A Practical Pointer on Salesmanship

It is of first importance in good salesmanship to select a worthwhile article to sell, something about which you can become enthusiastic with a reason—a reason that will last. In Life Insurance Salesmanship, for instance, a discriminating agent would naturally select the policies of the Mutual Life of Canada because—first, the Company is well-established—Second, it has an unblemished record—Third, it has a continental reputation as a dividend payer—Fourth, it is a democratic organization—Fifth, it is a wonderfully successful going concern—and lastly, being the only Canadian Policyholders' Company its contracts find a ready market. Where a company is so favorably known one half of the trouble of making the sale is avoided. If you get the best goods in your line and go to it, success is certain. Last year our agents placed $20,000,000 paid-for business.

TO SPEND THE BEST YEARS

of one's life in acquiring property and leave it all in jeopardy when it might be secured by Life Insurance is, to say the least, unbusinesslike.

A sufficient Life Policy has kept intact many an estate which would otherwise have gone to ruin for want of ready cash at the right time
