

Poetry.

WHAT IS HOME?

BY CHARLES SWAIN.

Home's not merely four square walls,
 Though with pictures long and gilded;
 Home is where Affection bids—
 Filled with strains the heart hath moulded!
 Home!—go watch the faithful dove,
 Sailing 'neath the heaven above us—
 Home is where there's one to love us!

Home's not merely roof and room,
 It needs something to cheer it;
 Home is where the heart can bloom,
 Where there's some kind ho to cheer it!
 What is home, with none to meet?
 None to welcome, none to greet us?
 Home is sweet—and only sweet—
 When there's one we love, to meet us!
