

Treaty Presents

Annuities

Treaty No. 11

Government Obligations

Treaty Presents

Annuities

Treaty made between His Majesty the King and the Chippewa Indians of Christian Island, Georgian Island and Rama, October 21, 1822.

AND

Treaty made between His Majesty the King and the Mississauga Indians of Rice Lake, Mud Lake, Scobie Lake and Albeville, November 12, 1822.

Government Obligations

LEGISLATION

There is only one Indian Act and one Indian administration in Canada. Before Confederation, in addition to the old provinces of Canada, several of the colonies and now four Canada and Indian legislation and some administrative organization for Indian affairs. After Confederation, Parliament from time to time enacted legislation concerning Indians that was first consolidated in the Indian Act of 1876, which, though changed and simplified by various amendments, remained the basic Indian law until 1951 when a new Act came into force. In keeping with government policy of encroachment

Reserves 1 square mile for each family of five, subject to Government's right to deal with settlers on reserve lands right to sell or lease reserve lands with consent of Indians and to appropriate reserve lands for Federal public purposes subject to compensation for improvements and lands; right to hunt trap and fish in ceded area subject to government regulations; salaries to teachers.

Medals and flags and copy of treaty for each chief, fishing, hunting and trapping equipment to value of $50.00 for each family of bands; miscellaneous equipment.

Indians $5.00, chiefs $25.00, headmen $15.00; triennial suit of clothes for chiefs and headmen, annual distribution of twine, ammunition, etc.

Indians ceded hunting, fishing and trapping rights over an area of 20,000 square miles in southern and northern Ontario between Lake Ontario and Georgian Bay.

$500,000 paid by Ontario.

There is only one Indian Act and one Indian administration in Canada. Before Confederation, in addition to the old provinces of Canada, several of the colonies and now four Canada and Indian legislation and some administrative organization for Indian affairs. After Confederation, Parliament from time to time enacted legislation concerning Indians that was first consolidated in the Indian Act of 1876, which, though changed and simplified by various amendments, remained the basic Indian law until 1951 when a new Act came into force. In keeping with government policy of encroachment

Areas ceded, 278,000 square miles.

Game and other Indians. The Northwest Territories north of Great Slave Lake.

Slave, Slave, Dogrib, Tutchet, etc.

of clothes, tobacco and headmen.

ammunition annually; triennial suit of clothes.

$5.00; distribution of twine and

Chiefs $25.00, headmen $15.00, Indians $5.00.

headmen $25.00, medals and flags.

Indians $12.00, chiefs $22.00.