

A young woman died in Windsor a few weeks ago after a continuous stupor of 22 days. During this time she never opened her eyes, spoke, nor took nourishment; but sometimes moved in a restless manner.

The Toronto Council made an unsuccessful attempt to induce the Private Bills Committee of the Legislature to place the inspection of school children under the Medical Officer of Health. This was not granted.

Dr. R. A. Jones, of Toronto, has gone to New York for a period of post-graduate study.

The friends of Dr. Charles O'Reilly will be glad to hear of his recovery from his illness this spring.

Dr. M. O. Klotz, of Ottawa, president of the College and Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, has gone to Europe for the purpose of a few months' study in the German hospitals.

The site for the new City Hospital of Hamilton consists of fifteen acres on top of the mountain.

Mr. W. J. Gage, of Toronto, has recently made a gift of $100,000 to the National Sanitarium Association for the prevention and treatment of tuberculosis.

The Chatham General Hospital will have a new wing, with accommodation for twenty patients.

A sanitarium will be built at Freeport, between Galt and Berlin. The building will have accommodation for 20 patients.

A private hospital has been completed at Copper Cliff, Sudbury, to take the place of the one destroyed by fire. The present building was erected by the Canadian Copper Cliff Company, at a cost of $200,000.

At a recent meeting of the Kingston Medical Council the following was adopted: "That this association desires to place on record its unreserved condemnation of the practice of fee-splitting, and that any member of the association found guilty of this practice shall thereby forfeit his membership."

The Ontario County Medical Association was organized some time ago. Dr. J. S. Mellow, of Port Perry, was elected president. The vice-president is Dr. J. M. McClintock, of Uxbridge. Dr. J. Moore, of Brooklin, is secretary-treasurer. The members of the executive committee are Dr. Shier, Uxbridge; Dr. D. S. Hoig, Oshawa; Dr. Broddy, Claremont, and Dr. Blanchard, Sunderland.

The Empire wing of the Kingston General Hospital was opened on 2nd April. It cost $60,000.

The St. Joseph's Hospital, of London, will expend about $50,000 on additional accommodation.