The C. P. R. Flyer Making Fast Time Across the Continent—Will Reach Montreal To-day.

Death of Bishop McIntyre, of Prince Edward Island—Premier Mercer Received by the Pope.

Time for the Completion of the C. P. R. Expired Yesterday—Contract More Than Fulfilled.

The C. P. R. Flyer. WINNIPEG, April 30.—The Canadian Pacific flyer, which is now racing across the continent, passed here at 11 p.m. General Manager Van Horne and party are on board. The train has averaged 30 miles an hour from the Pacific Coast to this point, which is a remarkable time when the heavy grades crossing the mountains are considered. The train is racing to catch an English mail steamer, which leaves New York on Saturday night. On a level road bursts of speed up to 50 miles an hour for long stretches have been frequent. From Brandon to Winnipeg, 133 miles, were covered in two hours and a half.

Death of Bishop McIntyre. HALIFAX, N.S., May 1.—Bishop McIntyre, Catholic Bishop of Prince Edward Island, died last night of heart disease, while on a visit to Bishop Cameron, at Antigonish. Bishop McIntyre was over 70 years of age.

The Contract More Than Fulfilled. TORONTO, May 1.—An Ottawa special to the Empire says: To-day, the first day of May, 1891, was the original date fixed by contract for the completion of the Canadian Pacific railway. So far from believing the reform party should be built at the date fixed, the reform party shouted from end to end of the country, in season and out of season, that it could not, and would not, be completed at all, but Canadian enterprise and the solid faith of the people in the policy of the government of the day, not only built the road and had it in running order years before the time fixed, but it did more. Some days ago the Empire of India arrived at a British Columbia port, a fact which means that the Canadian Pacific practically extends across the Pacific ocean to Japan and China.

Sale of E. K. Co. Shares. TORONTO, May 1.—Cables to Hammond report sales of Hudson Bay shares at 174 pence to 18 pence in London.

Premier Mercer at Rome. QUEBEC, May 1.—Ernest Pacaud, of L'Electeur, has received the following cablegram from Hon. Mr. Mercer: "O Rome, April 30.—The Pope received me at 11:30 this morning, and after a long interview I introduced to his Holiness Mr. Sheehy and my travelling companions. His Holiness blessed us, and then, in the presence of the province of Quebec in particular. We withdrew deeply moved with the kindness of his holiness, who delivered a fine speech, which I will send you."

The Body of a Murderer. QUEBEC, May 1.—An order-in-council granting permission for the removal of the body of Lamontagne, the murderer, from Sherbrooke jail yard, having been approved, it was signed this morning by the Lieut. Governor.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

A Fast Cruiser. SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—News has been received that the cruiser San Antonio, on her trip to Chili, averaged 13 knots per hour, using only three boilers.

Sleep-Fasting Contest. SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—Last night the sleep-fasting contest began at Irving's hall. Nineteen men, of all nationalities and various ages started to keep awake 168 hours. They employed a great many different expedients for keeping their eyes open. To-day, at noon, all had succeeded in keeping the drowsy god at a distance, but several looked very heavy about the eyes. No. 4, a Mr. Jensen, clad in a Norfolk jacket and red leather shoes, paced restlessly up and down the floor. To those that talk to him he insists he has a walk-over, and none of the other contestants are in it. A Mr. Harris, who is clad in a linen duster and hat and socks of different colors, claims that by Sunday everybody would be asleep but himself. He says at one time he didn't sleep a wink for four days and nights and never felt better in his life. Other fasters were scattered about the hall playing cards, etc.

Trade Protection. SAN FRANCISCO, April 30.—The Bulletin this evening says Senator Dolph's speech, at the banquet of the Protective League, last night, was a fair exposition of Pacific coast ideas regarding protection. It is true that, owing to the nature of our industries, we peculiarly need protection, and Senator Dolph did well for us in making this clear to an eastern audience. It is a point that we need to be made frequently and energetically in the near future. If the question of Canadian or Mexican reciprocity comes up, and it is likely enough, California will have to keep a bright look out, lest some of her most important interests suffer injury. We should be threatened front and rear. We have looked with complacency upon the reciprocity treaties thus far made or projected under the provisions of the McKinley bill, because they are limited to certain articles, but when Congress gets at work with unlimited discretion, we shall have to stand to our guns.

