

within the territory of Canada that are subject to this Agreement.

4. With respect to nuclear material within the territory of Argentina, the commitment contained in paragraph (1) of this Article shall be verified pursuant to the safeguards agreement between Argentina, the Federative Republic of Brazil, the Brazilian-Argentine Agency for Accounting and Control of Nuclear Materials, and the International Atomic Energy Agency, in connection with the Treaty for the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons in Latin America and in the Caribbean. However, if for any reason or at any time the International Atomic Energy Agency is not administering safeguards within the territory of Argentina, Argentina shall forthwith enter into an agreement with Canada for the establishment of IAEA safeguards or of a safeguards system that conforms to the principles and procedures of the Agency's Safeguards System and provides for the application of safeguards to all items within the territory of Argentina that are subject to this Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII

1. Nuclear material shall remain subject to this Agreement until:
 - (a) it is determined that it is no longer either usable or practicably recoverable for processing into a form usable for any nuclear activity relevant from the point of view of safeguards referred to in Article VII of this Agreement. Both Parties shall accept a determination made by the International Atomic Energy Agency in accordance with the provisions for the termination of safeguards of the relevant safeguards agreement to which the Agency is a party;
 - (b) it has been transferred from the territory of the recipient Party in accordance with the provisions of Article V of this Agreement; or
 - (c) otherwise agreed between the Parties.
