42 M'Gill Street, and 79 St. Paul Street, MONTREAL.

Every description of Gentlemen's Wearing Apparel constantly on hand, or made to order on the shortest notice at reasonable rates. Montreal, March 6, 1856.

Will be ready on the 20th of March, (NEW AND REVISED EDITION,)

THE LIFE OF ST. ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY. by the Count de Montalembert. The Life, translated by Mary Hacket, and the Introduction, by Mrs. Sadller. 12 mo., of 427 pages, with a fine steel engraving. Cloth, 5s; cloth gilt, 7s 6d.

The first edition of Three Thousand having all been sold, and there being many calls for the work, we have put to press a New Edition. The translation has been read over with the French copy and carefully corrected.

Of the merits of the work, we can safely say, that no bicgraphy ever issued from the American Press equals it-it's as interesting as a romance.

• The Press have been unanimous in praise of the first edition. We give extracts from a few of them : "The book is one of the most interesting, instructive, and edifying that have been produced in our times, and every Catholic will read it with devout thankfulness to the Almighty God, that he has been pleased to raise up, in this faithless age, c layman who can write so edifying a work. It is marked by rare learning, fine artistic skill, and correct taste; and breathes the firmest faith and the most tender piety. His work is as refreshing as springs of water in a sandy desert.... Let every one who can read purchase and read this beautiful Life of one of the most lovely and most favored Saints that have ever been youchsafed to hallow our earthly pilgrimage.'

-Brownson's Review. "The whole introduction shows the hand of a master, and it loses nothing in Mrs. Sadlier's racy and elegant English. It enhances the merit of the work, which, in the Dublin edition, was published without this essential preface. Of the Life itself, we cannot speak too highly. The exquisite character of 'the dear St. Elizabeth,' (as the good Germans have at all times styled her), is brought out with a clearness, a tenderness, and a vigor, which bring tears from the heart. We do not think there is any book of the kind in English, at all to be compared to this 'Life of Saint Elizabeth.'"-American Celt.

"We might say much in praise of the narrative and Life of St. Elizabeth, attending which, from the beginning to the end, is a charm which cannot fail to attract and secure the attention of the reader, did not the well known abilities of this distinguished author render it unnecessary ..... We cheerfully recommend the work to our readers."-Pittsburg Catholic.

"This magnificent work of the great French Tribune of true liberty, has at last been translated into English. The name of its Author is a sufficient guarantee for the value of the work. Montalembert is one of the lights of the age-a man who combines rare power of intellect, with unswerving devotion to the cause of liberty and the Church..Let every one who desires to study the spirit of the Middle Ages, read this book."- Catholic Telegraph.

MR. KENNEDY, of ROXBURY, has discovered in one of the common pasture weeds a Remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR.

From the worst Scrofula down to the common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases (both thunder hu-mor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will clear the system of boils. Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of erysipelas. One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes. Two bottles are warranted to cure lunning of the ears and blotches among the hair. Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers. One bottle will cure scaly erruption of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the vorst case of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism. Three or four bottles are warranted to cure sait rheum. Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula. DIRECTIONS FOR USE .- Adult, one table spoonful per day. Children over eight years, a dessert spoonful; children from five to eight years tea spoonful. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day. Mr. Kennedy gives personal attendance in bad cases of Scrofula.

KENNEDY'S SALT RHEUM OINTMENT, TO BE USED IN CONNECTION WITH THE MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

For Inflamation and Humor of the Eyes, this gives immediate relief; you will apply it on a linen rag when going to bed.

For Scald Head, you will cut the hair off the affected part, apply the Ointment freely, and you will see the For Salt Rheum, rub it well in as often as convenient.

For Scales on an inflamed surface, you will rub it in to your heart's content; it will give you such real comfort that you cannot help wishing well to the inventor.

For Scabs: these commence by a thin, acrid fluid oozing through the skin, soon hardening on the surface; in a short time are full of yellow matter; some are on an inflamed surface, some are not; will apply the Ointment freely, but you do not rub it in.

For Sore Legs: this is a common disease, more so than is generally supposed; the skin terns purple, covered with scales, itches intolerably, sometimes forming running sores; by applying the Ointment, the itching and scales will disappear in a few days, but you must keep on with the Ointment until the

which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these Puis have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordina-ry medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteen of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to oure. Their ponetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purgo out the foul humors which breed and grow distance, stimulate sluggish or disordered or-gans into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every day complaints of every body, but also formidable and danger-ous diseases that have baffied the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are, at the same time, in di-minished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-costed, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are from from any risk of harm. BEINFIELD, MASS., 20th Dec., 1855. DR. J. C. ATER: I do not helitate to say the best romedy I have ever found for Congha-Hoarseness, Infinenza, and the concomizant symptoms of a Cold, is your CHERNY FROTMAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. EBEN KNIGHT, M.D.

A. B. MOBTLEY, ESQ., of Urica, N. Y., write: "I have used your PECTORAL myself and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

BREINGTHIS, MINE AVER, Feb. 7, 1866. BROTHER AVER: I will cheerfolly certify your PECTURAL is the best remedy we possess for the ours of Whooping Chugh, Croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your instentity in the Bouth appreciate your skill, and command your medicine to our people. HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

Alos LEE, Eso., Montrast, Ia, writes, 3d Jan., 1856: "I had a todious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your Pscrossat by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness is my throat and inngs; loss than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapeet as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

It has releaved soveral from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has habored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years. HENRY L. PARKS, Marchant.

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which enred as many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human ald lief and confort. Aston HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1856. DOCTOR ATER, LOWBL: I feel it a daty and a pleasare to in-form you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for my wife. She had been five mostle laboring under the dangerous symp-toms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave hor much rollof. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kinduses, as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is firse from her cough, and calls hereoif web.