A Question of Fines. SACRAMENTO, April 30.—There is much excitement among the Italians of this city on account of the President's proposed visit. An Italian military company called the Boralliere Volunteers, was asked to turn out for escort duty. Gen. T. W. Sheehan, marshal of the day said: "All right, but it must be understood that not a flag but the star spangled banner will be allowed in the procession to-day." It is announced that the company will not parade unless allowed to carry the Italian standard. Gen. Sheehan stands firm, and the Italians have appealed to Mayor Constock, who has called a meeting of the executive committee to consider the matter.

The President at Monterey. DELMONTE (Monterey) Cal., April 30.—The Presidential party returned to the Hotel Delmonate late this evening, having lunched at Cypress Point. The President was much pleased with the beautiful scenery along Monterey and Carmel Bays, and he said the drive surpassed in marine view all the others he had seen. To-night the Presidential party were entertained at dinner by the hotel company. Later in the evening the President and most of those who were attending an informal dance, at the conclusion of which the party, including the San Francisco contingent, retired on the train, which leaves at 4:30 tomorrow morning for Santa Cruz.

Hundreds of Men Fighting the Blazing Demon in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

HELLFONTE, Pa., April 30.—Forest fires are raging in this vicinity with destructive fury. Millions of feet of timber are already destroyed, and it is reported that every sawmill in the mountains between Bellefonte and Lewisburg has been burned.

READING, Pa., April 30.—Destructive fires are raging in the Blue mountains. The fire on South Mountain is six miles long and two miles wide.

MILLVILLE, N. J., April 30.—Baileytown, which was surrounded by fire yesterday, has not yet been heard from, but is thought to be all right, as the people there have had much experience, and probably built bar fires to save the town. Damage to timber is enormous. The fire has already burned over 7,000 acres. The fire started in a forest below Williamson Junction, forming a letter "S." Hundreds of acres of wood have been destroyed, but most of the farm houses were saved. To-night fire is burning furiously near Alto. Hundreds of men are out fighting it and endeavoring to save the buildings in its course. The residents have been fighting fire all day, and are fatigued and discouraged. This town and the surrounding country is covered with a cloud of black smoke. Fire above the crew roads destroyed hundreds of acres of small wood and a great stretch of cedar swamp.

