An Old Soldier's EXPERIENCE.

"Calvert, Texas,

May 3, 1882.

"I wish to express my appreciation of the valuable qualities of

as a cough remedy.

"While with Churchill's army, just before the battle of Vicksburg, I contracted a severe cold, which terminated in a dangerous cough. I found no relief till on our march we came to a country store, where, on asking for some remedy, I was urged to try AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

"I did so, and was rapidly cured. Since then I have kept the PECTORAL constantly by me, for family use, and I have found it to be an invaluable remedy for throat and lung diseases.

J. W. WHITLEY."

Thousands of testimonials certify to the prompt cure of all bronchial and lung affections, by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it readily.

Scientific and Useful.

AN economical and really delicious way to flavour a cake which is to have icing over the top is to grate part of the peel of an orange or lemon over the cake before putting the icing on.

FOR SPRAINS.—Bathe with amica diluted with water, and bandage with soft flannel moistened with the same. A sprained wrist thus treated will grow well and strong in a few days.

FOR FELON.—Take equal parts of gum camphor, gum opium, castile soap, and brown sugar; wet to a paste with spirits of turpentine. Prepare it, and apply a thick plaster of it.

FROSTED FEET.—Rub the parts affected with kerosene every night. Use plenty of it and sit in front of a moderate fire while applying it. Three or four applications should complete the cure.

FOR suet pudding, take one cup of suet, two and one-half of flour, one of raisins, one of currants, a small cup of molasses, spice to taste, one dessert-spoonful of baking powder. Bake three-fourths of an hour. — Boston Post.

A SURE CURE FOR CHILBLAINS.—Three applications of vaseline will cure the worst case of chilblains. For ordinary cases one or two applications will be sufficient. Although vaseline is made from petroleum, it is far more rapid in its work of healing than kerosene.

BACON DRESSING.—Drain off the fat in which bacon has been fried, carefully refraining from allowing any pieces of meat from mixing with it. To the oil from half a pound of bacon add the juice of one lemon, one wine-glassful of sharp vinegar, a salt-spoonful of cayenne and black pepper.

RICE AND APPLE PUDDING.—Boil an ounce of ground rice in half a pint of new milk, and mix with it the pulp of eight large apples, four ounces of loaf sugar and a few drops of essence of lemon. Whisk the whites of three eggs, and mix with the other ingredients, pour into a well-buttered mould, and let it steam in a saucepan of boiling water for one hour, then turn it out carefully. It can be eaten hot or cold; if the former, pour a custard or sweet sauce around it; if the latter, serve with sifted sugar over and a garniture of preserved fruits. Quinces may be used instead of lemon to flavour this, but they must be well boiled.

CHAPPED HANDS.—People sometimes suffer greatly with chapped and cracked hands. A cure, however, may be obtained if the following precautions are observed. Do not wash the hands while the healing process is going on, oftener than necessary; and when you do wash them use castile soap and warm water, dry them thoroughly and then rub them well with melted mutton tallow. Do this three times a day and you will soon cure the worst case. If those who are exposed to the cold weather would grease the hands well with mutton tallow every night they would find the skin softer and whiter and less liable to chaps.

EAT of all kinds needs the nicest care to be sweet and wholesome, for nothing takes odour more rapidly, and if you leave cupfuls of grease, or drippings, to stand open in the closet, you must expect to find a queer flavour in your fried potatoes, and several different flavours in the plain piecrust besides the one you wanted. Keep all the fat from cooking in a small stone jar, well covered. Fry it out once a week into a clean jar and let it cool uncovered in a draft of air. In winter set it out doors to freeze, which refines it remarkably. At other times keep it tightly covered in the ice-box. Fat which has absorbed a coarse taste can be purified by freezing and become nice again.

ALEXIS CYR, of Grant Isle, Aroostook Co., Maine, writes: "Having used Northrop & Lyman's valuable Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, and derived great benefit from it, I feel the liberty of asking you for quotations, and also whether you would be willing to give me the agency for this place, as I am confident there would be a large sale for it in this vicinity when its merits were made known."

TOMATO AND ONION OMELET.—Take equal parts of sliced onions and tomatoes, peeled and freed from pits, chop them both coarsely. Fry the onions in butter. When cooked, without being coloured, add the tomatoes, with pepper and salt, and stir the mixture on the fire. Make a plain omelet in the usual way, and insert this in the fold on dish it.

HORSEWATER'S Corn Cure is the medicine to remove all kinds of corns and warts.

A WONDERFUL PLAN.

OF THE GREATEST INTEREST TO BIBLE STUDENTS, PERHAPS SOME OF OUR READERS WOULD LIKE TO TRY THEIR SKILL.

There is a very well gotten-up monthly paper called the Ladies' Journal, published at Toronto. Each issue consists of 20 pages of very interesting information for ladies; two pages of full-size music; large illustrations of the latest English and American fashions; one or two short stories; household hints, etc.; altogether one of the best publications for the money (being only fifty cents for one year's subscription) that we know of. We did not intend to describe the paper so fully, but what we started out to say was that they are offering as a grand first prize a second, a VALUABLE GOLD HUNTING CASE GENTLEMAN'S WATCH; third, an EXTRA FINE GOLD HUNTING CASE LADIES' WATCH; fourth, a LADIES' COIN SILVER HUNTING CASE WATCH; fifth, a GENTLEMAN'S COIN SILVER HUNTING CASE WATCH. Including the beautiful articles just mentioned, they give THIRTY-THREE very valuable prizes, consisting of watches, varying in value from $90 down to $7. Silver Plated Dinner and Tea Knives, Tea Spoons, Rings, Books, etc., to the first thirty-three persons who send correct answers to the following Bible problems.

SILVER TEA SET OF SIX PIECES;

I.—Who is the first prophet named in the Bible?

II.—Who is the first King named in the Bible?

III.—Who is the first Judge named in the Bible?

Each person competing must send FIFTY CENTS with their answers, for which the Ladies' Journal will be sent to any desired address for one year. Each question must be answered correctly in order to secure a prize. The competition will only remain open till 20th February. The names and addresses of prize winners, together with the correct answers, will be published in the March issue of the Ladies' Journal. The publisher says the prizes will be awarded without favour or partiality. If any of our readers think of competing, the address is Editor Ladies' Journal, Toronto, Canada. A large sum of money must have been spent in obtaining these prizes, and the publisher says "it is only in order to get the Journal talked about, and to interest people in the study of the Bible that these prizes are offered." These questions are submitted by the Rev. E. B. Harper, D.D., a leading minister of the Canada Methodist Church. Names and address of prize winners in former competition are given in the February number of the Journal. Remittances had better be made by post-office order, scrip or small coin.

SAOS HUDGIN, Toronto, writes: "I have been a sufferer from Dyspepsia for the past six years. All the remedies I tried proved useless, until Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure was brought under my notice. I have used two bottles with the best results, and can with confidence recommend it to those afflicted in like manner."
