

4. No authentication or further certification of documents submitted in support of the request for extradition shall be required, except sworn statements offered in support of a request from Canada, which must be authenticated by the principal diplomatic or consular officer of the Republic of the Philippines in Canada.

ARTICLE 8

Additional Information

If the Requested State considers that the information furnished in support of the request for the extradition of a person is not sufficient to fulfil the requirements of this Treaty, that State may request that additional information be furnished within such time as it specifies.

ARTICLE 9

Provisional Arrest

1. In case of urgency, the Requesting State may apply, in writing, through the International Criminal Police Organization (INTERPOL) or to the competent authorities of the Requested State for the provisional arrest of the person sought pending the presentation of the request for extradition.
2. The application for provisional arrest shall be accompanied by a copy of the court decision or warrant of arrest, a description of the offence, when and where it was committed and the details of the identity of the person sought, and shall contain a statement that an extradition request will be made subsequently.
3. On receipt of such an application for provisional arrest, the Requested State shall take the necessary steps to secure the arrest of the person sought and the Requesting State shall be promptly notified of the result of its application.
4. A person arrested upon such application shall be released from custody upon the expiration of forty-five days from the date of that person's arrest if a request for that person's extradition, supported by the documents specified in Article 7, has not been received. In such case, the Requested State shall notify the Requesting State as soon as possible.
5. The release of a person pursuant to paragraph 4 of this Article shall not prevent the institution or continuation of proceedings with a view to extraditing the person sought if the request and the supporting documents are received subsequently.

ARTICLE 10

Consent to Extradition

Extradition of a person sought may be granted pursuant to the provisions of this Treaty, notwithstanding