PLEASANTVILLE, N. J., April 30.—Forest fires are assuming alarming proportions, and have not been exceeded in 30 years. To-night the sky is illuminated for many miles. This morning the Conovertown and Port Republic Woods were set on fire from a locomotive, and a westerly gale fanned the flames so that by noon the whole forest south of Pleasantville was in flames. A strong wind saved Abscon from destruction, but the fire was diverted into the most valuable young timber in this section. By 2 p. m. the flames had reached Conovertown, and the citizens turned out to fight them. Their efforts were unavailing, and those living on the edge of town removed their effects to the open fields and watched the houses burn. The greatest excitement prevailed, and for a while it was feared that the town was doomed. All the wooded land in the direction of the Shore road has been burned. Late to-day the wind went down and assisted the efforts of hundreds of men to get the fire under control. It was hard work, and for a while it was feared that the town was doomed. A GOOD BISHOP. The Right Reverend Peter McIntyre, Bishop of Charlottetown, whose death was announced in a telegram of yesterday, was the most deservedly popular of the clergymen of the Maritime provinces. He was one of the kindest, the most courteous and the most urbane men I ever knew. He was the respect and esteem of all with whom he came in contact. No one, not even the most prejudiced and bigoted, could resist the charm of his manner. He was not what is commonly considered an able man; but he had a talent for business, and he was devoted to his duties. During the thirty-one years in which he was Bishop of Charlottetown, the affairs of the Roman Catholic Church in Prince Edward Island were judiciously and faithfully administered. His clergy were deeply attached to him, and he was loved and revered not only by Roman Catholics, but by Protestants of all denominations. From one end of the island to the other, he was enthusiastic in the cause of education and the friends of temperance found in him a zealous co-laborer and a discreet adviser. The death of the good Bishop McIntyre will be sincerely and deeply mourned by the whole population of the Island province. We append a sketch of his life and his labors: Bishop McIntyre was born in Calib Heston, St. Peter's Bay, Prince Edward Island, June 29, 1818. His father, a native of Inverness-shire, Scotland, emigrated to Prince Edward Island in 1788. The son received his preparatory education at St. Andrew's academy, Prince Edward Island, and afterwards sent to the College of St. Hyacinth, and followed a theological course in the seminary of Quebec. He was ordained priest in 1843, and then appointed assistant at St. Charles parish, Charlottetown. After several months he was assigned to the Tignish mission, on Prince Edward Island, where he continued for seventeen years, during which he built one of the finest churches in the island. He was consecrated Bishop of Charlottetown, in August, 1860. Under the administration of Bishop McIntyre, the Roman Catholic Church has made marked progress in this diocese. He has founded the college of St. Dunstan's, a convent on one of the Magdalen islands, and about twenty churches and parochial schools. He went to Europe in 1869, to attend the general council of the Vatican, and traveled through a part of Europe and Asia. In 1878 he founded a hospital in Charlottetown, which is considered one of the best managed in the Dominion, and is open to all classes and creeds.

NEWS FROM ALASKA.

A Foolhardy Canoe Trip from Juneau to Victoria for the Sale of Nootka.—Death of James Terrill.

PORT TOWNSEND, May 1.—The steamer Mexico arrived yesterday from the North, having made the run from Sitka in the remarkably quick time of four days and three hours. She had a pleasant passage both ways, and brought down twenty-eight passengers and 240 barrels of oil, and the crew of 25 men. The cargo was unloaded here and will be shipped to San Francisco on the steamer Walla Walla. After discharging her consignments the Mexico left for Departure Bay to load coal preparatory to going to Alaska.

MAY DAY IN BERLIN. In Berlin the only sign of anything unusual on May day was the number of men and women—family parties as well as single individuals—who trooped to Charlottenburg and the Kreuzberg to sit in the beer saloons and drink the national beverage. In accord with the advice of their leaders, given some time ago, most of the workmen remained at their usual employment, and will do their domestic chatting to-morrow.

ENGLAND AND ITALY. It is stated on semi-official authority that there has been no arrangement between England and Italy since the understanding of August, 1888, by which England guaranteed Italy respect for her shores in the event of a French invasion, and Italy, in return, guaranteed the maintenance of the status quo in Egypt, Gibraltar and Cyprus. Lord Salisbury, however, has renewed his assurance to the Italian ambassador that the agreement will be observed.

THE GREEK CHURCH. A despatch from Athens says the Duchess of Sparta, the future Queen of Greece, sister of the German Kaiser and grand-daughter of Queen Victoria, was destroyed by fire at the church of the Greek church. The ceremony was of a private character, but it is known her Royal Highness was not made to take a plunge in the baptismal waters, but was anointed with oil, and dressed in the Russian fashion. The duchess and her husband are on the best of terms, although she has acknowledged the change is a matter of policy. There is no doubt it was entirely voluntary.

THE JEWISH EXHIBITION. In the German exhibition in London, opened this morning, the principal buildings of Berlin, Potsdam, Nuremberg and Heidelberg are depicted on a larger scale than they have ever before been seen in England, and an exquisite view is presented of the western and central gardens in the exhibition are Schleswig Holstein farm, the house and gallery of the German emperors.

THE POOR JEWS OF RUSSIA. The Jews now being expelled from Moscow are only the poorest class of those who own real estate have been granted a term of grace. The harsh feature of the new edicts is that by authority of an Imperial edict issued in 1885, the Jews who were arrested, and their families, were authorized to leave, but this privilege has now been withdrawn from them.

