NEW BANK OF MONTREAL OFFICERS

As a result of the large expansion of business in the past few years, reflected in the annual statement just published, the directors of the Bank of Montreal have decided to enlarge the executive staff by the appointment of four assistant general managers in place of one, as formerly.

The appointments to the four offices* were announced on November 22nd, and are: Francis J. Cockburn, H. B. MacKenzie, G. C. Cassels and D. R. Clarke. Each of the new assistant general managers will continue in charge of territory now under his supervision. Mr. Cockburn's duties will be in connection with the Quebec, Maritime Provinces and Newfoundland branches, of which he has been superintendent. Mr. MacKenzie, general manager of the Bank of British North America, when it was recently absorbed by the Bank of Montreal, will supervise the branches of his old bank, now part of the Bank of Montreal system. Mr. Cassels will continue at the head of the London office. Mr. Clarke's duties will be connected with the Ontario branches, of which he has been superintendent for some months past. With the exception of Mr. Cassels at London, the headquarters of the different assistant general managers will be in Montreal.
