

SPIRIT OF THE PROTESTANT PRESS IN THE UNITED STATES.—The Independent has the following just remarks in a sermon of Henry Ward Beecher.—What is coming to pass in our day? Are the views of men in the same church identical? Can you find a single church whose members are homogeneous in their beliefs? You can find churches whose members would unite on an orthodox platform to run down a heretic; but can you find a church whose members are agreed on all the points of their faith? If you were to select from all the churches with which you are acquainted the one that is most characterized by unity and consistency, and if you were to go to a lawyer in that church, and talk with him respecting what he believes, do you suppose you would find that he holds what the creed holds? In confidence he would say to you, "My minister teaches so and so, but I am rather inclined to think that his view is superficial. He will not fight the views of his minister, but there are many of them that he does not accept. And so it was with men everywhere that think and read. Changes of opinion and differences of belief are inevitable among any enlightened body of men. You might as well expect an oak-tree, fed by the soil and the air, to stand without leaves in July, as to expect intelligent men to live in an age like this without changing their ideas. The world is changing with regard to religion, and politics, and literature, and art, and science. The common people are beginning to understand more about their own structure, and nature, and relations, and duties. And when all these things are going on, do you suppose that men's thoughts and modes of expression are not going to change. The Boston Recorder feelingly complains that to such an extent has the silence of orthodox pulpits gone, concerning doctrines, that a large portion of our people are taking the impression that these doctrines are obsolete and abandoned by the churches that have professed them. For, though they have worshipped in churches here and there, and all abroad, yet neither from their own ministers or others do they ever hear them. The Church.—The reports of the crops from all quarters of the country continue to be of the most cheerful character. It is evident that, unless some unforeseen and unusual disaster should occur between this and harvest time, we are about to have one of the most abundant years which has ever blessed this country. The cereal crops of the West promise to afford a very large yield, and the abundant return, it is hoped, will enable that region of country to extricate itself completely from the financial difficulties with which the panic of 1857 surrounded it, and from which it has not since been wholly relieved. In plain words, we hope this year of plenty will enable the West to pay its debts.—New York Herald.

THE GRAIN FIELDS OF THE WEST.—It is said that the whole West, from the Ohio to the Missouri, is one vast grain field. It is estimated that the State of Ohio will have thirty millions of wheat—five million more than it has ever produced before—and that it is of the best quality. It is also estimated that Wisconsin will have not far from twenty millions of bushels, which will be quiet enough for one season.—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

STRANGE BUT TRUE.—It has been ascertained on the best authority, that thirty vessels fitted out as slave ships are reported to have left New York from the 10th of August, 1859, to the 10th of June 1860. Their names are given. Since April, 1859, eleven slave ships have been captured by the American squadron, off the coasts of Africa and Cuba; but not one of the thirty cleared is embraced among the eleven captured.

BURNED TO DEATH IN A BONFIRE.—At Akron, in celebration of the Fourth, a bonfire was made at the corner of Market and Howard streets. A young man named Samuel O'Neill, carrying a barrel to the pile (which was already blazing with tar barrels and pines), by accident fell into the flames. He was, for seconds, not counted, in the midst of the fire, and came out crawling on his hands and knees, with not a shred of raiment on him. "Kill me," he shrieked, "for God's sake kill me. Cut my throat anything—only kill me." After all efforts that medical or surgical skill could give had been rendered, he died this morning, after suffering physical distress unexpressible.—Cleveland Herald.

WHAT CONSTITUTES A "YOUNG LADY."—A justice court in Schoharie county, New York, has judicially established the period when a girl passes into the dignity and privileges of a "young lady." This time has been found to be when the girl refuses to eat stewed onions and boiled cabbage, because she wants to keep her breath sweet.

FURTHER FROM ENGLAND. Bolton, Eng., June 4, 1859. Messrs. Perry Davis & Son: Sirs,—I have very great pleasure in recommending your medicine. I was suffering a few weeks since with a complaint called Bronchitis, and could scarcely take any food. I was recommended to try your PAIN KILLER, and after taking a few doses, I was completely cured.

THS. WILKINSON. P. S.—I have recommended the same medicine to many of my friends for different complaints, and in every instance it has had the desired effect of doing good. Manchester, Eng., May 31, 1859. Having tested the medicine called PAIN KILLER, manufactured by Perry Davis & Son of Providence, in the United States, I have much pleasure in speaking of its great efficacy and usefulness. Two years ago I was suddenly afflicted with a painful internal disease, when a friend of mine, (who had just returned from the States), seeing my anguish, gave me a small quantity of Pain Killer, which he had brought with him and which I took internally, as he directed. The relief was immediate, and so satisfied was I of its value as a medicine, that I immediately sent over to New York for half a dozen of the large bottles, and I am thankful to say it has proved to my family and to others who have used it, of inestimable value and relief to almost all kinds of suffering; and pain.

Yours Truly, H. D. MEAD.

SEE WHAT AYER'S SARSAPARILLA DOES FOR DERANGEMENT OF THE LIVER. STOTT'S CROSSING, Talladega Co., Ala., 9th August, 1859.

DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.—Sir: I take my pen to tell you what your SARSAPARILLA and CATARRHIC PILLS have done for me. I had been afflicted with Liver Complaint for six years, during which I was never well, and much of the time very sick. My liver was sore to the touch, and the Doctors said was congested. I suffered from severe costiveness and Diarrhoea alternately. My skin was clammy and unhealthy; my eyes and skin often yellow. Occasionally I had a voracious appetite, but generally none at all. A dreadful sensation of oppression on my stomach, with languor and a gloomy sensation of sickness all over kept me in anguish. You cannot know how much I suffered from an indescribable feeling of distress. The long continuance of this condition, without relief had worn me out so that I never expected to be better; but reading in the Christian Advocate, of your Sarsaparilla, I commenced taking it with occasional small doses of your Pills, to regulate the bowels as you direct.—From the first it had more effect upon my disorder than I supposed anything could have. I regained my health rapidly, and now after eleven weeks, enjoy as good health and strength as any other man. May the "Dispenser of all good" shower blessings on you. JOHN W. STOTT. Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists.

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medical gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that "Combination and a form indeed" Of medicine known as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, Whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping-Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption is unestimable.

HOME TESTIMONY. Boston, April 18, 1852. No. 48 Union Str. Mr. SETH W. FOWLE.—Dear Sir:—Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July I was attacked by a sudden Cold, which resulted in a very severe Cough, with violent pains in the Side and Chest. I became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this crisis, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, one of the most respectable in Boston, who had previously told me that a cure was hopeless, came in, and informed him what I had taken. He examined the Balsam, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily; and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years. Respectfully, MARY ROWE.

We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been an inmate of our family. WILLIM DENNETT. MARTHA DENNETT. None genuine unless signed I. BUTTS on the wrapper.
