrs. B. Brigham, Mrs. R. Brigham, Mrs. J. Brigham.

PURE JERSEY MILK

Now Sold at Soda Fountain

It's a Milk Bar now, as well as a Soda Fountain! The pure Jersey Milk which you have often had in our restaurant is served right at the Soda Fountain on the Main Floor.

For the convenience of our men patrons, a new entrance has been made, so that you can go directly through the Men's Shop into the Milk Bar. Ice-cold creamy milk is served in individual bottles at 5c each.

Jersey Milk From Belvoir Farms

The milk and cream which are served in our Restaurant at our Milk Bar, and from which our ice cream is made, come from a Jersey herd at Belvoir Farms.

The farm has modern, sanitary buildings, broad acres of fine, grazing lands bordering the Thames, as well as fields of corn and wheat.

The Jersey herd has been tested by the government and pronounced to be free from tuberculosis. Each month the barns and dairies are inspected, so that the high standard of cleanliness is rigidly maintained.

It's Certified!

Right after milking, the milk is cooled, to prevent the growth of bacteria, and it is poured into the big milk cans which have been sterilized with live steam. It is removed from the barn so that it won't absorb odors.

The morning milk is brought straight to us, and the big cans are removed to the refrigerating rooms. There the milk is poured into individual bottles and kept ice-cold until you order it.

Do You Weigh What You Should?

The T. B. M. won't feel nearly so tired if he leaves his desk long enough for a mid-afternoon glass of milk.

If the men of the house have not read today's advertising columns, won't you please tell them about our new Milk Bar!

NEW TOBACCO COMPANY FORMED AT KINGSVILLE

Windsor Man Is President of Organization—Capitalized at $50,000.

Special to The Advertiser.

Kingsville, Aug. 13.—With a view to growing, manufacturing and selling an all-Canadian tobacco, the McLean Tobacco Company has been incorporated with a capitalization of $50,000.

Alex. Simmers of Windsor has been elected president, with Hubert G. Holmes, secretary-treasurer, and L. H. Johnson, manager. W. P. Harvie and J. O. Lundy, both of Windsor, are directors of the organization.

Mr. Simmers states that the company has been working steadily for the past year and endeavoring to find out if there was a sale for its product. Results have been very satisfactory, he says, and the organization will greatly increase its operations.

L. H. Johnson, formerly of Chatham, is widely known in the tobacco business.

ROUGE RIVER FIRE CAUSES DAMAGE OF $1,000,000
Associated Press Despatch.
Detroit, Mich., Aug. 13.—Fire starting shortly after midnight wined out the plant of the Dwight Lumber Company at River Rouge, a suburb, did damage estimated at more than $1,000,000. For a time the flames threatened the entire residence district of the suburb. The fire was brought under control early this morning.
