XXIX

For the Union of South Africa and the Territory of South-West Africa:

The Delegation of the Union of South Africa and the Territory of South-West Africa, declares that the signature of the Union of South Africa and the Territory of South-West Africa to this Convention is subject to the reservation that the Union of South Africa and the Territory of South-West Africa does not agree to be bound by the Telephone Regulations referred to in Article 13 of the Buenos Aires Convention.

XXX

For the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics:

TAKING INTO ACCOUNT THE FACT

that under Article 47 of the Radio Regulations, supplementing the Telecommunication Convention, the entry into force of the most substantial part of those Regulations is made dependent on the decisions to be taken by the future Special Administrative Conference, mentioned in that Article; and

BEARING IN MIND

that in adoption of the decisions taken in 1951 by the Extraordinary Administrative Radio Conference (E.A.R.C.), the provisions of Article 47 of the Radio Regulations were infringed, and that hence the said E.A.R.C. decisions are illegal; and also that the Plenipotentiary Conference (1952), in adopting a resolution according to which those illegal E.A.R.C. decisions are to be considered as replacing the provisions of the Radio Regulations, thereby infringed the provisions of Article 13 of the Telecommunication Convention, relative to the binding character of the Regulations;

CONSIDERING

the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics in these circumstances leaves open the question of accepting the provisions of the Tele-
