

Disability in the Developing World

Foreword

The views and recommendations in this report are those of the author, and are not to be interpreted as having been considered or accepted by the Canadian Centre for Foreign Policy Development, the Queen Elizabeth II Health Sciences Centre, or the Division of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation of Dalhousie University Faculty of Medicine.

The author wishes to express her appreciation for the cooperation and assistance received during this study from the Canadian Centre for Foreign Policy Development and Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade, POWER-Mozambique, the Maputo provincial Ministry for Social Action, the Moamba district Red Cross, ADEMIMO, ADEMO, the Canadian consulate in Mozambique, Drs. Tom Loane, Lee Kirby, and Ron Stewart, NovaHealth International, the Queen Elizabeth II Research Fund, and the Division of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation of the Dalhousie University Faculty of Medicine.

Special thanks and recognition goes to Mr. Max Deneu, Country Director of POWER-Mozambique, and all the Maputo staff at POWER-Mozambique without who's assistance this project would not have been possible.

Finally, deepest gratitude to my co-researchers in the field; Jeff Campbell, Stephen Adams, and Domingos Sambo.