He will arrive at Orenburg on the 15th, and will be met by the Emperor and the Empress on the 16th. He will then proceed to the city of Orenburg, and will there reside at the celebration of the 300th anniversary of the formation of the Cossack troops of the Ural, of whom his highness is Ataman.

A NEW INTEREST HAS BEEN IMPARTED TO THE question of a future destiny of South Africa, by the announcement of an intended Trek to the north on the part of a large number of suspects of the Transvaal Free State and Cape Government. According to the public press, the proposed Trek is a party of 5,000 men, capable of bearing arms, will assemble on the southern bank of the Limpopo, between the 15th and the 31st of May, and will cross that river on June 1st and proclaim the republic of the north on the following day. The leaders of the "Trek" include men from the Transvaal, the Free States and Cape Colony. All steps taken have been by the advice and approval of the "Afrikanerbond," which has just held its annual conference in Kimberley. There seems reason to believe that one of the objects in view is the extension of the "Afrikanerbond" to the Cape, a journey which represents the union and replacement of the company by a genuine South African movement, free from all control by the British Government. The idea has been gathered in England that the "Trek" is only a ploy to attract attention to the Cape, and that the more extreme views of the bond party, was even more emphatic in the same sense. The strength of the movement may be gathered from the openness with which its plans are disclosed. There is no concealment of any kind. The "Republic of the North" will

Mr. Corbould Brings Up the Fishery and Reciprocity Questions—The Modus Vivendi Bill.

Senator Haythorne Dying at Ottawa—Serious Illness of Sir Adolphe Caron.

OTAWA, May 2.—The flood gates of talk were opened in a six hours' discussion on the address, yesterday, and the end is not yet. Mr. Hazen made a capital speech, followed by Mr. Corbould, who said that Canada had been for thirty-five years trying to procure a settlement of the reciprocity question, but since 1854 all her efforts had been refused by the Washington Government, on some pretence or other. He thought that it was a subject of congratulation that the Government had taken the firm stand on that question it had and that Canada was not prepared to barter away her independence and her nationality, as one party in Canada proposed to do. (Applause.) The Behring Sea question was one of the utmost importance to the province which he represented. The aggressive proceedings of the States had been met with patience and firmness; and the result would probably be an early and an honorable settlement of this vexed question.

Hon. Mr. Laurier complimented the mover and seconder of the address, and then proceeded to deliver a speech indicating the bitter disappointment of the Liberals at their defeat last election, and the decided efforts of the Government to secure reciprocity with the United States. The Premier made a vigorous reply, but declined to be led into a discussion of the trade question, pending the negotiations. He charged the Opposition unmercifully. The debate was continued by Sir Richard Cartwright, Hon. Mr. Foster and Mr. Mills. The House then adjourned.

Mr. Mulock moved a resolution in favor of the repeal of the liquor duties, and also to amend the liquor laws in the Northwest Territories, and to give power to the legislature to deal with public schools free from all limitations.

LABOR DEMONSTRATION.

London Workmen Preparing For a Great Mass Meeting To-day in Hyde Park.

The Women Will Turn Out as a Protest Against Legislation For Their Protection.

LONDON, May 2.—Signs of activity are appearing everywhere in London, preliminary to to-morrow's labor demonstration. Already bands of workmen are beginning the holiday by parading the streets with their new banners. If Sunday proves to be a fine day, the Hyde Park demonstration will be the greatest of the kind ever held. The procession will be composed of labor's cavalry as well as infantry, the farmers of the city leading the way on horseback. For the first time, women will turn out in considerable numbers, and will be decidedly as a protest against the legislation supposed to be for the protection of their sex. The self-supporting women of England do not want any further legal restriction upon their freedom of labor, but that which they now have. Every year the English woman is becoming less dependent and more self-supporting, and she sees concealed under the name of covering prohibition, Sabbath observance and labor matters.

A bill to make a Canadian eligible to take command of the militia of the Dominion is to be introduced.
