

ON THE Philosophy of Marriage and the Secret Infirmities of Youth and Maturity.

With fifty Coloured Engravings on Steel,
In a Sealed Envelope, price 2s 6d sterling.

SELF-PRESERVATION: an Analytic and Functions of Marriage, in all the beatifications, and impediments, tracing their origin to the effects of juvenile solitary habits, youthful excesses, tropical climates, or close study; followed by practical remarks, founded on twenty years experience in the treatment of impotence, nervous debility, local weakness, spermatorrhoea, syphilis, and all diseases of the urinary and generative system. Illustrated by fifty Coloured Engravings on the anatomy of the reproductive organs and their relative conditions in health and disease. By SAMUEL LA MERT, M.D., No. 37, Bedford-square, London, Doctor of Medicine, Member of the University of Edinburgh, Honorary Member of the London Hospital Medical Society, Licentiate of Apothecaries' Hall, London, &c.

The essential object of this treatise is to point out, the fearful consequences resulting from certain habits, irregularities and excesses, which have produced more misery in youth, degradation in manhood, and premature decay at all stages of life, than perhaps, any other class of disease known to modern physicians. Its perusal is particularly recommended to persons entertaining secret doubts of their physical condition, and who are conscious of having haz-arded the health, happiness and privileges to which every human being is entitled.

The contents embrace the origin, effects, prevention and treatment of the deplorable catalogue of maladies connected with nervous debility, exhaustion of the vital energies, prostration of mental and physical capacity, local and general weakness, acute and chronic spermatorrhoea, and their endless modifications. The treatment adopted is founded on experience gained in the most celebrated schools of medicine, and by the most eminent practitioners, both in Great Britain and in Continental Europe. Every peculiarity relating to the physiology, pathology and general treatment of the diseases incidental to the generative system is clearly explained, and the means of immediate relief and ultimate cure described in detail.

The professional reputation of Dr.
La Mert, who has taken the most distinguished medical and academic honours, at home and abroad, is in itself a sufficient guarantee that those who may place themselves under his care will, in every instance meet with that delicate consideration and invaluable secrecy which are so requisite in the treatment of these cases.

CAUTION.—In consequence of the extensive sale of his work, which has now attained its sixtieth edition, several spurious

The work may be had in St. John, of U.
Chubb & Co., price 2s. 6d. at; Halifax,

By JOHN TALLIS & CO. OF LONDON
THE LIFE AND TIMES OF THE LATE Duke of Wellington;

By Lieut. Col. Williams; (a Companion at Arms, of His Grace.)

Comprising the Campaigns and Battle Fields of Wellington and his Comrades, the Political Life of the Duke and his Contemporaries, and a detailed account of England's Battles by Sea and Land, from the commencement of the Great French Revolution to the present time, interspersed with Anecdotes, Personal Incidents, and Adventures, etc.

ADDRESS.

The earthly career of Arthur Duke Wellington has closed; one of the greatest men of the nineteenth century, the foremost military commander of any age has paid the debt of nature. The time has arrived for giving to the world a history of the Great Captain—the Events of his life and Time—a tale marked by patriotism, probity and honour, and events the greatest which have ever agitated the civilized world, and whose influence will be felt upon society till the end of time. Such a work must appeal to the best and proudest feelings in the heart of every Briton—the glory of his country, the honour of its name and position among the nations—nay his own existence as a freeman, are recorded and engraven in the annals of the "wel-fought fields," and the deadly immortal battles and the glorious sieges in which Wellington and his Companions in arms gathered undying laurels, placed their country's honour and reputation on the highest pinnacle of fame and glory, and tore the victor's wreath from the brow of heroes decorated with the trophies of Italy, Egypt, and Germany.

To supply such a desideratum in English literature, the publishers of The Life and Times of the Duke of Wellington have determined to produce a work which shall present to the reader, not only the dry details which a mere biographical sketch would afford, but a comprehensive work, embracing the contemporary history of the period; exhibiting the circumstances which brought about the great events in which the Duke and his contemporaries were engaged, and giving to the reader a connected narrative of the lives and actions of the Warriors and Statesmen of the nineteenth century; and this from the pen of one who was a companion in arms of the great hero, and participated with him in many a well-fought field.

In order to carry out their views, the Publishers have determined that the work shall be profusely illustrated by Portraits of the Warriors and Statesmen of the last half century who have shed a lustre upon the history of their country; also representing some of the most important engagements by sea and land from the period of 1750 till 1852; so that the work, when finished, shall form an illustrated Gallery of the Naval and Military Exploits of England.

It has been well said, "Character is the true strength of nations; true glory their best inheritance. When the time shall come that the British heart no longer thrill at the names of Cressy, Poitiers, Agin-court, Blenheim, Ramilies, Oudenard, Malplaque; of Talavera, Salamanca, Tou-ouse, Waterloo,—the last hour of the British Empire will be struck." The promotion and elevation of national spirit and feeling is therefore the duty and interest of every true and loyal son of England.
May Heaven inspire the hearts of every one of us with that spirit and feeling.

Conditions of Publication.—The work will be issued on the 1st and 15th of every month, in Parts at 1s. 3d. and Divisions handsomely bound at 9s. 4d. printed on Imperial 8vo. double columns, each part will be embellished by two highly finished steel Engravings, and will contain 32 pages of letter press. A beautiful steel Engraving 13 by 19 inches, the storming of Seringapatam, the first victory in which the late Duke of Wellington was engaged in India, to every subscriber to the work.
