

10. The Contracting Parties confirm that the aeronautical authorities of either Contracting Party may request discussions on prices with the aeronautical authorities of the other Contracting Party at any time. Such discussions, which may be conducted orally or in writing, shall be held within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the request, unless otherwise decided between the aeronautical authorities. The aeronautical authorities shall cooperate in securing information necessary for consideration of a price. If a decision is reached as a result of discussions, the Contracting Parties confirm that the aeronautical authorities shall put that decision into effect.

11. Each Contracting Party may require the designated airlines to file their respective general terms and conditions of carriage with the aeronautical authorities at least thirty (30) days before the proposed effective date or such lesser period as may be permitted by the aeronautical authorities. Acceptance or approval of such terms and conditions shall be subject to national laws and regulations. The Contracting Parties confirm that the aeronautical authorities of either Contracting Party may at any time withdraw such acceptance or approval upon not less than fifteen (15) days' notice to the designated airlines concerned and the term or condition shall cease to exist.

ARTICLE 14

Sales and Transfer of Funds

1. Each Contracting Party grants to the other Contracting Party the rights for the designated airlines of the other Contracting Party to:

- (a) engage in the sale of air transportation in the territory of the Contracting Party directly and/or, subject to the national laws and regulations applicable in the territory of the Contracting Party, at the discretion of a designated airline through its agents;
- (b) sell transportation in the currency of that territory or, at its discretion, in freely convertible currencies of other countries, and any person shall be free to purchase such transportation in currencies accepted by that airline;
- (c) convert and remit abroad, on demand, funds obtained in the normal course of its operations.

2. Conversion and remittance shall be permitted without restrictions at the foreign exchange market rates for current payments prevailing at the time of submission of the request for transfer, and shall not be subject to any charges except normal service charges collected by banks for such transactions.
