Manager Collins of Hamilton is after a Cleveland catcher who has few superiors behind the bat, in its use or in running bases.

The Stars of Syracuse have abandoned their proposed eastern trip. They were unable to secure enough dates to make it pay.

A. meeting of the Manufacturers' baseball league will be held this evening in the rooms over Milligan so digar store, King street west.

Perkins and Godwin (double sculling) offer to give any two men in England two lengths' start from Putney to Mortlake for £100 or £200 a side, Richard K. Fox is again booming his propo-ition to give five thousand dollars for a single cull race in the vicinity of New York city etween August 1 and 15.

The New York Times expresses regret that fanlan has condescended to challenge Teemer and thinks that by doing so he is voluntarily ecking the latter's level. Two sets of uniforms have been ordered for the Hamiltons—one of blue-gray, like last year's suits, and the other of bronze-green, both with red trimmings and stockings.

A meeting of the Maitland lacrosse club will be held in the Rossin house on Wednesday, the 7th inst. to elect delegates to the convention and other important business.

Wm. Torke, Hanlan's backer in his match against John Teemer, offers to bet $500 to $350 that New York wins its first championship yame, which will be against Boston.

Two hundred and thirty-six entries have been received by the executive committee of the New York Trotting association for the races at Rochester, Sept. 7, 8 and 9.

Another baseball genius has cropped out in aces at Roshester, Sept. 7, 8 and 9.

Another baseball genius has cropped out in Indiana. He has invented a plan by which people in one city, by the use of blackboard and telegraph, can witness every point in a game played in another city.

Sheffler and O'Rourke, last year's Toronto battery, were the battery for Harry Spencer's Portland team when the Newarks defeated them by 18 to 0. Knowlton, not Phenominal Smith, was the Newark "firer."

A.C. P. R. nine has been formed at Winnipeg that will purchase suits in Chicago. The officers are: Hen. president, J. Dorsey; treasurer, W.H. Paulin; secretary, G. F. Anderson.

Messrs D West, C Vite, Jas Calcott, J Gibson, J King, jr, and Geo Gadsby shot a glass ball match at St. Catharines, 10 balls each. Out of the 60 they hit 14, Calcott winning with four. As a team they challenge the universe.

A game-law agitation is in progress in Manitoba. Its object is the better protection of duck, swam, geese, snipe and plover, the first three to be sacred between April 1 and Sept. 1, and the two last between April 1 and Aug. 1.

The Montreal Rifle association has resolved to revive small bore shooting this season, to send a team to Creedmoor, and have the June match shot with the Martini-Henri at 600 yards, 500 and 900 yards, sighting shots to be abolished. A race between the trotters St. Nicholas and St. Patrick will be decided over Simon James track, Hamilton, on the Queen's birthday. A match between the runners Jessie and Tally-Ho will probably be decided on the same day. The friends of Harry Gilmore posted $100 with Frank Martin to make a match for $500 or $1000 a side with Sam Bittle and the latter was to have filed an appearance last night to agreed upon the preliminaries. but he failed to materialise.

A bill making gambling a felony has passed both houses of the Kentucky legislature, and the Law and Order club has notified proprietors of pool rooms in Louisville that they must close their doors. It is not the intention, however, to interfere with betting on the ground of chartered racing associations.

Yesterday Mesers. Oox (president) and Hamburger (representative) of the Toronto baseball club and Stroud and Sterling, of the Hamilton baseball club, were served with papers on behalf of George Sleeman, president of the Canadian league, claiming $5000 from each club for non-fulfilment of contract.

It will be remembered that Peter Conley, of Portland, Me., issued a challenge to row the winner of the recent Perkins-Largan match in England, which was not at the time accepted. George Perkins now announces that he is ready to take up Conley's challenge, and will row him in two months from March 22, or in six weeks from signing articles.

John L Sullivan says he can only be sure of fair play in the United States and will only fight Jem Smith there. Smith says he will only fight Jem Smith there. Smith says he will only fight Jem Smith there. Smith says he will only fight Jem Smith there. Smith says he will only fight, but not in America. The chances of a meeting between the two is therefore somewhat remote.

The Rochester baseball association has arranged to allow the Buffalos to open the Hamilton grounds, instead of playing in that city at that time. In return for this favor the game scheduled to be played by the Rochesters and Buffalos on July 28 will be played on July 2. The Old house on the west side of the grounds at Dundurn is being fitted up with dressing.

"Spring," sang the poet, "budding a Alas; the boughs are bare; He was himself the one green thing. For ice lay everywhere.

"Hail, spring, with breezes soft and the spring returned his hail;
There came a shower of snow and sle
Upon a wintry gale.

"Sing, merry birds, in bush and tree,"
He read the almanac;
The birds were wiser far than he,
And did not hurry back. Spring, gentle"—here he ceased to Let the sad truth be told: The while he sang of balmy spring He caught an awful cold.

That was about the size of it. Edward Hanlan, Simon Ham The World stood on the extreme Tinning's whart yesterday me watched great mountains of madly over the sands of the po the ex-champion's name, and flood conies and doorways of his islam Few people up town had any idea parst storm known for many years ing around the island and along ti front, Hanlan gazed abstract the bay and remarked lacor dollars after the storm got through Out in the bay were floating driftwood, logs, old boats roofs of houses. They posed to have come from island. A strong northeast wind was straight up over Lake Ontario. A com of snow; sleet and rain helped the wind to make about as disagree as was ever known in Toronto, miles to the west of the city.

The storm continued to rage all it was not until last midnight The storm continued to rage all dit was not until last midnight it wind was under control. Every those who have cottages or other high places on the island naturally fe concern for their safety. When yover this time they will find a piderolation and destruction probable fore, seen on the island, certain since it became a popular summer. The damages to the cottages, sidewe the breakwater will amount to thou follars. Captain Parkinson and himade two trips over on the Ada All attempted to land at Hanlan's who were unsuccessful. They were computed to the city at 5 d'elections and the control of the cont
