Annual Gathering Brings Out Feeling of Confidence in Future.

EXECUTIVE REDUCED

Jack Reid Succeeds George Jewell As Treasurer-President Returned.

The L. A. A. A.'s annual meeting last night was the best attended and most enthusiastic ever held by the organization, and though the form of organization was not greatly changed, and the same executive, with two exceptions, will be at the helm for another year, by the unanimous choice of the meeting, there was a distinct feeling that central control of representative sport in London is facing a stable and bright future. Financially it was shown that the L. A. A. A. was on a sound

A third member of the Flint base-ball club of the Michigan-Ontario Did the Britisher who carries his League has graduated into the big show. The Chicago Cubs have pursorts of weather, slip over to Thames Park this fine autumn Saturday show. The Chicago Cubs have pur-chased Ralph Michaels, third basenan of the 1923 team and will carry nim as a utility infielder.

Michaels was recalled by the Pittsburg Nationals at the end of the sea-son, and the usent to Wichita Falls. Texas, for more experience. He had been playing spectacularly and hitcing well since the spring training antithesis of Shaughnessy. Shaughnessy, it has been said, gets his men worked up to a fighting pitch by verbal lashing. Hughes gets the effect—cubs advised Manager Bill Killifer even to tears—with the other kind of appeal to the players' emotions.

The Cubs played and defeated Wichita Falls on Sunday. Michaels played a sparkling game. After it was over, Killifer signed Michaels and turned over Bob Osborn, pitcher; Pete Turgeon, infielder, and Marty Callaghan, outfielder. The other Callaghan, outfielder. The object of it all.

This sort of personality is a rarity. It's more often seen among fighters and managers than in most other lines of sport. Managers and trainers in the fight game live so much with their charges that oftentimes a real affection springs up, parental almost in its blindness to faults and blemishes in the object of it all.

St. Thomas, April 11.—Four teams have entered the local junior secreer league, with Dan Parker at the head of the association. The teams entered are: Elgin Regiment Rovers, United Veterans, Eastern Uniteds and Controlled. Flint players who graduated from the 1923 club to the majors are Hank luce, outfielder, and Del Lundgre pitcher, both with Pittsburg.

Michaels must have improved reat deal if he has won a steady job with a major league club. He was clever defensive player last season, ut his stick work was not exactly of the brilliant order. Still he clubdelegates to the annual meeting of the Bruce League.

The following officers were ap-pointed: Honorary president, Mayor Krug; honorary first vice-president, C. J. Mickle; honorary second vice-president, M. A. Halliday; honorary third vice-president, F. M. Haines; honorary fourth vice-president, W. McLean; honorary fifth vice-president The young man came to Flint after eorge Stricker had pulled out and left the club in a lurch. Stricker was supposed to be the best defensive man in the league. But he tired of the game and went back home, a suburb of Pittsburg. And no one has been able to lure him out since. Smith to Appear.

Davey Smith is going to be able o appear after all, according to his ttending physician, and this is one of the bouts in which some real rivalry will come to the surface, as Fred Burke of Stratford, Davey's week in the Classic City. Davey has no quarrel with Stratford as a Classic City, but he apparently thinks that the decision should be listed among the classic literature dealing with the exploits of the James Boys.

Herbie Cabot of the Elgin Regi-ment, and Bumps Wright of the United Vets, are going to transfer their nome town feud over to this metropolis for settlement. Wright won the decision the last time, and Cabot still thinks the judges were the victims of a case of mistaken identity.

Heavy Go Uncertain.

King Byrne of London and Brown of St. Thomas also have an argument to warm all over, and there's a sus-picion abroad that the concoction will be steaming hot by the time these heir work. Byrne won the last battle, but it was close.

Today it will be definitely known whether Cy Pook will do a turn with Evan Shute, the Varsity boxer. The card will stand out all alone without this bout, but this will be a frothy top layer to the bill if Shute can be induced to make the trip up here.
